From Brother and Sisters

- To have not chosen me, but I have chosen you to be My peculiar possession and to submit to my will alone, and to remain forever in my service."

Several years ago God, for Christ's dear sake, brought me to a place where I needed to believe in His own personal possession and the love that He has for me.

In Jesus as their flavour; many have heard the Gospel, and many thousands of taxes and costs have been distributed. Only a few have received the Holy Spirit, and only a few have passed into the fullness of the Holy Ghost and fire with the fire of God. The Lord has spoken and the Holy Spirit has come upon us. We both knew our union had been a spiritual union and an eternal union. Our union cradled me to them, to the Son of God, and He took them to the home of God.

What human words can adequately express the wonderful news reached me that numbers were more real than the things continously flowing unceasingly and prayer the translation of Jesus, feeling tender care.

In His feet. Faithful Is He that He promised to do so. God the Father, because He promised to do so. God the Father, because He promised to do so.

If they do not care to live on native food, as she does, they can purchase good food at the town some miles distant, and God would send the right persons. There does not seem to be a real need also for Bibles and tracts and gospels. And we need so much, so very much, some penance to God and also to the dear Lord and our heavenly father.

We need encouragement to know we may really have a knowledge of Him, our Heavenly Father. God has given upon all Jesus. He must be accepted by Himself.

I have received the gift of the Holy Ghost, because He promised to do so. God the Father, because He promised to do so. God the Father, because He promised to do so.

It is true we will go forth in His name to the unknown lands, and we will be tested and tried in our strength, and may He cause the cross to be formed in our heart through the power of the Holy Ghost and fire with the fire of God. The Lord has spoken and the Holy Spirit has come upon us. We both knew our union had been a spiritual union and an eternal union. Our union cradled me to them, to the Son of God, and He took them to the home of God.

I will never, no never, no never forsake."

I'll never, no never, no never forsake."

The Lord was with us in the field and in a short time we could not keep up with the work, because it was so beautiful and so wonderful.

I have received the gift of the Holy Ghost, because He promised to do so. God the Father, because He promised to do so. God the Father, because He promised to do so.

PURGE OUT THE LEAVEN

Zephaniah 1:12 reads: “And it shall come to pass, that the Lord God of hosts shall purge the land from the inhabitants thereof, and shall take away all affliction, and the grosser burden, thesnatch, and oppression, in the midst thereof. "

The Good Report

Deborah Kwit

Dear Brother Kwit,

We expect to arrive at Honolulu tomorrow morning, and will go straight to the Mission station immediately. Our fare and the cost of our baggage was paid for. We can now get the salary which we have been expecting so long. We shall be pleased to have any news or letters you may have for us.

We feel biid of God and come to work in this endeavor. We have been working hard to prepare ourselves for this work, and we are now ready to do our best for the Lord. We hope to see you as soon as we can.

Sincerely yours,

David A. BARTH

Pillage and Devastation

What a scene! The city of Honolulu is in ruins. The sea has rushed in and destroyed everything. The churches are burned to the ground, and the people are in great distress. The Lord has heard our prayers and has answered them in a wonderful way. We are happy to be able to help the people in their time of need.

We have sent out a call for help, and many have responded. We have received a large amount of money and provisions, which we will distribute among the poor. We pray that the Lord will bless this work and that many will be saved through it.

God bless you all,

Brother Barth.
THE GIFT OF INTERPRETATION

W. F. Carothers

Ever since the time of the early Church, it has been our firm belief that the gift of interpretation has been an urgent and necessary one for all who are called to serve in the church. It is a gift that helps us to understand and apply the Word of God in our daily lives. In our day, there are many who have received this gift and are using it to the glory of God.

I am asked, "What does it mean when the Holy Spirit is given by the Lord to a believer for the purpose of interpretation?" I want to answer this question by saying that it probably means just what it does mean elsewhere in the Scriptures. The Spirit is given to a believer for the purpose of interpreting the Word of God and for the edification of the church. It is a gift that is given to a believer for the purpose of helping them understand the Word of God and for the edification of the church.

The Holy Spirit is the One who gives the gift of interpretation. He is the One who is able to reveal the deeper meanings of the Scriptures and to give us a better understanding of them. The Spirit is given to a believer for the purpose of interpreting the Word of God and for the edification of the church. It is a gift that is given to a believer for the purpose of helping them understand the Word of God and for the edification of the church.

In Acts 2:8, Peter said, "But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be witnesses to Me in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth." This verse shows how important it is to have the gift of interpretation. It is a gift that is given to a believer for the purpose of helping them understand the Word of God and for the edification of the church. It is a gift that is given to a believer for the purpose of helping them understand the Word of God and for the edification of the church.

In Acts 2:4, Peter said, "And with great power the apostles gave witness to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus. And great grace was upon them all." This verse shows how important it is to have the gift of interpretation. It is a gift that is given to a believer for the purpose of helping them understand the Word of God and for the edification of the church. It is a gift that is given to a believer for the purpose of helping them understand the Word of God and for the edification of the church.

It is important to understand that the gift of interpretation is not just for the use of the church leaders, but for all who are called to serve in the church. It is a gift that is given to a believer for the purpose of helping them understand the Word of God and for the edification of the church. It is a gift that is given to a believer for the purpose of helping them understand the Word of God and for the edification of the church.

In Acts 2:14, Peter said, "But Peter, standing up with the eleven, raised his voice and declared to them, 'You men of Israel, listen to these words..." This verse shows how important it is to have the gift of interpretation. It is a gift that is given to a believer for the purpose of helping them understand the Word of God and for the edification of the church. It is a gift that is given to a believer for the purpose of helping them understand the Word of God and for the edification of the church.

It is a gift that is given to a believer for the purpose of helping them understand the Word of God and for the edification of the church.

We should pray for the gift of interpretation, for it has been given by the Lord to a believer for the purpose of interpreting the Word of God and for the edification of the church. It is a gift that is given to a believer for the purpose of helping them understand the Word of God and for the edification of the church. The word salvation includes in itself the ideas of deliverance, safety, preservation, healing, deliverance from sin, freedom from the curse of sin, forgiveness, sanctification and glorification. All of us are victims of sin, and there is no salvation except through Christ. Following are some verses from the Bible regarding deliverance:

Jeremiah 31:3, 10: "They shall build houses and inhabit them; they shall plant gardens and eat the fruit of them; they shall take wives and raise families there; they shall not be oppressed any more, nor shall the remnant of the land any more be cut off by the nations before them."

John 14:6: "Jesus said to him, "I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me."

1 Peter 3:18: "For it is written, "Therefore I will3'redeem them with 77 blood of my own, through the eternal3'ke./"' (Hab. 3:16)"

In summary, salvation is a personal experience, and it is through faith in Jesus Christ that one can be delivered from sin and its consequences. It is a process that begins with belief in Jesus Christ and is continued through faith and obedience. It is a process that is ongoing and requires a personal commitment to follow Jesus Christ and to live a life that is pleasing to God.
