Marilee Brown Reigns as ORU's Basketball Queen

By Linda Kay Wyatt

Marilee Brown was crowned ORU's first basketball queen Monday, February 28, during the half time of ORU's last game of the season.

Chosen by the basketball team from among three finalists, Marilee was escorted by John Stetman. Other finalists and their escorts were Jolene Davis, escorted by Edith Engel, and Mary Jay Ford, escorted by Steve Alley.

Dave Bailey, representing the Titan team, presented Mrs. Oral Roberts with the sealed envelope containing the queen's name and she disclosed the winner as she handed the queen over the microphone. Rev. Oral Roberts then placed the crown on the queen's head and Dave Bailey presented her with flowers.

The queen and her court reign over the remaining half of the basketball game from a miniature throne erected on one side of the gymnasium. To start the second half, the newly crowned queen who had chased the game ball which she tossed to the retiring princess, put together by members of the pep club under the direction of Captain, Shipsley and Ron Doccio, was decorated with multicolored crepe paper, bouquets and flowers. ORU's hometown, Oral Roberts, with columns and a realistic likeness of marble statues, the parsonage was surrounded by artificial green grass and held three white thrones for the three princesses.

Encores for the occasion were Mr. George Engel and Mr. Robert Leiterman of Religious film productions Inc., who is in charge of film work for the Oral Roberts Evangelistic Association.

Throughout the festivities the ORU band played numbers such as Moon River, Left My Heart In San Francisco, Call Me Irresponsible, and You're My Everything.

QUESTION FOR THE WHOLE MAN?

The McAlester parochial's "Eye Opener" provides the thought for the day. A small boy was asked to write what he had learned about the human body in his hygiene class. So he sat down and:

"Our body is divided into three parts—the brain, the trunk, and the abdominal cavity. The brain contains the brain, if you. The trunk contains the lungs, light and heat. The abdominal cavity contains the bowls, of which there are five—a, o, i, u and y."

THE SPIRITUAL SCOPE

"The more meaningful worship becomes, the more clearly will we realize that material things do not bring happiness and are of little value in making us more creatively powerful." Paul McHenry.

What meaningful is your time of worship? Is it a chore for you to get up on Sunday?

Here have been many times that this generation is one of rebellion, one of dissatisfaction and complete disillusion. But every generation has suffered these pains, so we are no different.

Yet no one need suffer—the answer to all is found in Christ, the center of this campus.

THE FLAME

The sound of the waves cascading from the fountain.

The refreshing cool night air .

The hushed voices of the people, as they wait anxiously—

Many torches giving birth to the eternal light.

The dreams of many made into reality.

Faust Opera To Be Given In Tulsa

Gemini's FAUST, in French, is to be presented in the Tulsa Municipal Theatre at 8 p.m. Thursday, March 10 and 8 p.m. Saturday, March 12. The cost of tickets is $1.50 and $1 each. They may be ordered through Tulsa Opera headquarters, 539 S. Boulder.

FAUST is a poetic drama in five acts. The theme at the heart of this drama is man's desire to transcend his physical limitations, his search for answers to the eternal questions of the meaning of life and the universe. The conflicts in FAUST are good and evil, love and hate, the very core of man.

The central message of this great opera is "He who strives is never lost."

Cheerleaders Cheered for . . .

Blue and white whirls of color, enthusiastic yells, fastastic leaps and bends — these are our ORU cheerleaders. They were last felled by a panel of judges, the five girls and one boy have met each day to practices and to invent new cheers. Each game has seen them on the floor cheering our boys on to greater efforts.

The five girls introduced them to you individually.

From Roanoke, Virginia, comes TAMMY VOUGHER, who is capti- pant of our squad. Sandra is twenty years old and a Sociology major. Upon her graduation from college she plans to become a high school teacher. While in high school Sandra was captain of her cheerleading squad, salutatorian of her class and homecoming queen. Before coming to ORU she worked for General Electric. When asked what her hobby is Sandra replied, "Well, I'm trying to learn to cook." Since her main interest seems to lie in a certain young man, this hobby is understandable!

JUDY MIDDLETON comes to us from Fort Walton, Florida. Judy is a history major and intends to be a history teacher. Her major interests include spectator sports, skating, and music. During her high school years Judy was a member of the school's high-jump and the de-bate club, among others. Before coming to ORU Judy attended Pine-nacle Junior College where she was elected School Sweetheart.

The only Oklahoman on the squad is eighteen-year-old BEV- ERLEY JOHNSON of Tulsa, Oklahoma. Beverly says that her main interest at the present time is to be "the best student I can possibly be here at ORU." Beverly is a co-editor of the yearbook and is majoring in majoring in languages. She has the interesting hobby of painting, and has been an oil, and water, and acrylic artist. In her spare time Beverly enjoys painting, and has been an oil, and water, and acrylic artist. KRAFT VALENTINE ARRIVES

A very special valentine arrived at 6:20 a.m. on February 14, as Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Kraft become the proud parents of the second ORU baby, a blue-eyed, dark-haired baby. Kenneth Robert Kraft was named after his father and after Rev. Oral Roberts.

God grant me the serenity to accept things I cannot change, courage to change the things I can, and wisdom to know the difference.

ORU Tumbles Southwestern and Connors State College

By Mel Guard

Paced by high scoring Tom Scrutch, Gary Gagnon, Arnold Colns, and Ros Luena, ORU romped to its twelfth home game basketball victory downing Oklahoma City Southwestern Junior College Saturday night, before 1,000 fans at the Titans' fieldhouse. Scrutch scored numerous quick baskets off middle court thefts and fine drives but they were offset by the accurate shooting of Dennis Kelly and Dan Miller. Scrutch pulled ORU into the lead early in the first half and the victors were never behind. The deck ball handling backliner scored 15 points in the first half and set Colns on the post with cheap baskets to fire ORU's second-half surge. Crown's favorite Dave "Skull" Bailey hit the 100th point.

The Titans traveled to Connors State College, Warner, Oklahoma, Thursday night and added their eighteenth victory on their last road trip of the season over the Aggies, 81 to 70. ORU pulled out to a 10 point halftime margin and then on, the Aggies never stayed in sight. Paul Massey paced with 28 points on sensational driving layups while Gagnon, 6'7" shapshotting forward connected on his potent jumps from the corner for 21 field goals. ORU boosted its league record to 19-8 with the victory.

Led by high-point man Mike Wachob, the Oklahoma City Chiefs, behind two at the half, roared back in the second half to overtake the Titan half-time lead. The Chiefs, hot second-half 67 percent of their shots made was the difference in the final tally. ORU had a 46 percent shooting average for the second half. With several stolen passes and a hot offensive, OCU closed that gap. Wachob tied the score, 40-40, with 12:25 remaining. Woody Jones, who had his best second-half of the season, made a free throw to put ORU ahead for the last time.

Cold shooting and a weakened defense by the Titans caused the Chiefs to gain an eight-point margin. With three straight field goals by Rich Travis, OCU was ahead 78-70 with 10:50 left. Shots by Wachob and Melvin Warkman with 5:08 left, gave the Chiefs a 13-point lead, the largest of the entire night. Art Yancy fouled out of the game. Gagnon was the only Titan to foul out, with one second left.

The Titans could never recover in the last five minutes. The final score was 109-96. This was the season closer for the Oral Roberts University Titans. Coach White's first winning season at ORU was 18 wins and 10 losses.
