PARHAM CONVERTS MILLIONS, CLAIM

The Rev. Charles F. Parham opened a month of revival services at Monterey hall, 1816 Fourth avenue last night. According to Rev. John G. Lake, Rev. Parham claims 10,000,000 converts to his faith in the world. He started when yet a young man and has devoted his life to the work.

"From the creed which Rev. Parham started there have been many organizations evolved," continued Rev. Lake. "Chief among these are the Apostolic faith, the Pentecostal missions, and the Assemblies of God."

The Rev. Mr. Parham will continue his revival meetings until November 8, when he will leave for Portland.
