Faith, The Conqueror

E. W. Kenyon

It is said that Jesus never reasoned, that He never laboriously worked out problems, as did Napoleon, Newton, and other great intellectual geniuses.

I never knew the reason until lately. Jesus didn't belong to the reason realm.

Faith acts in its own domain with a boldness that startles us in the reason realm. When the believer begins to walk by faith, he comes into the same realm in which Jesus wrought.

Faith doesn't care anything about what the natural eye can see, or what the natural ear can hear, or the physical body feel.

Faith only sees the Omnipotence. The natural eye sees the great Jericho walls, and hears the taunting of the enemy.

The natural body feels the gnawing pain of the cancer. Faith stands serenely by.

Faith speaks and says, "Become quiet."

Walls fall down, demons are defeated, and cancers are healed.

One would almost think that faith was utterly blind to physical conditions.

When reason remonstrates with it, faith just smiles and says, "Peace be still."

Faith lifts the believer up into God's class of being.

Jesus meant just what He said when He said that nothing should be impossible to us.

Jesus was not speaking in hyperboles. It was a sober statement of fact.

Faith can conquer the unconquered millions of India, the hordes of China—and lay them at the feet of Jesus.

You see, fallen man has to live in the realm of reason and it is a difficult thing for us who have lived so long, surrounded by the world mind, to get the mind of Christ.

The mind of Christ is the faith mind. The mind of the world is the reason mind.

One swings around the common center of our own ability. Faith counts the work done even when Satan is seen in control.

Faith sees Satan defeated even when he is seen ruling in power. Diseases are healed in the mind of faith before the prayer is uttered.

Faith moves and acts with the serenity and quietness of God.

Reason is troubled and excited and nervous. Faith stands unmoved. Faith knows that God cannot lie. Faith never argues about it. Faith never mentions it.

Faith says, "Rise, stand upon thy feet."

Faith sings its anthem of praise before it ever commands the deaf to hear, the lame to walk, or the sick to be healed.

Faith stands quiet, enwrapped in the integrity of God.

Beloved, this kind of faith comes from contact with the Father.

This kind of faith comes from feeding upon the Word.

This kind of faith comes from daring to walk out on the statements of fact in this Book.

"IS HEALING FOR ME"

E. W. Kenyon

Ashen lips, halting words, asking this question, "Is healing for me; the doctors have given me up to die; they say an operation would be of no value. Can God and will God give me back my health?"

I said, "There is only one answer to this and only one person can answer it. It is God in His Word. What has He said about it?"

We turned to Is. 53: and read those Words that have thrilled the heart of millions.

"Surely He hath borne our sicknesses and carried our sorrows: . . . He was wounded for our transgressions. He was bruised for our iniquities; the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed."

That was a prophecy of the Master.

It was written several hundred years before He came, but when He came He fulfilled it as far as His earthwalk was concerned, and then He went onto the cross and God laid upon Him not only our iniquities but our diseases.

So that Peter tells us by the Holy Spirit, "By His Stripes we were healed."

It was done.

I showed this one lying there that if Christ bore her diseases she had no right to bear them too, for by her bearing them she annulled all that Christ had done.

Then we went over the plan of Redemption.

We saw beyond a shadow of a doubt that Jesus came to save men. That is, the whole man.

That his body is a part of him, his soul is a part of him, his spirit is a part of him, and that if He healed man, it was spirit, soul and body that was to be healed.

She saw it.

Then I began to unfold the Scriptures and I proved that she had a perfect Redemption in Christ . . . that it was hers . . . that He died for her.

It was a personal affair.

Fill Thou My Life

Horatius Bonar

Fill Thou my life, O Lord my God
In every part with praise,
That my whole being may proclaim
Thy being and Thy ways.

Praise in the common things of life,
Its goings out and in,
Praise in each duty and each deed,
However small and mean.

So shall no part of day or night
From sacredness be free:
But all my life, in every step,
Be fellowship with Thee.

Then Who Shall Fear?

God, by Whose almighty hand
The routine of the stars was planned,

The templed sky and earthly place,
With groves of cedar o'er its face,
And mountains lifting from the sea

To share the unscaled heights with Thee—

The thunderous ocean's vast domain—

Creator of the sun and rain,—

Give us the faith, when dangers press,

To trust in Thee in our distress.

Thou Who hast ruled the boundless wave

Hath power to shield, and power to save.

You feeble men who plan and scheme,

And plot to ruin another's dream,

Who make a foolish noise that mars

The rhapsody of earth and stars,
Who laugh in your Creator's face,
And slur another's creed or race,
Who rush for gain instead of truth
And punish age and misguide youth,

How shall you face the judgment bar

And make excuse for what you are?

He Who has powers you do not scan

Has access to the mind of man.

You fearful souls who cringe and doubt

And never dare His praise to shout,
Who murmur weakly at a wrong,
Without the will to make you strong,

Who fall when simple things oppress

And dare not rise from your distress,

Who long for truth, yet fear its power,

Who yield, to prosper for an hour,
Who pray without the soul of prayer

And never lay your burdens bare,

What shall you say, since you have failed,

To God Whose strength for you prevailed?

He Who has cast the birds awing,
Who gave each soul the power to sing,

Who blest the roses with the dew
And gave the skies their shining blue,

Who talked in thunder, walked in fire,
Conquered demons and desire,
Healed the sick by simple word,
Childish prayers has blest and heard,

Has power to shield and power to tend

Your smallest needs unto the end.

Why do you doubt, when all shall stand

In equal judgment by His hand?

What Are You Worth?

E. W. Kenyon

What value do you place on yourself, on your time?

It is what you think that you are worth that you will be able to demand in the market.

In your secret heart you know whether you are true, can be trusted, whether you are worthwhile or not.

It is not what you bluff or pretend, it is what you are. That is your value.

Until you, in your own heart, recognize your honesty and worth, you will never come to the level of efficiency.

What is your word worth? Have you ever set a price on it? Can those who associate with you and depend upon you trust your word absolutely?

Really, have you ever set a price upon yourself?

You are too valuable to barter away for a bit of pleasure or frivolous nonsense.

You are worth more this year than you have ever been before, more to yourself, more to your family, more to the future, more to the firm for which you work.

Allow no month to go by without improving yourself. Put this self improvement first. Take an inventory. See what you possess that is worth while, what ability you have, and whether it is developed, what talents you have and whether they are increasing in value.

Get into your niche where you belong.

Find out what you are fitted for and then go to it and win out.

THE RESURRECTION MORNING

E. M. WOOD

In the Resurrection Morning,
O, where will you be found?

Will you be dressed in robes of sin?

Or in a bright and righteous gown?

Will you be calling the rocks and mountains

To hide you from His face?

Or will you be singing God's praises

For His unfailing grace?

Will you be like Paul and Silas

In that cold Philippian jail,
Singing praises to their Saviour
For His grace that never fails?

Or will you be like the traitor,
Judas,

Who for some paltry silver fell
And will reap his awful punishment

In a hot and burning hell?

Will you be like the beggar Lazarus,

Lying at the rich man's gate,
Asking to be fed with the crumbs
That fell from the rich man's plate?

Or will you be like the rich man
Who died and lifted up his eyes
in hell,
Seeing Lazarus in Abraham's bosom,
Where all with him was well?

Will you be waiting for the Master

On that great Judgment Morning
Singing, "Glory, glory halli-
jah,"

At the sounding of the Horn?
Or will you weep as the rocks
and mountains

Refuse to hide you from His face,

And the angels sing their glad hosannas

For God's sweet amazing grace!

Remember these calendars sell for only 15c each. Place your order early.

FAITH AND SIGHT

Max Stowe

Sight and feeling belong to the natural man. Faith belongs to the supernatural man. Every Christian is a supernatural man, yet many do not know it.

To many it seems unreasonable to disbelieve the senses. We have taken them as final, conclusive evidence for so long that it is extremely difficult to realize that there is other evidence.

We have been taught that the final court of appeal was the sense of sight. "Seeing is believing," we have always said. We have planned our lives and lived them on that premise. We have failed to take into account the higher source of knowledge. This higher knowledge is Revelation Knowledge, the Word of God. The Word of God should be the final court of appeal with Christians.

Many Christians, when they are told that they are to walk by faith and not by sight and to lay aside Sense evidence, rebel against it. "Do you mean to say that I cannot depend upon anything I see. I could never believe in such an absurdity. For instance I hold a book in my hand. I see it and feel it. I can smell the printer's ink on its pages. If I drop it, I can hear it fall. Do you mean to tell me that the book is not real and that it is not there, when my senses tell me it is real and is there?"

God is not saying the book is not real and that it is not in the hand. We do not speculate on things about which God has said nothing, but when He talks of spiritual realities, we put His Word above the evidence of the senses.

Our condition is like that of Jesus when He was here in the flesh. He recognized the evidence of the senses, but He was never dominated by them. The senses were His servants. He lived above them. He pronounced the blind man healed and the lepers cleansed when they were still blind and still leprous. He called the things that were not as though they were.

We are to accept the evidence of the senses as long as it is not contradicted by the Word, but whenever the Word differs, we are to lay aside all evidence of the senses and act on the Word. 2 Cor. 10:5.

When we do this, the Father honors the Word we act on, and we see it realized in our lives.

We are always safe when we believe God, no matter how convincing the evidence of the senses may be. What God says is always true. "Let God be true, but every man a liar." Rom. 3:4. Sense Knowledge is a lie when it does not agree with the Word, and when we walk by faith we cast it aside and then enjoy the Father's already-provided blessings.

Confession

E. W. Keyon

My lips can imprison or set me free,
Give Satan or Jesus the mastery.
You see I've discovered the mystery
That gives us freedom or slavery
Is our confession.

Then when my confession I am making
That Satan now my heart is breaking,
All my faith from me he's taking,
Thru my body pains are raking,
Satan ruled confession.

When my lips with praise I'm filling,
Of His grace and love I'm telling,
Then the promise is so thrilling
Of His presence and indwelling,
Satan cannot touch me.

Come and hear my glad confession
Christ for me makes Intercession,
Cleansed am I of all transgression,
Now free am I of all depression,
Satan's lost control.

Believing is utterly dependent upon confession. Believing is action. It is the verb of the Faith Life. It is lifting the flood gates and letting the stream go through.

Believing is acting on the Word that God has spoken.

There isn't any believing without action. There may be an assent to the fact, but Scriptural believing demands action. It demands that we act before God acts.

It is not believing to act after He acts... that is confirming it. To believe and act before God has acted is the Scriptural meaning of believing.

Faith is something that comes after one has acted.

The relation of believing and faith to confession is fully realized.

When we say confession, we do not mean confession of sin. We mean the confession of our faith. We confess what we have believed.

Faith then, is not faith until confession comes from the lips. It is but mental assent, but mental assent becomes faith by action or confession.

Most of what we call faith is mental assent to the great fundamentals of the Word. Real Faith is a living, moving force.

To confess Christ as Saviour and Lord is believing. To confess before the world that He is able to supply all your needs according to His riches in Glory in Christ Jesus, is believing.

You can see that there is no believing on Christ as Saviour and Lord without lip confession.

So, there is no God-accepted faith that does not manifest itself in confession.

Only recently have I seen with clearness the infinite value of continual affirming, not only to our inner man, our own Soul and Spirit, but to the world.

Our Spiritual life depends upon our constantly affirming what God has declared, and what God is in Christ, and what we are before the Father in Christ.

Confession is Faith's confirmation.

To constantly affirm the things that God is to you and you are to God, and the things you are in Christ, and what Christ is in you, is to give Faith wings to reach higher altitudes in the Spiritual experiences.

The thing that made Methodism so mighty in its early days, was a continual confession of the things for which Mr. Wesley stood.

When they stopped affirming, Faith stopped growing, and believing or acting upon the Word became more and more difficult.

I believe it would be valuable for us if we could now think of a few pungent statements of fact in the Word.

In Col. 2:10 Paul says, "Ye are complete in Him."

Your heart repeats this refrain,

"I am complete in my Spirit" ... "I have partaken of His fullness, of His completeness. His completeness makes it possible for me to stand in His Presence uncondemned, unafraid. His completeness makes me equal to any situation that may come upon me. I stand complete in His Resurrection life. All that the Father saw in Him, He sees in me today. I am the workmanship of God, created in Christ Jesus."

Say it over to your heart again, "I am complete in Him."

You may have physical weakness, but understand, the law of Faith is that you confess to your own heart that what God says about you is true.

You do not have to have any feeling about it, any symptoms.

The fact is, that if you were healed before you confessed, it would not be an affirmation, it would be a confirmation.

You would be simply confirming what God had done.

But now, before it takes place, you say, "By His stripes I am healed." Not, "I may be," or "I am going to be," but "I am."

That is believing; that is an act of real Faith. By Faith, you now stand complete in Him. What is Faith to you, is Fact to Him.

You stand there with joy. You praise Him, you adore Him for it. You are complete in Him.

Your joy is complete in Him, your rest is complete in Him, your peace is complete in Him.

Say, "He is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid? He is the strength of my body, so I can do anything that He desires done."

You no longer talk about your sickness and failure. He is the strength of your life.

Life, here, means physical life. He is the strength of your arms and legs, of your stomach and bowels. He is the health of your navel, the center of the nerves.

Where fear has come with great force and held you in bondage, He has banished it and become your strength.

He is the strength of your mind, for you have the mind of Christ.

He is the strength of your spirit. Your spirit is the place where courage is power, where faith arises and dominates the soul, where peace finds its home and radiates out through the faculties of the soul.

Rest, peace, faith, love and hope find their home in the spirit, and He is the strength of your spirit.

The great Christ is seated there. That is His throne, blessed be His Name.

Now you are not going to fear circumstances. You are not going to be afraid of anything, for He is the strength of your life. He is your Righteousness.

I would that you understood what this means.

It is God, Himself, His holiness, His Eternal Righteousness, His mind. He swallows us up, He absorbs us, He overwhelms us, He immerses us in Himself.

Just as the Holy Spirit came in that upper room and filled it and immersed every Disciple in it with Himself, so the Righteousness of God immerses us, and then as the Holy Spirit went inside of them and made their bodies His home, so God by the New Birth, the New Creation, makes us His Righteousness in Christ Jesus.

We can say without fear or any sense of unworthiness, "God is my Righteousness."

You glory in His Righteousness. You revel in His Righteousness, You make your boast, you stand up and shout His Righteousness.

Then your heart grows quiet.

"Him that knew no sin, God made to become sin that we might become the Righteousness of God in Him."

Now, you know that not only is He your Righteousness, but you

What Our Readers Say

J.W.S., Hyattsville, Md.

"New Creation Realities" has been a wonderful help to me in understanding God's Word and in taking my place in Christ, enabling me to resist Satan. The doctor told me there was no cure for my body, but Praise God, He has kept me all these months. "He that is in me is greater than he that is in the world." Rom. 8:11 is real and is becoming more wonderful every day. Satan is defeated. Praise God!

J.R.S., Philadelphia, Pa.

I am enclosing $1.00 for which please send to me the book, "In His Presence." The books of Dr. Kenyon are so blessed and uplifting. They are a feast to me.

Rev. R.W.B., Vinton, Iowa

We are pastoring at the present time, but feel that God is leading us into a Healing ministry. We have found your book, "Jesus the Healer," to be a great faith builder.

Rev. E.L.A., Atlanta, Ga.

I am an evangelist and would like to get your book, "Jesus the Healer," into the hands of others as it has helped me so much. It is the greatest faith builder I have ever found.

Mrs. W. B. M., Wynnewood, Okla.

I wrote to you a few months ago and asked you to pray for my side. It was healed. I know God has all power.

Mrs. M. B.,

West Summerland, B. C.

Thank you for your prayers. My foot is alright again. Praise the Lord.

I seem to have so many tests. This winter it was pleurisy, but the Lord healed me. Then I had a lump on back of my hand till I could hardly use my fingers. Then I hurt my foot, and then a week ago I got sunstruck, but I got victory for that today. The Lord has wonderfully healed me many times.

Mrs. C. M. B., Riverside, Calif.

About two years ago I had a severe inflammation of the bladder. I became so ill that I had to remain in bed most of the time. I had been reading the book, "Jesus the Healer", but just couldn't get the victory of healing. I wrote a letter to your dear father and asked him to pray for me. Praise the Lord, I was healed and haven't had any symptoms since.

Mrs. C. V. R., North Hollywood, Calif.

I gave a copy of "Jesus the Healer" to a friend. The doctors had told her she needed an operation to remove a growth from the intestines. When I told her operations weren't necessary, she was interested but skeptical. She just recently had new X-rays taken and Praise the Lord she is completely healed. She says she just took her stand on what Dr. Kenyon so plainly explained. The Lord delivered her!

C. C., Tampa, Fla.

My sister, who became ill last Fall, and for whom I asked you to pray, is now working and I do praise God for her healing.

L. P., Fairmount, Ind.

For months I had an uncomfortable growth coming on my hip. As I sat all day it was becoming painful. On June 20th a friend put her hand on it and prayed for healing. The morning of July 6th it was gone and all soreness with

He said, "That He might be the Righteousness of him that hath faith in Jesus."

You have faith in Jesus. He is your Righteousness, and miracle of miracles, you are His.

You stand complete in Him. He is the strength of your very being. Your body has become His home. He dwells in you.

it. After three weeks I realize God did not stop with just healing the growth. There is a marked improvement in many other things.

Mrs. W. K., Sandpoint, Idaho

I am asking you to please pray for my daughter. She is expecting a baby. I sent to you for prayer for her first baby and she was delivered in a wonderful way.

A. L. T., Depew, Okla.

I am a man of 69 years, and have given 33 years of my life to the service of the Lord. I have learned more of the Father's purposes and plan in the last two years by reading your writings than in the rest of my entire life.

I began setting forth our Identification with Christ about two years ago here, and had quite a struggle, but the Lord has given victory. I have given several of your books away and have spoken when He opened up a door, and tonight I shall open my dwelling for a Bible study and am expecting about thirty to come.

E.M.F., Bayonne, N. J.

I do not hesitate to say that of all the books that I have read on Jesus as our great Physician, your book, "Jesus the Healer," ranks first in its power to lead those, who have never known Jesus as Healer, to lay hold of the glorious truth that Jesus purchased healing for the body. I have a sister who has known this truth, but still used remedies. Now she says she sees how to lay hold and has declared that she will use no more medicines. How I praise God for this.

Mrs. R. H. L., Los Angeles, Calif.

I have found so much good and have had such a blessing while reading your books, I wish to pass some of them along hoping others may find the great blessings that I have found.

W. K., San Luis Obispo, Calif.

I have taken your first correspondence course, and it sure has been a great help to me. If I only could have taken this course when I was younger, how much more it would have meant to me. It would have given me a different start. Your course has shown me the difference between Faith and Mental Assent. I have learned to take God's Word as it is and stand upon it. If anyone will take your correspondence course and study it with an open mind, they can't help but get great blessings from it. We learn who we are, what we are, and where we are. The reason this nation is in the condition it is in, is because we as a nation have not taken God's Word seriously.

J. O. M., Nigeria

I am pleased to tell you that I have reaped a rich yield from these lessons. Your Bible course is an investment from which I shall continue to derive an endless benefit. So I say, may God be with you.

J. A. O., Nigeria

My pleasure in the lessons I have just finished is more than tongue can tell. They made me to really know the use of Jesus Name. They have taught me that I had Mental Assent instead of Faith, and to know the difference between "Agapa" and "Phileo." The benefit I derived from this course is uncountable.

Mrs. C., Baker, Oregon

What a sense of security we have knowing our privileges in Christ, for the world has gone mad on the power of Satan. Knowing we are Satan's masters, we are not disturbed. What wonderful teaching! May He bless you abundantly.

Mrs. E. D., Walla Walla, Wash.

I have just been reading your paper, "Herald of Life", which I have been receiving for seven years. They sure are a blessing to my soul.

Our Students Say—

Mrs. M. B., West Summerland, B.C.

I have taken your Personal Workers course and received a diploma. It was a real blessing to me. I understood more on the work of Redemption through it than ever before. I was so full at times during my study that I just broke down and cried and got down on my knees and thanked God for His love and the wonderful plan of Redemption as revealed in different parts in the Old Testament to be fulfilled in the New Testament. I am longing to go deeper in the Word and would like to study your Advanced course.

P. R. K., Thorsby, Alta.

I find your course is different than any offered elsewhere. It is alive and full of interest. I have taken a full course in Theology elsewhere.

W. H., England

Your studies are being made a great blessing to me and are revealing in a fuller measure the utter impossibility of God being able to break His Word to us.

A.B.D., Denver, Colo.

This course has been a revelation to me in reading and understanding the Bible. It is of invaluable aid to me in opening the Scriptures. This is especially true of the Old Testament portions dealing with the Covenant and the wandering of the Jews in the wilderness. In fact, I cannot separate any portion of the Bible covered by this course as being especially opened to me. The whole Book has been opened to me as in a new light and is clearer to me than ever before. I am so thankful that this course was brought to my attention.

P.W.R., State San., Ark.

I thank God for the Bible courses you are offering to people all over the world. I have just finished "The Bible in the Light of our Redemption" and have received many blessings from it. It makes the Bible so much clearer.

Mrs. A.S., Laramie, Wyo.

I do not have words to express how I feel about this course, because what I have gained from the thirty-seven lessons I have just completed is not to be measured by words. The great truths unfolded truly opened up a whole new spiritual realm for me. My life is far richer and fuller because of the knowledge of the spirit gained by this study. It has taught me how to accept God's promises and walk the Faith walk of a true child of God, to accept the promises I knew God had given for me but which I did not know how to claim as mine.

Because of my love for God, and because of my desire for fuller, deeper knowledge of His way of Life, I took this course. It is a course every true Christian should take if he wants a real spiritual awakening.

G.N.A.E., Nigeria

This course has become a great blessing to me and it also opened the eyes of my understanding to know the love nature of our Father-God. It made me to understand the value of the Redemptive work of Christ and the authority invested in His Name. It also made me to understand that when the Holy Spirit leaves the world, He will not disembodied Himself, but He will leave in the Body of Christ. Through your lessons my inner man has been well equipped as a soldier of Christ and words cannot express the blessing and benefit I gained through these lessons.

A.J.G., Victoria, B. C.

It was a great treat to me, as it must have been to thousands of others, to listen to Dr. Kenyon's early morning broadcasts. His loving, friendly voice, his earnest delivery, the manner in which he made his messages so clear and easy to understand were strong points in this good man's life. I am glad to notice that his messages are still being published in the "Herald of Life" and trust that they will be for many years.

O.B., Worcester, Mass.

The teachings Dr. Kenyon has planted in my heart will never die. He surely rightly divided the Word of God. It was the right medicine for both body and soul. I had learned to love him and his work. The Lord is keeping me in excellent health and helping me in every way.

C.S.A.O., Nigeria

Our late pastor and teacher, Dr. Kenyon, is the second Apostle Paul, for as Paul was given the Revelation of Jesus Christ for his age, Dr. Kenyon was given a revelation to unveil the mystery of the Word of God for this age.

V. E., China

The layman friends in this city who came to know Dr. Kenyon through the Bible study course were grieved to learn of his passing on. We feel that the Christian world has lost a faithful warrior.

As his spiritual guidance has been an inspiration and a blessing to us, we know that he must have been of help and encouragement to multitudes of others around the world. We are grateful for his ministry, and can truly say that we are knowing more and more of the reality of our privileges and rights in Christ.

E. S., Sask., Canada

What an intrusion of New Evangelism your father, by His Grace, has projected into this generation. May the Father's richest blessings rest upon the "New President."

Mrs. L.A.R., Hollywood, Calif.

God bless the sweet memory and teachings of your father, Dr. E. W. Kenyon. "Identification" a revelation of what we are in Christ, is being understood more and more these days. It is a precious truth.

J.S., Northridge, Calif.

The articles of your father in the "Herald of Life" did more for me than years of church attendance.

Mrs. B. J. L., San Jose, Calif.

Only Eternity can reveal what Dr. Kenyon's books and papers have meant to my spiritual life. He has opened up and made plain the riches of Redemption and the great truths of the Scripture. I can never thank him enough.

A.M.S., Bay Minette, Ala.

I think Dr. Kenyon has done more than any man I have ever known to bring us out of darkness into the light of our rights.

Mrs. W.D.R., Tallassee, Ala.

I thank God for dear Dr. Kenyon and what his teachings have meant to me and to others around the globe. He has divided the Word of Truth that we might understand and appreciate more and more its truths and beauty. He will ever live in the lives of others. I think when I get to Heaven I shall know him without an introduction and there I shall tell him more perfectly what he has meant to me. May God richly bless you as you carry on the work of your very great father.

Mrs. W.C., Moose Jaw, Sask.

It is with much regret that I have heard of your dear father's passing. He was truly a man of God. His going home will leave a great vacancy, but what a wonderful work he has done. His memory will live on forever. If there were more men like your father, the churches would not be so empty. It hurts to think we will hear his voice no more, but our loss will be his gain. He helped me so much when I needed help. He had such an insight into God's Word that I am sure he is at home now.

Evang. J.W.P., High River, Alta.

Memorial, yet not sad greetings, for your father has gone to be with Christ which is far better. I am glad that I had the privilege four years ago to have a blessed hour of fellowship and interview with your father in his office while I was in Seattle conducting a Revival campaign. My visit was soul inspiring. I truly loved your father. He said he would have liked to have me in his ministry. Truly I have enjoyed his books and received great help particularly in the ministry of faith and healing. Your father had the best system and truth of healing I have ever read or heard about.

O.S., Orofino, Idaho

I was surprised and grieved to hear of your father's passing, even though one has to expect it at his advanced age. I had never met him, yet I felt that he was a real friend. He was always ready to pray for and encourage one when they wrote to him for help.

I first heard of him about ten years ago, listening to his sermons on the radio, and it was through hearing him that I decided to take Jesus as my Saviour.

J. R. G., Gold Coast

It is a great blow to us to learn from the Herald of Life the official announcement of the transition of our great father and pastor, Dr. E. W. Kenyon. It is almost a year since we received his personal letter cheering us up.

Deeply as we feel our loss on earth, we acknowledge the Divine providence, and we shall not mourn for our great father who has passed onward from this preparatory sphere into the world of reality.

R.D., Portland, Oregon

I want to take this privilege to tell you that I have found in Rev. Kenyon's books the very life of God, and it is just the thing which I have been searching after for some time. My life will never be the same again after reading and studying the Word of God through the writings of Rev. Kenyon. They unveil the very truth and heart of the Father to His children.

Now I have found my place in the family of God and am taking my place and acting on His Word. He is doing great things for me whereof I am glad and I will never cease to praise Him for it. He has healed my body completely and even restored my hair back as it was before I lost it. I am just a young man and lost my hair before my time, but thank God I asked Him in the name of Jesus to restore it, and the work is done.

A.M.D., Australia

The books sent to me are a revelation. I have read about half the number and the messages have emerged, from them as from the Father bringing amazing enlightenment where there was doubt and ignorance. Dr. Kenyon's books perpetuate his work glorifying God. I believe he had a mission tremendous in its significance and importance and I would like to help in giving these truths to those about me.

V.A.L., England

I have been a reader of Kenyon's Herald of Life for over a year now, and I must say that this Christian and deeply spiritual paper is much loved. I find the writings of your father to be so rich in their portent and content.

A.C., Philippine Islands

The "Herald of Life" has become very precious to me and my family. It is a blessing to read it.

N.V.R., Philippine Islands

The "Herald of Life" is very interesting. Everybody here in the house reads it and so with most of my classmates. It is of interest to us Seminary students because it deals with most of our subjects.

G.H.H., Vancouver, B. C.

I would appreciate a few of your tracts, "How To Become a Christian." This is a good tract to give to young people who have been interviewed and witnessed to for it shows so clearly the way of Salvation.

M.C.B., Alexandria, La.

I have been receiving the paper for some years and it seems I can never do without it. It is such a help to me and I enjoy it so much. Your dear father was such a wonderful person.

E.P., England

I cannot tell you how much I appreciate the "Herald of Life." As I read the testimonies of dear ones who have been healed it proves that our Lord is just the same today if we only trust and believe. My whole being has many times been revived with Resurrection life and His sweet presence filled the place while I have been reading them. It is indeed a unique little messenger and gets better every time. May the Lord continue to bless and use you in the extension of His Kingdom!

P.A., Vernon, B. C.

I received "Jesus the Healer" and I am enjoying it very much. I am feeling ever so much better since I started reading it. I had an operation for goiter last summer and never was very well, but since reading this book I am much better.

Mrs. W.W.M., Prescott, Ariz.

I have read several of your books which I think are very fine. They have led me into a deeper knowledge of God, and I can truly say they have been a great blessing to me.

Mrs. H.J.B., Hawthorne, Calif.

Thank you so much for the copy of "What Happened." I read a copy of this belonging to my friend so it had to be returned. She is sending a copy to one of her friends in far away India. What a gift for one who is in that land of turmoil. This book is a gem along with the other two I have. Truly your father left you and all who read his writings, a heritage beyond price.

W.H.D., Australia

We have had a great amount of spiritual food from your books and loaned them to some of our brethren in our church. We only wish that we had had these books years ago. If we had only known of them we would have been better off spiritually. We do thank the Father for such a man as your late father.

ANSWERS TO PRAYER

B.C., Kansas City, Kans.

About a year ago last May I asked you to pray for my ears as they were deaf. My left one was stone deaf so I could only hear a loud blast. Tonight finds that ear able to hear well enough to tell some of the songs over the Victrola and it seems to improve all the time.

R.C., India

Praise God for the encouragement received through your ministry. One man's sight was restored and another was healed of appendicitis while reading "Jesus the Healer." Another has been healed of heart disease through other literature I gave him.

T.M., Allagash, Maine

My wife and whole family have had help and healings by writings to your father for prayer. He was a wonderful physician in God's way of healing.

SON HEALED EACH TIME

Mrs. J.O., Calgary, Alta.

My son has been healed each time he has asked for prayer from your place.

Mrs. E.M., Lathrop, Calif.

Through prayers of your workers, I was healed once of appendicitis and have never been bothered with it since. God is so wonderful when we only trust Him.

Mrs. E.B., Vancouver, B. C.

I want to thank you for praying for my complete healing. I just can't praise and thank the Lord enough for answering them. He gave me the strength to get out of bed and healed my nose. He has done much for me, which goes to show that He is still the great Physician. He is able to keep us.

D.J.A.B., Nigeria

On the early morning of June 27th I woke up with a severe pain in my right hand. I knew at once that Satan was trying to prevent me from conducting a service that day. I could not even raise up my hand. I immediately knelt down and prayed before my bed. I prayed until I fell to sleep. When I awoke I felt that Satan had run away from me. All the pain was gone, and I was able to conduct the service.

R.G.L., Albuquerque, N. Mex.

I have not finished reading "Jesus the Healer" but have received a healing of a painful condition in the muscles of my legs. It was almost instantaneous.

Mrs. A.R.E., Port Orchard, Wash.

A few weeks ago I was very ill and called your office asking you to pray for me. I received a great blessing and want to thank you for your prayers in my behalf for I have been gradually improving.

Mrs. T., Maywood, Ill.

My stomach and bowels got so much better after you folks prayed. The blessed Lord heard and answered. Thank you and praise the Lord.

GIVEN STRENGTH TO WALK

N.E., England

You will be very glad to know that since I received your "Blest handkerchief" I am a different person. My faith is much stronger. Jesus has given me strength to walk and I have done what your letter told me. There is not much T.B. there now since last being examined.

H.B.S., Prince Rupert, B. C.

God's been so good to me. I am improving every day, and I never cease to thank and praise His Name.

THIS ATOMIC AGE

Rev. Carl R. Olson

It was the Master who said, "Lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age," and "Before Abraham was, I am." Christ existed before He came to this world in the physical form of a man. He was with the Father from the beginning, if our finite minds can form any conception of what that means. Jesus was the creative force that spoke this universe into being. Oh! if we could grasp God's masterful plan for the being called man.

Man was created on the sixth day. He was the Crown of all that the Father had created. To have Adam give over the authority that had been given to him, to a spirit already estranged from God, was a tragedy indeed and an unpardonable sin. Some have referred to it as the great "High treason" of the universe. But that is what Adam did. He legally sold out the whole human race to the Devil, and we can see the results in sickness, death and every kind of woe that has come to the world.

God took on Himself a great responsibility in creating a being with a will. A man who could sell out if he chose, and Adam chose the Lordship of Satan. He still wanted communion and fellowship with his Creator, but he could no longer come into God's presence like he once had. It is only the New Creation who can come before the Throne and talk with God as Adam did. For thousands of years man had to have a covering for his sin through the blood of animals. This all typified the time that Christ would shed His blood for the sin of the world. Now He stands on the right hand of the Throne of God as our great High Priest, having taken His blood into the Heavenly Holy of Holies. He is now the mediator between a spiritually dead world and God.

Today in Christ Jesus, God is my Heavenly Father and I am His son. I am a joint-heir with Christ. I have identified myself with His spotless, sinless Son. He is my overcoming One. Jesus conquered, in honorable combat, the one to whom Adam sold out. God's creation again legally belongs to Him, and every man who is a New Creation is a part of God's victory. Jesus Christ is my Saviour and Lord. All that Adam lost, and more, is mine through Him. He has blessed me with every blessing of the Heavens in Christ Jesus. When men and women have taken what is rightfully theirs in Christ, there is no need of disease, sickness, malnutrition or poverty. Jesus has legally stripped the Devil of the authority that he won from Adam, and is now giving it back to man.

The first thing that man must now receive in order that he may receive more gifts is Eternal Life. Adam did not possess Eternal Life. If he had eaten of the Tree of Life in the Garden of Eden, in his sinful condition, the Redemption of Christ would have been an impossibility. For this reason God drove man out of the Garden and sent cherubim to guard the Tree of Life. In other words, the Devil's reign is limited and he knows it is. That is why he is working overtime; he knows that his sentence has been pronounced upon him and he wants as much of humanity as possible to suffer with him. His big objective in the world today is to keep men and women from receiving Eternal Life, and to those who are Christians he is ever ready to cause and bring confusion.

Today we are hearing much about Atomic Energy, but remember Jesus Christ, for it was He who spoke the atom into being. He understood all about its composition and functions long before man was ever thought of. I, personally, do not believe that the real fear in the world today is that of the Atom bomb, but the fear of being ushered into eternity without God. Perhaps the great body of humanity is not aware of this fact, this hidden fear. This

FAITH

E. W. Kenyon

For many years I kept asking myself this question, "Why is faith the law of redemption?"

"Why is it that salvation isn't based upon works, character, or knowledge; and why is it that God demands faith for our salvation?"

I think I understand now.

You see, God is a Faith God.

All that God has ever done in creation were faith acts.

Even man is a creation of faith.

Redemption was a faith work on the part of God.

He believed that His Son could pay the penalty of man's transgressions.

He believed that He could raise Him from the Dead.

He believed that man would respond to His outpoured love.

Faith is the basic law of His Being; the basic law of creation; the basic law of man in all his dealings, whether with man, nature, or God.

You can understand very readily why faith would be the natural condition for salvation.

You can understand how, since by faith we are born again, we must walk by faith, that the highest order of the Divine life in this realm of the new creation should be faith.

You can understand why faith becomes the law of blessing, and the law of the spirit of life in Christ Jesus.

So when we walk by faith, we walk as sons of God should walk.

When we live by faith, we live as sons of God should live.

Every blessing the Father has, is a blessing dependent upon faith.

question is more potent than ever, "Where will you spend eternity?"

Jesus Christ's entrance into this world caused a tremendous disturbance, or we might call it an "Atomic explosion" in the spiritual world. The charge has now been going off for nearly two thousand years. Every time a man or woman accepts Jesus Christ as his sin substitute another atom explodes. A soul has been taken out of Satan's family and put into God's family. Did you know that you have your destiny in your own hands? Salvation has been provided; it has been bought and paid for. It is now yours as a gift; it is yours for the taking.

The world would probably have been blown up before this present fear had come upon us if it were not for the restraining power of the Church of Jesus Christ in this sin sick old world. It seems like the pulse of time has been quickened and old man time is really running a fever. People are in a feverish hurry these days, and it is much of the time about nothing. It is apparent on every hand that there is an unrest in the world. But the Lord said, speaking to His son, "Let not your heart be troubled." These things must needs come to pass, that all be fulfilled. When you see these things come to pass, the running to and fro, the great increase in science and knowledge in every field, wars and rumors of wars, lift up your heads and rejoice because your Redemption draweth nigh." This is speaking of the redemption of our physical bodies, our spiritual redemption was wrought when Christ rose from the dead.

Are you prepared to meet your God? Is Satan still your Lord? In this Atomic age are you going to make your life count in a constructive or in a destructive manner? Jesus Christ is the answer to your questions. First you must get to know Him as Saviour and then Christians must get to know Him as Lord. You can get vitally acquainted with Him through the Word of God. Your time is precious and limited so do not delay. There is a universe of atomic power stored up and waiting for you in the Word.

"The work of righteousness shall be peace; and the effect of righteousness, quietness and confidence forever." Isa. 32:16.

GIVING FROM WITHIN

E. W. Kenyon

In Luke 11:41, American Revision, there is a striking translation: "But give for alms those things which are within."

In other words, Jesus wanted them to give to the needy world something that they had experienced themselves.

The same thought is brought out when the disciples asked Jesus what He was going to do to feed the multitudes.

He said to them, "Give ye them to eat."

Afterward, you remember, He fed the Five Thousand with a little handful of bread and two fishes, and thus performed one of the most gracious miracles of His wonderful life.

Now He is saying to them, "Feed ye them."

Out from your own inner life, bring the choice experiences you have had with the Father and give them to the people.

There is a law in teaching: I cannot lift my people beyond my own experience; I cannot feed them beyond what I myself have experienced of the good Word of God.

The measure of my helpfulness, is the measure of my own life in Christ.

If I have had deep experiences in the Lord, if I have tested the Word, if I have put to the test the great statements, or facts, in the epistles and found that they stood the test, then out of the fullness of an experience that comes from these testing periods, I feed the people.

I have given them the real food of God.

I have experienced the Word of God and the powers of the age to come, and I can tell them about it.

Their hungry hearts will turn to the same Scriptures and they will learn to drink at the same well, feast on the same manna, and fellowship the same Christ.

But, if the thing is only a theory with me; if, instead of faith I have had simply mental assent; then my teaching lacks the vital element which a true experience gives.

So this morning, God is saying to you who read this article, "Give for alms the blessings that you have yourself enjoyed."

Tell them of the blessings you have received while seated at the feet of Jesus and studying His Word.

Tell them of the answers to your prayers.

Tell them how your heart has burned within you as you have walked and talked with the Master; as you have pored over the Word; as you lingered in prayer before Him.

You see, a theory in the spiritual life is about the driest, dearest thing that you ever tried to feed a people; so I would not have you give theories.

Just tell them what Jesus is to you.

You say, "He isn't much to me." Then go alone and tell Him about it.

Tell Him how heart-hungry you are; tell Him how unsatisfied is your life, and He will meet that cry.

That is his joy.

It is a crime for us to be powerless when people need our help so badly.

It is a crime for us to be unable to feed the waiting ones who look to us for help.

"Let the Word of Christ dwell in you richly."

Yield utterly to its sway.

Let the Holy Spirit take the things of Jesus and work them into your life.

By and by, men will see Jesus in you, feel Him in your voice and handclasp, and you will be able to feed them out of the inner heart experiences that you have had with Him.

"He hath made his wonderful works to be remembered." Ps. 111:4.

"Him that cometh unto me I will in no wise cast out." John 6:37.
