Thanks To God For His Beneficence

BY DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER

President of the United States of America

Early in our history the Pilgrim Fathers inaugurated the custom of dedicating one day at harvest time to rendering thanks to Almighty God for the bounties of the soil and for His mercies throughout the year. At this autumnal season tradition suggests and our hearts require that we follow that hallowed custom and bow in reverent thanks for the blessings bestowed upon us individually and as a nation.

With gratitude in our hearts for all our blessings, may we be ever mindful of the obligations inherent in our strength and may we rededicate ourselves to unselfish striving for the common betterment of mankind.

I do hereby proclaim Thursday, Nov. 25, 1954, as a day of national thanksgiving, and I call upon all our citizens to observe the day with prayer. Let us demonstrate in our lives our humble thanks to God for His beneficence in the year which has passed and let us ask His guidance in the year to come.

* Western States Convention Best Meet Yet *

By Thomas R. Nickel

Of the many wonderful gatherings of the Full Gospel Business Men's Fellowship International, so far as the power and blessing of God are concerned, the Western States Convention at Oakland-San Francisco is believed to have been the best yet.

International Officers attending were: President Demos Shakaran; Vice-Presidents George

Gardner, Lee Braxton, Miner Arganbright and Earl Draper; Secretary and Treasurer Harold G. Kabisch; Editor and Publisher Thomas R. Nickel; Directors C. C. Ford, Jewel W. Rose and Art Wilson. There were Officers and members from widely-scattered Chapters in attendance also.

The Convention was sponsored by the Golden Gate Pentecostal

This photo was taken at the San Francisco Breakfast-Broadcast of the Western States Convention. God did a lasting work in the hearts and lives of everyone present. Men and women alike wept before God until their handkerchiefs could hold no more tears. Soon after the Catholic photographer made this shot, he put his camera down, raised his hands and cried out to God as tears streamed down his face.

This photo was taken at the Western States Convention of Full Gospel Business Men's Fellowship International, sponsored by Golden Gate Pentecostal Fellowship, held at Oakland and San Francisco, October 8th to 10th. Left to right they are: Front row—Editor Thomas R. Nickel, Watsonville Calif.; Director C. C. Ford, Denver, Colo.; Secy-Treas. Harold G. Kabisch, Arcadia, Calif.; Vice-Pres. Miner Arganbright, La Crescenta, Calif.; Rev. A. G. Canada, Pres. GGPF, Oakland, Calif.; Pres. Demos Shakarian, Downey, Calif.; Vice-Pres. George D. Gardner, Binghamton, New York; J. M. McQueen, Secy. Los Angeles Chapter, Long Beach, Calif.; Back row—John W. Wilson, Pres. Lancaster Chapter, Lancaster, Calif.; Rev. Charles G. Weston, GGPF, San Francisco, Calif.; E. J. Rody, Tacoma, Wash.; Director Art Wilson, Compton, Calif.; Director Jewel W. Rose, Shafter, Calif.; Rev. J. J. Humphries, Secy-Treas. GGPF and Chairman of Convention Committee, San Francisco, Calif.; Vice-Pres. Earl Draper, Fresno, Calif.; Brother Braskamp, Long Beach, Calif.; Rev. D. P. Wertz, GGPF, South San Francisco, Calif.

Fellowship, and President A. G. Canada and Secretary-Treasurer J. J. Humphries left nothing undone to help make the meet the success it was.

At the Friday Oakland Breakfast, in the Leamington Hotel, International and Chapter Officers, and others, gave testimonies. Oral Roberts was the speaker and brought a stirring message. The blessing of God was precious throughout the meeting.

Saturday morning the Breakfast was held in the Merchandise Mart Restuarant, high above Market Street in downtown San Francisco. This meeting started off with talks by Officers and others, the messages going out over Radio Station KSAN, the time having been released by Gaylord Atwell's "Golden Gate Meditation" broadcast. Then God took over. George Gardner stood up and pointed out certain persons whom God had revealed to him were to receive something from the Lord. As people came and stood before the head table, making a massive altar of it, the entire gathering became broken before the Lord. Many came for their own needs and others came vicariously for their loved ones. There was weeping and crying out to God. Hands were raised high and tears streamed down faces of men and women alike. A Catholic photographer took a photograph of the scene, laid his camera down, raised his hands, and began to commune with God as tears flowed from his eyes.

This group of Full Gospel Business Men and Ministers were used of God to bring mighty messages and demonstrations of Deliverance to a large gathering of Believers at Fresno, California. Left to right they are: Director Jewel W. Rose, Shafter, Calif.; Vice-Pres. George D. Gardner, Binghamton, New York; Pastor Claude Weaver, Fresno, Calif.; Editor Thomas R. Nickel, Watsonville, Calif.; Evang. R. W. Culpepper, Bellflower, Calif.; Assistant to Culpepper; E. J. Morand, Fullerton, Calif.; Dr. Pierce P. Brooks, Dallas, Texas; Evang. E. L. Slavens, Los Angeles, Calif.; William Craig, Seattle, Wash.; Secy-Treas. Harold G. Kabisch and daughter, Arcadia, Calif.; Pres. Demos Shakarian, Downey, Calif.; Rev. John E. Kabisch, Whittier, Calif.; Director C. C. Ford, Denver, Colo.; and Brother Craig, Seattle, Wash.

Through God's power, in the Name of Jesus, Full Gospel Business Men Demos Shakarian and George Gardner are praying for a need or a desire of Evangelist E. L. Slavens, at Fresno, California, as Evangelist R. W. Culpepper, back of Gardner, and Pastor Claude Weaver, on rostrum to right, rejoice at God's present-day moving among His people. This and the accompanying Fresno photo were taken by Roland Pierson.

Those unfamiliar with the workings of God in a Full Gospel group may wonder what the benefits of this demonstration are. Unsaved people are saved, saved people receive the Baptism of the Holy Spirit, Spirit-filled people are refilled and drawn closer to God, sick bodies are healed, and there is a refreshing of spirit, soul and body that only the very Presence of God can bring.

On Sunday morning, President

GOD KEEPS HIS WORD

By C. C. Ford

This is the first of a series of fine articles based upon the Word of God and confirmed by the experiences of C. C. Ford, Builder and Real Estate Dealer, of Denver, Colorado. He is Director of Full Gospel Business Men's Fellowship International and is Chairman of the Arrangements Committee for the Fellowship Convention to be held at Denver in June, 1955. His Testimony truly is a marvellous demonstration of his Faith and God's Faithfulness united in action.

I am thinking of the approaching storm that's going to forever destroy the harvest, and I'm writing this for one purpose, that others might know the Lord as I know Him and be able to be prospered as I have been prospered. I have been thinking, too, about the atomic bomb, about how our scientists, a lot of them that know not God, have dealt with a thing that is unseen, the tiniest of all creation, the atom. They've gone beyond what they can see, what they can touch, what they can taste, and what they can smell, and they have so dealt in the unseen that they've been able to take that thing and destroy great portions of the earth.

If the ungodly scientists, some of them, can do so much in such a powerful way with the unseen, God's creation, how much more should we be able to do with the Creator of the atom, with the Creator of the universe, and here we're putting so much trust in the atom, the tiniest of God's creation. You know who I want to put my trust in? Not in how many atomic bombs we have, but I want to put my trust in the Lord Jesus Christ, the Creator of the atom.

I'm so glad that I have learned to trust the Lord and put my trust in Him, and I'd like to have this made very clear that I do not consider a man's prosperity any sign of his spirituality. We find many people upon the earth today that are making money, and are not spiritual, in fact, are very evil. But I want to bring the message that our God has supplied all our needs according to His riches in Glory. The needs of man today, all his needs, are supplied: salvation bought by the blood of Jesus Christ; health is brought to us by His stripes; and II Cor. 8:9 says, "that ye through His poverty might be made rich." In other words, Christ was a pauper upon earth that we might be able to have material blessings, that all our needs might be met.

The things I write are things I have seen in the Bible, the Word of God. I'm not speaking for any particular church, I'm speaking

FROM THE
EDITOR'S MAIL

WALLACE NICKEL

From Stanley H. Frodsham, former Editor of the Pentecostal Evangel, who is now affiliated with Elim Bible Institute, Lima, New York, comes this letter:

"The Lord be with thee. I was so glad to see you in Washington. I had often seen the Full Gospel Men's Voice, and I wanted to congratulate you in the job that you are doing. I am enclosing my subscription. I enclose a word you might like to use. Yours in the boundless love of Christ."

* * * * *

John W. Wilson, President of the Lancaster Chapter, sends in new subscriptions for Olive Young and F. G. Kleiman and a renewal for H. C. Warren, all of Lancaster, California.

* * * * *

Mrs. William McMullen, Fort Collins, Colorado, writes: "The Full Gospel Men's Voice is a great magazine for business people."

* * * * *

Mildred Mae Beall, Alexandria, Virginia, writes: "Please send me a year's subscription to Full Gospel Men's Voice. Could you please start it with the issue that has Vice-President Nixon on the front page? If you have extra copies of that issue I would be glad to get several copies and will send remittance for same. God's continued blessings be upon your ministry and work for Him, and upon each of you and your families."

* * * * *

Mrs. Loyd McIntyre, Cando, North Dakota, mailed this from Albuquerque, New Mexico: "Inclosed please find $2 for back copies of Full Gospel Men's Voice and for a year's subscription."

* * * * *

Nyles G. Huffman, Air Mail From God Mission, Mexico, sends this: "I often think of you, and each time I receive Full Gospel Men's Voice I think what a wonderful job you are doing. It is one of the nicest little magazines I have ever seen anywhere. Our pilots are dropping thousands of Gospels daily. We rejoice as we see the hungry hearts scrambling for the Gospels, throwing their hats in the air and waving their hands. You can almost hear them say 'dame mas', which means 'give me more'. We are wondering if you would consider a paid ad in your magazine?" From the very first issue, we have been grateful to those who were interested in placing paid advertising in Full Gospel Men's Voice, but it is the policy of the publication to carry no paid advertising.

* * * *

Miss Alice Gile, of Meridian Hill, Exclusive Hotel For Women, Washington, D. C., writes: "Enclosed is $1 for one year's subscription to Full Gospel Men's Voice. I wish the magazine to start with the number that contains an account of the Tommy Hicks' Revival in Washington."

* * * *

Evangelist Mary Milk, San Diego, California, sends her renewal subscription with this note: "God bless and use the VOICE one thousand-fold more. God bless His consecrated servant, Bro. Nickel."

* * * *

Hubert Gilton, Weymouth Construction Company, of Memphis, Tennessee, sends subscriptions for Claude R. Weymouth and Arnold Beyer, both of Memphis.

* * * *

We are in receipt of a Canadian Dollar and this note from Divine Deliverance Evangelist Theodore Ruud, Saskatoon, Saskatchewan, Canada: "Please send me Full Gospel Men's Voice. How about coming up to Saskatoon for a meeting?" Evangelist Ruud's Deliverance ministry includes salvation for the soul, healing for the body and enlightenment for the mind. He is constantly lecturing and writing concerning "Modern Education In The Light Of The Bible." He is succeeding in getting the Government of Saskatchewan to include Bible teaching in the public schools and no doubt will continue his campaign until all Canada adopts this practice.

* * * *

William R. Chase, Mortician and Funeral Counsellor, Binghamton, New York, writes: "Enclosed is $1 for subscription. If you have copy of Vol. II, No. 6, would like it to begin with that copy. We are just two streets from Brother Geo. Gardner's place of business."

* * * *

Mrs. John Inscoc, Arlington, Virginia, writes from Washington, D. C.: "I was at the Hicks meetings almost every night. Please send me Full Gospel Men's Voice. I LOVE that little book!"

* * * *

Arthur W. Schaler, Cavalier, North Dakota, writes: "Please renew my Voice subscription. Would appreciate ten extra copies of any issues to introduce this great fellowship in our locality. Truly, this is God's move of the hour."

* * * *

Miss Sophie E. Hartman, Los Angeles, California, writes: "The October number is wonderful. I would like to have one hundred copies to give to unsaved business people, because of the testimony of Dr. Pierce P. Brooks. If you want to donate one to Eliada Orphanage, R. 4, Box 420, Asheville, North Carolina, I believe God will use it to an untold value for Eternity. I wish you would make known Rev. L. B. Compton's Life Story. It may be obtained from the Orphanage postpaid for $1.08; also Rev. and Mrs. Anglin's book, Twentieth Century Onesiphorus, $2, from 3939 N. Hamlin Avenue, Chicago 18, Illinois. This couple also have an Orphanage. Both Orphanages have been operated over forty years."

* * * *

We are in receipt of a subscription to the Voice and a membership in the Fellowship from William G. Roll, Balboa Island, California. Mr. Roll is a retired Government Diplomat, having spent many years in overseas service. He recently spoke at the Los Angeles Chapter Breakfast.

* * * *

A subscription comes from M. Edith Richardson, "Rockmount", Megaberry, Moira, Lurgan, Ulster, North Ireland. She mailed the subscription in Chattanooga, Tennessee, enroute home to Ireland from Los Angeles.

* * * *

George S. Skee, Huntington Park, California, writes: "I received the Amazing Shakarian Story booklets and they were sent to England. I need ten more of this wonderful testimony to give to friends. You evidently are kept pretty busy these days by the work you are turning out on the presses. God bless you!"

* * * *

Lois Prevost, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, writes: "I would like extra copies of Full Gospel Men's Voice for my ministry. Would you send me a copy giving the wonderful account of the Washington meetings. I surely had marvelous prayer for those meetings before they began. Also send a back copy of how Brother Shakarian talked with Doctor Price just before he passed on, who told him to look for a greater work. If you have extra copies I could give them out in the East."

* * * *

Charles S. Lee, Modesto, California, writes: "I am just an old Spanish-American War Veteran, 76 years young and retired. My wife and I are both Full Gospel. I am not a business man, tho I believe I am eligible for membership in your beloved organization. We also have a son, Eugene H. Lee, who is eligible for membership. Please send us information."

Regardless of whether these Missionaries are at home or on the mission field, they live in San Jose: "Until further notice, as we are now home on furlough, please change our address from San Jose, Costa Rica, to San Jose, California. Connie and Esther Kinch."

* * * *

This is from Charles R. Slaton, Concord, California: "Am enclosing $2 for subscription to Full Gospel Men's Voice. I want to let you know that the two Full Gospel Business Men's Breakfasts in Oakland and San Francisco, October 8th and 9th, really did something for my heart and soul. By the help and grace of God, I am going to have a number of business men and friends at such future Breakfasts, because my own heart is overflowing with what I received at the two Breakfasts. Will you men please pray for me so that as I speak to different people about coming to these future Breakfasts that God will use me and give me the words to say to them. May God bless you."

* * * *

Lulu Pearl Smith, Los Angeles, California, writes: "I understand you have reprinted The Amazing Shakarian Story in one booklet. If any of these are available I would very much like to have as many booklets as I could get for $1. This is truly an amazing story of God's leading and blessing and I would like to have the booklets for a widespread distribution."

This is from Peter Jepsen, Presbyterian Section Four, Oregon District, Assemblies of God, North Bend, Oregon:

"I was impressed with the article of The Historic Argentina Revival, where Paul Sorensen was interpreter for Rev. Tommy Hicks, the evangelist.

"His father, Niels C. Sorensen, tarried with me for the Baptism in the Holy Ghost at Hartford, Connecticut, in November, 1912. He was an earnest worker for the Lord and had received a missionary call to South America.

"While in Argentina he was unable to leave that country during World War I, due to his German ancestry. He was obliged to work for fifty cents a day, and for seven years he labored in the Gospel work without a single soul being saved. In 1921 he ministered from my pulpit a wonderful missionary message.

FOR THESE WE THANK THEE

By Alice E. Sherwood

For all the blessings of the year,
For sunshine and for showers,
For seedtime and for harvest rich,
For bird songs and for flowers,
From hearts o'erflowing with Thy praise,

Accept, O Lord, the thanks we raise.

And for the gift of Thy dear Son,
From sin to set us free,
No tongue can tell, no words express

The praise we offer Thee,
For Christ, who came for us to die,
Accept our thanks, O God on high.

For grace and glory which He gives,

For pardon, joy, and peace,
Our voices rise to Thee, O God,
In songs that never cease.

For victory amid the strife,
Accept our thanks, O Lord of life.

And for the hope of His return,
Dear Lord, Thy name we praise,
With longing hearts we watch
and wait

For that great Day of days,
For Christ, our coming Lord and King,

To Thee, O God, our thanks we bring.

Our Doctrinal Statement

There is one God, Maker of all things, being in Trinity of Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

The Son of God, Jesus Christ, became incarnate, was begotten by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, and is true God and true man.

The Bible, in its entirety, is the inspired Word of God and the only infallible rule of faith and conduct.

There will be resurrection of the dead, eternal happiness of the saved and eternal punishment of the lost.

There is personal salvation of believers, through the Blood of Christ.

There needs to be sanctification by the Blood of Christ, personal holiness of heart and life, and separation from the world.

There is Divine Healing, through faith, and that healing is included in the Atonement.

The Baptism of the Holy Ghost, accompanied by the initial physical sign of speaking with other tongues as the Spirit of God gives utterance (Acts 2:4), is distinct from the New Birth; and the nine Gifts of the Spirit, listed in I Corinthians 12, are now available to believers.

The Christian's hope is the imminent, personal return of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Intensive world-evangelism and missionary work, with signs following, is in accordance with the Great Commission.
