DIVINE HEALING . . . GOD'S KEY TO WORLD-WIDE REVIVAL . . . NOW AS IN THE PAST!

HEALED OF SINUS AND PAIN

Dear Brother Coe:

I wrote and asked you to pray for three different people that were sick. I received a letter from you last week. You sent a prayer cloth, and told me I was healed. Today I remembered that my back had not hurt me since. Before then I'd awaken at night and could hardly move because of the pain in my back. I praise God for it. For two years I had to keep a heavy scarf tied over my head because of sinus. Both ears were affected. I wrote you about two months ago for prayer. My ears seem to be completely healed, and I can go to church and town and other places without having to wrap my head up. I thank God for my healing. Jesus is The Great Physician.

HEALED OF CANCEROUS TUMOR

Dear Brother Coe:

I was healed in your revival campaign in Springfield, Missouri in July, 1952. I had an inside condition that the doctors called cancerous tumor. I had had it for two or three years and it had diseased other parts of the body. It was an angry looking running sore and I also had been hemorrhaging badly from it. for some time. I had been under the care of three different doctors for this trouble but they all told me there was no cure and eventually it would go into cancer. The last one I went to was so afraid of my condition he advised me not to wait a week to be operated on. He said every day counted. We were planning to leave the next week for the west coast to work through the summer. This doctor wouldn't consent to my going nor to my husband going and me waiting two or three months for the operation. We were undecided what to do as God had wonderfully healed in our home. We didn't tell this doctor what was on our mind but as we started to leave his office he followed us to the door and took us by the hand and said "Now you people go home and pray about this and let me know what you decide." We knew then that was the thing for us to do. This was on Thursday. On Sunday afternoon we went to your tent meeting in Springfield and as soon as you called for the prayer line to be formed we felt sure Jesus was going to heal me. I went away from that service with the full assurance I was healed. On Tuesday I went back to this doctor and he had to admit there was a marked change. The parts of my body that were inflamed and swelled from this main trouble were cleared up and the swelling gone. This made me to know that this affliction had been smitten in the name of Jesus. We left that same week for the west and I worked 76 nights out of 77 and have never been bothered with this trouble again. Have never hemorrhaged or had any of the old symptoms. Praise the name of Jesus!

I had a thorough examination one year later and there wasn't even a scar where this running sore had been.

SON HEALED OF BRONCHITIS

Dear Brother Coe:

My son age 11 had bronchial trouble, a cold and cough since last November. He could not get over it, which distressed me greatly. I sent you a handkerchief and asked you to pray for Jesus to heal him. When we received the handkerchief I pinned it on my son Mark's under shirt. Within a few days he was completely healed. We give Jesus all the praise and thanks for this wonderful healing.

Since Mark's healing I pinned the same anointed handkerchief on myself when I had the flu and Jesus healed me too. "Praise the Lord" for his mercy and goodness to us. Thank you for your fervent prayer.

DELIVERED OF HEART DISEASE

Dear Brother Coe:

Some time ago I wrote to you for prayer, for myself. I had heart trouble so bad, I could hardly do my work. I also had female trouble. But since you prayed the prayer of faith God has gloriously healed me and I am praising Him for it.

The Healing Touch

A SERMON PREACHED

by REV. JACK COE

(St. John 5:5-8) And a certain man was there, which had an infirmity thirty and eight years. When Jesus saw him lie, and knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he saith unto him, Wilt thou be made whole? The impotent man answered him, Sir, I have no man, when the water is troubled, to put me in the pool: but, while I am coming, another steppeth in before me. Jesus saith unto him, Rise, take up thy bed and walk.

I can imagine this poor man as he lay on his bed under the porch by the pool year after year. No doubt his wife did the neighbors laundry to provide food for him. Nothing they had tried had helped to cure the invalid and for years he continued to suffer. Some friends had probably come to them and said, "Have you heard of the pool of Bethesda, where people get healed when the angel troubles the water each year?"

They probably replied, "Oh, we've been to all kinds of baths and springs, and nothing has helped!"

"This is different," the friend replied. "GOD'S IN THIS!"

GOD'S IN MY MINISTRY

Friend, let me tell you that my radio programs, my prayers and my sermons are different . . . because God's in them. I ask Him to take over and He does!

I'm sure that the impotent man and his wife talked for some time about the pool. He probably said, "I don't know why people try to tell us things like that. They should realize that 'God doesn't do miraculous things any more. He hasn't healed anyone since the days of Elijah and Elisha.'"

The little wife said, "Honey, listen! We've tried everything. Now, let's give God a chance! I'm sure this is of God."

He said, "How would I ever get to the pool? Besides, who ever heard of water making people well?"

His little wife said, "I feel like God will heal you if we can get you there. I'll rake and scrape until we have enough money to send you." She redoubled her efforts and washed clothes faster than ever . . . and one night she came in and said, "Honey, I've got enough money here to take you to the pool! There isn't enough to bring you back, but God is going to heal you and you can walk back!"

The next day they loaded that man on a stretcher and carried him away as his little wife watched. She waved until she could no longer see him, and said to herself, "They're carrying him away now, but some day he'll walk home!"

The men laid him by the pool and asked, "Have you got any money left?"

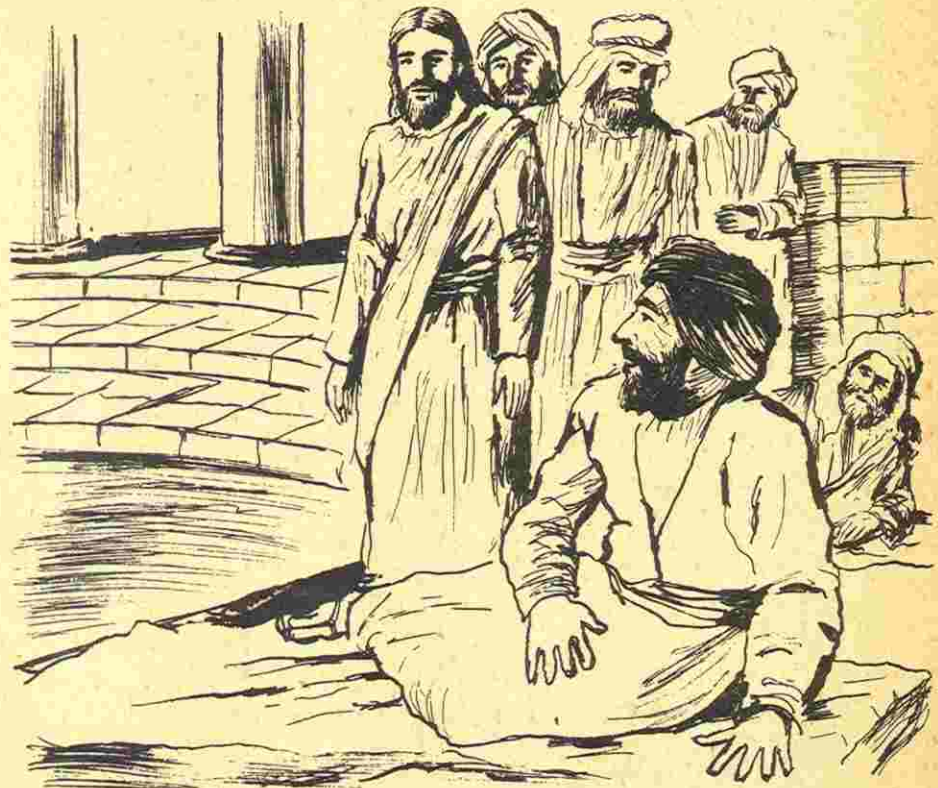

He said, "No! Don't leave me here all alone. I'll die!"

They said, "If you don't have any money, we're not interested in you!" There are so many churches in the world today that are interested only in a person's financial support. If a man comes in, wearing a diamond ring . . . dressed in tailor-made clothes . . . and with a fat bank-roll, they soon make a deacon out of him and give him a prominent seat in the church. The poor man who comes in ragged clothes is given a seat behind a post. They don't want anyone to see him! The church that does this is committing a grievous sin . . . being a respecter of persons. God loves the poor as much as he loves the rich. Jesus died for ALL! In fact, the Bible says that the poor heard Jesus gladly.

Salvation isn't for the rich alone. Healing is for everyone! It isn't money or reputation that obtains help from God. The Bible didn't say that the man by the pool was an important man . . .

IS IT WELL WITH YOU?

By Rev. Jack Coe

(2 Kings 4:26) Run now, I pray thee, to meet her, and say unto her, Is it well with thee? Is it well with thy husband? Is it well with the child? And she answered, It is well.

Down in the valley of Shunam are babbling brooks and lovely green trees. On either side are rolling hills and massive rock formations. It was a beautiful site for the home which the Shunamite man and woman had built there. Every day, Elisha, the man of God, had passed by the home. The woman had decided that he loved God and that he was a consecrated, holy man. She approached her husband one day and said, "Let's build a room onto our house so that the man of God can stop and refresh himself each day." The husband consented and soon the room was finished. Elisha was invited to come in each day to rest. Soon afterwards, he prayed for her, that she might have a child and a son was born to the Shunamite family. A few years later, the child became ill while with his father in the harvest field. The father told a lad to take him home to his mother. He sat upon his mother's knees until noon and died. The mother asked for permission to go to the man of God and her husband granted it! She did not tell her husband what had happened to their son, but she did say, "It shall be well!"

IT IS WELL!

When Elisha saw her coming, he turned to Gehazi, his servant, and said, "Say unto her, Is it well with thee? Is it well with my husband? Is it well with thy child?"

The Shunamite woman answered, "It is well!"

I do not know why she cried, "It is well," with her child lying dead at home, but I believe she was certain that Elisha would cause her child to live again! She had confidence in the man of God! Elisha went home with her. I believe that he perceived the tremendous faith in her heart. He went into his room, where the child lay upon his bed, and closed the door. He breathed into the child's nostrils until the child became warm and life came into it's body again. Because of that little Shunamite woman's faith, she could truthfully say, "It is well with me. It is well with my husband. IT IS WELL WITH MY SON!"

GOD CAN STILL RAISE THE DEAD

This account is not some fable that man wrote. This is from God's word and it actually happened. God created life in the beginning. God is still on the throne. He has never changed. He can still raise the dead! IS IT WELL WITH YOU? WHAT DO YOU NEED FROM GOD? I wonder how many of you who are reading this sermon can truthfully say, "Thank God, it is well with me and my family!" Is your family living for God? Do YOU serve God?

REMEMBER ME!

One night in Cincinnati, Ohio a boy staggered drunkenly into a mission.

Business Fellowship Hears Nixon Discuss Crisis in Indo-China

Vice President Nixon today declared the major problem in Indo-China and elsewhere is "what causes Communist uprisings and what appeal we can make to combat them."

"Unless we can meet this problem more effectively we will continue in the future to face more crises," the Vice President added.

Mr. Nixon spoke today to 500 members of the Full Gospel Businessmen's Fellowship International at a breakfast in the Shoreham Hotel. Demos Shakarian of Downey, Calif., head of the fellowship, presided.

In his talk, Mr. Nixon said President Eisenhower was right in his stand opposing a Federal pension for Alger Hiss, former State Department official convicted of perjury for denying he passed secrets to the Communists.

The Vice President declared one advantage we hold over the Communists is our "fundamental belief in God. Throughout our history, whenever we have faced a great crisis, we have had great leaders."

The fellowship will close its convention with a banquet at 7 p.m. tomorrow in the Shoreham Hotel. Oral Roberts, evangelist from Tulsa, Okla., will speak.

Great miracles of faith were wrought as Evangelists Jack Coe, Oral Roberts, A. C. Valdez and others ministered at the convention. On the night that Rev. Jack Coe preached in Constitution Hall the huge crowd was amazed as many notable healings occurred. Rev. Coe told several to drop their crutches and step out in faith in Jesus Christ. They were healed instantly as they obeyed.

In a great mass healing prayer, when he told the business men to lay their hands on others who had afflictions, Jewel Rose, potato grower of California, was instantly healed of a tumor on his arm. Raymond Bellamy, well known political leader and chairman of the Washington Suburban Sanitary Commission, was instantly healed of a growth on his body. It was through his efforts and testimony that Vice-President Nixon and many congressmen were led to come out to the convention. He was a member of the Methodist church and was definitely skeptical of divine healing . . . but now he is an ardent 'believer.' God's miracle working power was felt in such a measure that many top officials in our nation's capital will never be able to forget what they saw and felt.

Vice-President Nixon declared that a fundamental belief in God is the one advantage we hold over Communists. He spoke for 20 minutes at a Full Gospel Business Men's Breakfast meeting at the Shoreham Hotel. (Article from the Evening Star newspaper, Washington, D. C.)

HUNDREDS WERE HEALED IN RECENT COE CAMPAIGN IN PHILADELPHIA, PA.

By Norman Gordon

The Jack Coe meeting in Philadelphia will not be forgotten for a long, long time. From the very first night we were aware that God was in the meeting in an unusual way.

The huge Met auditorium, with a seating capacity of approximately 5500, was filled to capacity every night of the campaign and thousands were turned away many nights. The police were forced to clear the streets and sidewalks due to congestion of traffic. The crowds would begin to gather by noon for the evening services, which were scheduled to begin at 7:30 P.M.

The doors of the auditorium were opened at 6:00 P.M. and were closed by 6:15 because the seats were filled and fire restrictions would not permit anyone to stand in the back or aisles. It is reported that almost as many were turned away from the building as were able to get in.

The meeting lasted for five weeks. Thousands came forward for salvation or to renew their consecration to God. Thousands have testified that they were blessed by the Spirit-anointed preaching of the gospel and by seeing the miraculous manifestation of the power of God in healing the sick. Many letters are being received daily from the people who were prayed for by Rev. Coe, telling of the healing and delivering grace of the Saviour. These testimonies are a definite blow to the arguments of the skeptics and modernists who seek to belittle and deny the power of God. Eternity alone can reveal the far-reaching effects of the great Jack Coe campaign upon the Philadelphia area.

Olga Romanno was never able to walk because of a weak spine. For 3 years she walked on crutches. The doctors could do nothing. After prayer, she walked . . . and a doctor pronounced her perfectly well.

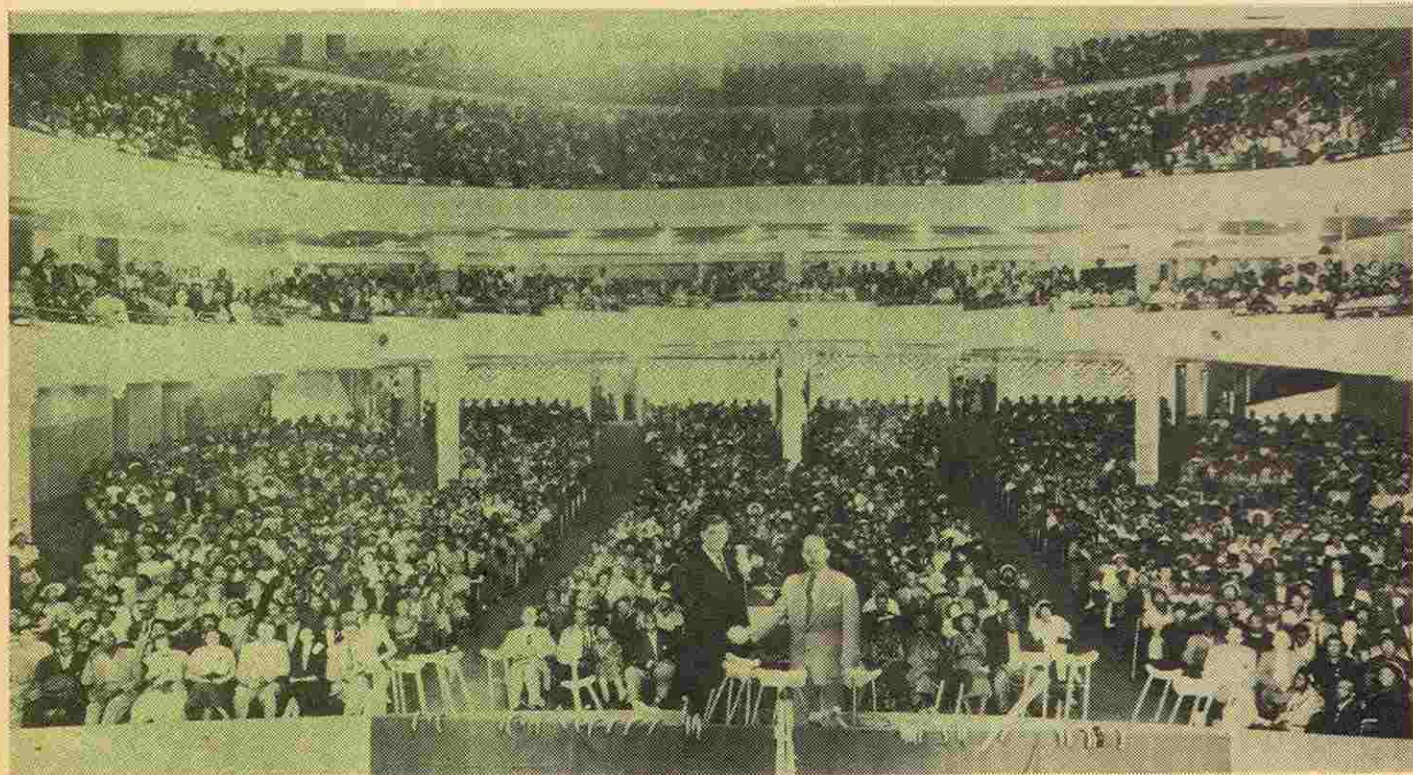

HEALED OF POLIO! Paul Lynch, stricken with polio at 14 months of age, had worn a built-up shoe for a number of years. One leg was 2 inches shorter than the other, but now, after prayer, he is wearing his first pair of normal shoes. The proposed operation to transplant muscles in the paralyzed leg is no longer necessary.

He sat down on one of the back seats. The preacher gave an altar call. No one responded. God impressed him to give the people another opportunity. Finally the boy on the back seat raised his hand and said, "Preacher, remember me!" After he had dismissed the service, the preacher walked back to him, put his arms around his neck and said, "Son, let's get right with God tonight." The boy knelt besides his seat and began to pray. Soon his heart was filled with the joy of salvation. He arose and said, "Preacher, I was on my way to commit suicide in the river when I stopped in here tonight. When I heard the words of the song which you were singing, 'Would you be free from your burden of sin, There's power in the blood,' I had to come in."

The boy went to his hotel room rejoicing and wrote a letter to his mother and father telling them how he had found God. For nine days he went to the general delivery window and inquired for his mail, but no answer came. Finally he was handed a letter on the ninth day and he opened it hurriedly. The mother had written these words: "Son, my heart was made glad by your letter. If dad was alive, I'm sure that he would rejoice too! Just three days before your letter came, your father passed away. The last prayer he prayed before he died was, 'God save my wandering boy!' Son, you are a Christian because your father earnestly prayed for you!"

THANK GOD FOR PRAYING PARENTS!

What we need today are fathers and mothers who will stay on their knees, crying, "God save my boy or girl" until God hears their supplications and answers! KEEP PRAYING . . . KEEP PRAYING! Don't give up! GOD WILL SAVE YOUR CHILDREN!

You that gamble and drink . . . can you say, "It is well!"

On a train speeding along the track in the east sat a little wrinkled woman, bent with age. She was over 80 years old. She was watching a group of men as they sat around a table gambling. Finally one man said, "I don't want to play anymore. I have some things that I must do. Will you excuse me?" The three men looked around for someone to take his place! They asked a judge sitting near, "Would you care to join us?"

The judge said, "No" . . . but after much persuasion, he took a seat at the table. He began to win a great deal of money. The little woman watched as long as she could, and then ran to the table and said, "Judge, do you remember me?"

The judge said, "No, I don't believe I do!"

She said, "Look again. Take a good look! You sentenced my son to 50 years in prison. I know that he was guilty . . . but he had been a good boy until he began to play cards. He had always worked hard and helped his father, but he changed when he started gambling. He gradually spent everything we had until everything was gone. Finally he left home. I didn't hear from him for three years. Then I received a letter telling me that he had killed a man during a card game. His father died of a broken heart, but I had to go to the city where he was being held to do what I could to help him. Judge, you're the one who sentenced him . . . but you should have been living a life above reproach yourself. You should not condemn others when you are guilty yourself.

The tears began to stream down the judge's face. Most of the passengers in the car had gathered around the table to hear her words. As she stood there trembling and crying, she said, "Judge, You sentenced him to 50 years, but he didn't serve his term. He's dead!"

The judge fell to his knees along with many of the by-standers and that little mother prayed for them until they had repented of their sins and given their hearts to God.

Is it well with you, father, who spends his time drinking and gambling, instead of setting an example for those little children by going with them to church, praying and living a holy, upright life? Is it well with you, mother, who spends your time drinking beer and dangling a cigarette from your lips?

Recently I was in a large cafeteria and I saw a woman smoking a cigarette. She laid it down while talking to someone and her little daughter picked it up and began to puff on it. When the mother saw the 3 or 4 year old smoking, she grabbed the cigarette from her hand and began to slap her. She said, "You know better than that!" It took all the grace I had to keep from telling that mother that her daughter couldn't know that it was wrong when she hadn't set the proper example for her. HOW COULD THE LITTLE DAUGHTER KNOW BETTER?

BURNED ALIVE!

While I was in Pennsylvania recently, I picked up a newspaper and read an account of a fire in which four little children were burned to death! A little 8 year old girl had managed to escape and she had run to the house next door where her mother and father were attending a party. They had been drinking and the father had 'passed out'. The mother could hardly walk because of her drunken condition. The little girl tried to arouse the father, crying, "Daddy, daddy, the house is on fire! The children are going to burn, I can't get them out!"

The father groaned and muttered, but he was unable to comprehend what she was trying to say. The girl turned to the mother, but her drunken mother only said, "Call the fire department and see if they can't put it out!"

When the mother sobered, she saw the charred bodies of her four children. They were lying on the pavement, covered with a white sheet. She turned to her 8 year old daughter and said, "Why didn't you come and get me, you little brat? Don't you know I'll be in trouble with the law over this?"

The daughter said, "Mama, I tried to tell you, but you were sick or something and you didn't understand."

OUR NATION IS SICK

This country is in a terrible condition today! Juvenile delinquency is not responsible! It is the sinfulness of the PARENTS that is polluting our homes. ALL IS NOT WELL WITH THE FATHERS! ALL IS NOT WELL WITH THE MOTHERS! THEREFORE, ALL IS NOT WELL WITH THE CHILDREN!

God has told me to stand in the pulpit and cry out against the ungodly sinful parents throughout the nation. Most of our homes are unfit for children! The parents need to repent and turn to God. IS IT WELL WITH YOUR CHILDREN?

NOAH WAS A GODLY PARENT!

I don't believe that Noah sat down and let his children associate with the rough, idolatrous children of his day. When Noah told his family anything they believed him. They respected his life and judgment. When he said, "It's time to go into the ark," they all went!

I have very little confidence in a parent who claims to have been a Christian for 20 years . . . and yet their children are unsaved. The Bible says that if you will BELIEVE . . . He will save your household! That's GOD'S WORD . . . and I'll take God's word before I'll take yours!

YOUR BOY IS DRUNK!

A preacher once stood in the pulpit, ready to preach a message. Suddenly an usher came forward and handed him a note. He opened the note and read, "Your boy is across the street in a gambling den, drunk! You had better go and see what you can do for him."

The man turned to his congregation and said, "Pray for my boy!" For years the preacher had been an alcoholic . . . but in his latter years he had been saved and called to preach the gospel. He left the church and crossed the street to the beer joint. In a dark corner of the basement, he saw his son, slumped across a table in a drunken stupor. He picked him up . . . put him across his shoulders . . . carried him to a room where he bathed him and put him in a bed. He returned to the church and delivered his message, but his heart was heavy. Later he returned to his room and went to bed. Early the next morning, someone came and knocked on his door. They said, "Preacher, come quickly! We think something is wrong with your boy. We can't get into his room. His door is locked."

When they managed to open the door, the boy was laying in the middle of the floor in a pool of blood. A gun was in his hand and a note lay beside him. The father read these words: "Daddy, while I was sober I decided to kill myself so that I couldn't ever get drunk again. The reason I drank is because of the way you lived."

The preacher sat down beside the body of his son and began to weep. He began to cry over and over, "Because of the way I lived . . . because of the way I lived!" Some of you want to live in sin and debauchery . . . then when you get old, you think you will become a Christian. You think that all your children will begin to live for God too.

When my wife and I were in Charleston, South Carolina visiting a friend who had lost his eye-sight, he told us that he couldn't get any of his boys to serve God. My friend had resisted God until he was about 55 years old. He said, "I tell them how wonderful it is to be a Christian, but they only laugh and tell me that I had my fun while I was young. They say that now I have accepted religion because I am old."

This father said, "If only I could open their eyes and show them the mistake of wasting their lives in sin. They can't see the reality of salvation. I wasted my life and now I can't even get them into a church."

YOU CAN'T LIVE RIGHT WITHOUT GOD

Some people say, "I can live right without going to church." You might go to Europe without taking a boat or plane. You might be able to swim across . . . but if the sharks don't get you you would probably drown on the way. You need the church and the church needs you! YOU NEED TO TAKE YOUR CHILDREN TO CHURCH AND TRAIN THEM IN THE WAY THEY SHOULD GO!

I don't believe there are enough devils in hell to take a boy or girl out of the arms of a praying father and mother. The devil couldn't take Noah's children from him . . . even though he got every other family in the world.

I HELD HIM UP TO JESUS

A father once stood by the bedside of his seven year old son. The boy was dying! The lad turned to his father and said, "Pick me up, daddy. Hold me up high."

The father raised him up, but the boy said, "Higher, daddy!" The father raised him as high as he could and held him there. When the boy said nothing more, he lowered him and saw he was dead. The mother began to cry. She sobbed, "He's dead! He's dead!"

He said, "Yes, darling, but I held him up long before today! I gave him to Jesus years ago! He's not dead . . . he's just over in another land where we will join him later."

IT PAYS TO LIVE FOR GOD!

A woman in New York City told a very sad story about her sick child. She said that she sat for hours holding him in her arms with his hot cheek against hers. Every gasping breath seemed to be the last one he would ever take. The child whimpered with pain and agony. The doctor told her husband, "John, you had better stay home today!"

After the doctor left, her husband said, "Bring the child to me." He sat down in a rocking chair and began to rock. As he held it's little body in his arms they realized that their child was dying. She cried, "John, I can't stand to give him up. I can't let him go!"

Suddenly they knew that he was dead. They had lost their child. Many people came to their home, but the mother could not be comforted. As the father and mother stood before the coffin and looked at the dead child, their hearts were broken. After he was buried, they returned to their home, lonely and discouraged. At times, the mother seemed to hear his little footsteps and his merry voice as he called to her. She would awaken at night and cry, "Oh God, if you will only let me see my son, I'll be so grateful."

One day they went to the cemetery to put some flowers on the grave. As

NOW UNDER CONSTRUCTION . . . The New and Larger Herald of Healing Children's Home Near Dallas, Texas

Above—Artist's sketch of the new Herald of Healing Children's Home which will accommodate 200 children. The home will be located on a 200-acre farm on Highway 77 near Dallas.

Workmen rushing completion of foundation forms for dormitory.

REV. JACK COE

A glorious scene is unfolding on the 200-acre farm which I recently purchased by your help. The foundations of the first two dormitory buildings are being poured as we go to press. We are rushing construction in order to be able to accommodate the many children who are homeless and in dire need. Every day I receive many requests for space for one or more children.

These buildings will be quite large, each providing rooms for 25 children. There will be a room for a house mother, two large baths and play space for each group of children. The grounds will be landscaped as soon as possible to make the children's home as pleasant as possible for the homeless children. Large shade trees will provide protection from the hot summer sun and a grassy green lawn will give them a soft carpet upon which they can play and relax.

Two large dining halls will be constructed, each handling 100 children. The buildings are being built of cement blocks which is economical, yet substantial. Simplicity will be a feature of their design to reduce building costs.

Friends, I am starting this great home by faith. I do not have funds on hand, but I am depending upon YOU, my many friends. You have never failed me in the past and I know that you will not fail me this time. Each dollar which you send will buy several blocks for the walls. If every one who reads this letter will send something, we will

it said IMPOTENT MAN! We have no right to discriminate and say to one, "Sit here" and to another, "Sit there!"

After the stretcher bearers left him, the crippled man lay there alone and discouraged. Suddenly, someone began to cry, "The waters are being troubled." This poor lame fellow began to beg those around him to put him into the pool. No one would help him, because they were all interested in their own condition. Soon the water was still. He thought, "What's the use? For 38 long years I've been suffering and I guess I will never be healed!"

As he lay there wishing that he had never come to the pool, he heard a voice behind him saying, "Wilt thou be made whole?" No doubt he wondered why anyone would ask him such a foolish question. As he turned to see who had spoken, he looked into two of the kindest eyes he had ever seen. He looked into the compassionate face of Jesus Christ, the Son of God! Jesus said unto him, "Arise, take up thy bed and walk."

Friend, it makes no difference how dispendent you are. It makes no difference what your affliction is . . . Jesus is still saying, "Wilt thou be made whole?" It may seem that the waters are no longer troubled in your town. You may be thinking, "None of the evangelists who pray for the sick are ever going to come to our town."

Friend, you don't have to be in a healing line to receive from God. One night as I was standing outside my tent in Winston-Salem, North Carolina, a lovely little girl came hobbling up to me. She was walking with two crutches and both her legs were in braces. As she stood there swaying, she said, "Brother Coe, have I come too late? You have already prayed for the sick and everyone is going home. We came 150 miles to be here. Am I too late?"

I said, "No, darling, you're not too late." I knelt and pulled that little crippled body close, and looked up to God.

I prayed, "Father, if this was my little daughter, I'd want you to heal her body. The service is over, but I know that you still hear and see us. You love this child. Don't let her go away disappointed. In Jesus' name, make her whole now!"

The little golden-haired girl began to cry softly, "I'm not too late! I'm not too late!"

I said, "No, darling. Drop your crutches. Sit down on the fender of a car and remove your braces." She quickly unfastened the straps and took them from her legs. Then she jumped to her feet.

She began to run at full speed, screaming, "Daddy . . . I'm not too late, Jesus healed me. I wasn't too late!"

Friend, if you are sick and crippled . . . don't be discouraged! It's not too late. Jesus still asks the question, "Wilt thou be made whole?" He is the SAME . . . yesterday, TODAY, and forever! Take up your bed and walk in Jesus' name.

IS IT WELL?—Continued from Page 11 they knelt there, she said to her husband, "John, last night I was asking God to let me see my son again. He told me that there was only one way to see him and that was to go where he was. He told me that we must give our hearts to him." The two bereaved parents locked hands and yielded their lives to God and God saved them. The loneliness was gone from the home. From that day, they began to look forward to the day when they would join their son on the other shore. The years went by and they served God faithfully. Finally the father died and went to be with his boy. The aged mother, as she told the story, said, "I have only a few more days on this earth and then I'll hold the hand of John and Willie again!"

THE HEAVENLY SPECIAL

A little girl climbed aboard a train in Oklahoma. She was about eight years old. In her hand she held a small purse. She found a seat and began to look around at all the people in the car. Finally, she laid the purse in the seat beside her for a pillow and stretched out to take a nap. The conductor came through and she asked him, "Is it alright for me to lay here until I get to the place where I am going?"

The kindly conductor said, "Yes, my child. Where is your ticket?"

She said, "I don't have one. Isn't this a heavenly train . . . a heavenly special?"

He said, "I'm afraid not, honey!"

She said, "Mama always sang to me about a heavenly train that was going to take us to heaven. Mama is dead and I got on this train to go where mama is. I miss my mama so much. I don't need a ticket, mister conductor! Jesus paid it all. Mama said there wasn't any fare to pay on this train."

Tears rolled down the conductor's face and others sitting nearby began to cry also. The conductor, not knowing what to do, started to pass on. The child stopped him and asked, "Mister conductor, do you have a little girl that you sing to about the heavenly train?"

He knelt by her seat and said, "Yes, honey, I had a little girl and I sang to her about the heavenly train, but she went to heaven like your mother. My little girl passed away."

She said, "Then she's up there with my mother! That's the reason you're on this train, isn't it? We're all going to the same place." The conductor began to pray with the little girl. The man who told this story said, "I don't know what ever happened to the little girl and the conductor, because I had to get off about that time . . . but I know what happened to me. I went home and called all my children around me. I gave my heart to God."

Friends . . . for the sake of your children and loved ones . . . count the cost right now. Make sure that all is well with your life! Make sure that you are a godly father or mother . . . leading your family to eternal life in the heavenly city. COUNT THE COST!

Like the disciples in Acts 19 some have not yet heard that there be a Holy Ghost. You are NOT RESPONSIBLE UNTIL NOW

I was the same way until my mother received it at home about midnight in an old-fashioned log house in the country. After praying for hours, she jumped out of bed dancing and speaking in a language she had never known. Although she had never heard it preached, she knew she had asked God for a blessing and more power to overcome some things, and had received what she asked for.

Even my dad had never heard about it, and I thought he knew all there was to be known. Thinking she had some sort of fit, he followed her all over that long house rubbing Raleigh's Liniment on her yelling, "Lizzie, Lizzie, what is the matter?"

But it was another benefit, "Forget not ALL His benefits (Ps. 103:2). It has more benefits than any insurance offers.

If I had been taught all my life that a mule was a cow, then when I became grown I would have sincerely thought a mule was a cow.

But you have been missing something whether you are

HONEST OR DISHONEST

Those disciples in Acts 19:1-6 were honest. If they had not accepted the light as they came to it, they would have gone into sin just then (1 John 1:7). If they had refused to walk in the light, they would have walked into darkness, and how great would have been that darkness! (Matthews 6:23) and they would have been guilty of the sin of omission (James 4:17) and neglect (Hebrews 2:1-4). We are not accountable for anything until we hear it; and if we are willfully ignorant, we go into sin.

A COMMANDMENT

Jesus commanded for us to receive the Holy Ghost (Acts 1:4, Matthew 28:19, Ephesians 4:18, Luke 24:49). It was Christ's last sermon and last commandment. HE said: "Go ye therefore, and teach ALL nations . . . Teaching them to observe ALL things whatsoever I have commanded you . . ." "If ye love me, keep my commandments.
