GOD'S GIFTS

Blanche McDermott

"Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights." "Thanks be unto God for His unspeakable Gift."

Good gifts, perfect gifts, and the unspeakable gift! Someone has said that the good gifts are material and temporal things, and the perfect gifts are spiritual things. The unspeakable Gift is the Lord Jesus Christ Himself.

I do thank God for His good gifts of sunshine, fresh air, wind, water, food, fuel, clothes—so many things that we cannot name over even a small part of them. Every direction I look I can see evidence of my Heavenly Father's loving care. Truly, He is the living God Who giveth us richly all things to enjoy.

The spiritual gifts are still more wonderful. My heart overflows with gratitude to God for His grace that brings salvation, eternal life, abundant mercy, precious faith, peace with God through Jesus Christ, the peace of God that passes all understanding, an inheritance incorruptible and undefiled that fadeth not away, the Spirit of power and of love and of a sound mind—all this and much more. "For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves, it is the gift of God."

Most wonderful of all is His unspeakable Gift—our Lord Jesus Christ. "For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life." "He that spared not His own Son, but delivered Him up for us all, how shall He not with Him also freely give us all things?" Through our Lord Jesus we have all the other gifts—temporal and material, for "in Him we live and move and have our being"; and spiritual too, for "of Him are ye in Christ Jesus, Who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption."

Now let us say with the Psalmist, "What shall I render unto the Lord for all His benefits toward me? I will take the cup of salvation, and call upon the Name of the Lord." The least we can do is to receive all His wonderful gifts to us with thanksgiving, and then give Him our hearts and lives forever.

THIS I KNOW

I do not know what may befall Of sunshine or of rain, I do not know what may be mine Of pleasure and of pain; But this I know—my Savior knows And whatsoever it be, Still I can trust His love to give What will be best for me.

E. W. Kenyon

The very title rather startles one's heart. Think of having the abundance of God for our daily walk in the presence of the Father, though almost everyone is talking about their poverty of spirit, their lack of faith, their lack of ability to carry out the will of the Father in their lives.

If you will turn with me to John 10:10, "I came that they might have life and might have it abundantly."

Jesus declares that the reason that He came was that man might have an abundance of the life of God.

Why? Well, it was because Satan had stripped man utterly of everything that was beautiful.

Jesus came to replenish, to rebuild, to recreate, to make man over new, but especially to fill him with something that would utterly meet every need of his life.

Now, God is love, so when this abundance of life comes, there is going to come with it an abundance of love.

Can you imagine what a people would be where there was an abundance of Agapa, this Jesus kind of love, so that every man and woman would be seeking to help the other one?

Can you imagine that a church would be empty? Love would go out hunting for needy folks. Every car would be crowded with folks that were poverty stricken spiritually.

My heart went out to this Scripture, I John 4:4 "Ye are of God my little children." You are born out of abundance, born out of fullness, you are of God. You are the sons and daughters of God.

Ye are of God, and nothing will so enrich the life as for us to quietly say, "I am of God. I am begotten of God. I have God's very nature in me."

Along with His nature, you have His ability to help folks; the ability to be a helper, a burden-bearer, to be a strength-giver, an inspiration to men.

Men and women will say, "That man is a faith-builder."

He touches your very innermost being, and floods you with His natural ability and grace and love.

"Ye are of God and have overcome them..." The man of God is masterful, is a conqueror.

"Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is begotten of God and knoweth God. He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is love." I John 4:7, 8.

The Abundance of God

You have become a partaker of the love nature of the Creator. You are tied up with Omnipotence. You are tied up with the very effulgence of God.

You have in you His strength, His grace, His ability. You have Him.

You are not seeking a blessing from Him, you have the blessing in you.

Think what it would mean for you to have the consciousness of His presence in you all the time.

When you awaken in the morning, you will say, "Good morning, Father. You are going to be with me today. You are going to give me confidence in every crisis, you are going to be grace to me for every need all through the day."

Wonderful, isn't it? Is there anything you cannot do with Him abiding in you?

God's very life abides in you. Col. 2:9, 10 "For in him dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily, and in him ye are made full, who is the head of all principality and power."

Carefully note it now, "For in Jesus in His earthwalk dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily." All the ability of God was in Him. All the love of God was in Him. He never gave anyone the sense of emptiness, lack of ability, or a sense of unreadiness. He was always ready to meet every emergency.

I think of His utter completeness, fulness and ability in every place. We are made full with His fulness. It is a complete garment, a full garment... it does not skimp anywhere.

Of His completeness, of His fulness, you have been made full. It is all grace.

It did not come to you because you fasted and prayed to get it. It came to you all through grace.

Paul said, "I was the most unworthy man that ever lived."

When Paul was persecuting Jesus, Jesus said to him, "Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?"

When Paul bruised a single branch, he was also bruising the vine.

Never was it more beautiful and more clear. "I am the vine; ye are the branches". Hear the Master say, "Saul, you have been bruising, cutting, mangling the branches; you have hurt the vine."

When Jesus wanted someone to have His revelation, He did not choose John or James, but took Saul of Tarsus and unveiled to him the most marvelous thing ever put into human language... the Pauline Revelation.

It was not given to a worthy man, it was given to a man whose heart was dominated by hatred, envy and bitterness. The Father took this man and filled him with His fulness.

It is all of grace. Everyone can be full with His Fulness.

Of His fulness have we all received. We have received the fulness of His love, His life, the fulness of everything that was beautiful in the man Jesus.

Eph. 3:7 "Whereof I was made a minister, according to the gift of that grace of God which was given men according to the working of His power."

Let us look at it carefully now. "Whereof I was constituted a helper." It was according to the gift of that grace of God; that unmerited, wonderful thing. The word grace is a gift. It was a gift of gifts; it was love overflowing.

Now you can understand, "I am come that ye might have life; might have God; might have an abundance of God, according to the gift of grace which was given me according to the working of His power in me."

I want you to notice that Jesus continually made confession of what He was, and what the Father was to Him, and what He was to the Father.

Now Paul is following in the footsteps of the Master, and he is making a confession, "I was made a master according to the gift of his grace."

What is His grace? It is "according to the riches."

I have been let into the secret place where I have discovered the wealth, the undeveloped riches of His heart.

In Col. (2nd chapter) he says this: "In whom are all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge hidden."

Wisdom is the most important thing in the world.

You can know the Bible so that men will be amazed at your knowledge, but you may be unable to use that knowledge to instruct or help others.

You may know the Bible from Genesis to Revelation, but not have the wisdom to feed the people, to build them up.

If you want to get the best thing, you must go and dig for it. The choicest diamonds are deep... the richest pearls are deep.

The genius of God hiding everything was this... in delving, you develop your intellect, you develop your spirit, and you develop yourself in the work, and after a while you come to appreciate Him.

As you study the Word, you will run across things you never knew about. You will find treasures.

You are just like the mighty Columbia River. For thousands of years that water has been flowing down, and then along came someone and put in the Coulee Dam, and harnessed that tremendous force.

You have had the omnipotence of God flowing through and around you, and have had the ability to heal sick folks, to set men and women free that were held in bondage. You have not used it.

If you had let the ability of God work in you, hundreds of lives might have been changed. You would have made those desert lives blossom like a rose.

The unused and untapped resources of God are in every one of us.

Eph. 3:16 "That he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, that ye may be strengthened with power through his Spirit in the inward man."

The transcendent glory and

"White Unto Harvest"

Ruth A. Kenyon

"Behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields, that they are white already unto harvest." John 4:35.

"The harvest indeed is plenteous, but the laborers are few. Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he send forth laborers into his harvest." Matt. 9:37, 38.

How we thank and praise the Father for those children of His who hear His voice and go forth to labor in the harvest field.

Two Christian business men in Southern California have just written that the Lord has called them to leave their business and go forth into His harvest field... to teach and sing for His glory.

Mr. Glen Cowan, who conducted Bible Classes for my father, Dr. Kenyon, in Los Angeles, and Mr. Ralph Armstrong, tenor soloist, who traveled and sang with my father for many years, have felt the call very definitely to go forth to teach this message.

I quote from Mr. Cowan's recent letter to me:

"For several years Ralph and I have talked and prayed about the possibility of our teaming up together and going forth to carry this victorious message to others.

"We feel very definitely led of the Lord to move out on faith and to leave our respective business endeavors.

"I consider it the greatest privilege of my life to have sat under your father's teaching while he was in Los Angeles, and to have taught for him during the last year he spent in this city."

These two consecrated Christian laymen, will be happy to hold meetings in your church or community, to hold Bible Classes, etc.

Anyone interested in such meetings may contact them at the following address:

beauty of God's grace is going to dawn upon our spirits, and we are going to taste of the riches of His glory, and we are going to experience the joy of being strengthened with His ability in our spirits.

Your whole being will be rooted and grounded in love... in Him.

You have received the abundance of grace.

When you receive eternal life, you receive the gift of righteousness, the abundance of grace.

You have the nature of the Father, His ability, His steadfastness, His gentle kindness, He imparts His very confidence to you and makes you strong and courageous.

Get the habit of saying, "He is in me, He lives in me, His love is in me."

Love's Forgetfulness

E. W. Kenyon

Doubtless you have wondered why Jesus honored Saul of Tarsus above the men who leaned upon His breast.

In the early days of my studying about the Man of Galilee, through the Four Gospels, I often asked the question, why did not Jesus choose John or James or His half brother to be the spiritual Biographer of His Substitution.

We must not forget that in the Four Gospels Jesus is introducing the Father.

In the Pauline Epistles it would seem as though it is the Father Who is introducing His Son, as the substitute and the Lord, and Head of a New Covenant.

Why would the Father choose a man to introduce His Son, who had been a murderer, and despised the men and women who believed on Jesus?

One day it dawned upon me, God is love; Jesus was the Expositor of the Love nature of the Father.

All through His earth walk He was continually demonstrating and unveiling the Love nature of His Father.

I can then understand how the Father could utterly forget Paul's sins, none of them were remembered.

Paul accused himself; but the Spirit never accused him.

You will never forget that graphic statement in I Cor. 15:9, "For I am the least of the apostles, that am not meant to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God."

Then he uttered these gripping words, "But by the grace of God I am what I am."

You see, God is Love!

Love had no memory of Paul's past, no memory of the sins remitted.

We should forget what He has forgotten.

It has always been hard for us to forget our blunders, and our mistakes.

The Father forgets the things that we have done that are unseemly when we ask our forgiveness, but the Enemy continually reminds us of them.

How many times husbands and wives remind each other of the mistakes that their own lips had declared forgiven.

Let me state it again, we should forget what Love has forgotten on the basis of the Substitution of Christ.

Paul's sins and murders were remitted.

Seventeen years after the remission of his sins, amid the turmoil and trials of that love driven life, he received the Revelation of Jesus Christ.

Paul was a New Creation!

There was not a hint of the past clinging to his life.

The Father could only see the New Creation created in His Son, Jesus Christ.

Before the eyes of the Father was the New Man.

He was not Saul of the Sanhedrin.

He was a son of God!

He was a Righteous man in Christ!

God did not hold Paul's past against him.

The Father honored him above all other apostles.

He gave him His own nature.

He proved to the world that the Work He wrought in Christ could change a murderer into a son of God.

This would be true about every other man who accepts Christ as Saviour.

You see Agapa, this New Kind of Loves does not follow the law of Sense Knowledge.

It blazes a new trail in the wilderness of human consciousness. It is a love trail, through the tangled underbrush of man's transgression, and failures.

It acts like God.

It loves like God.

It inspires a man to walk like God, as it inspired Paul, the man called Saul of Tarsus.

You remember he said, "I have been crucified with Christ."

That enables us to see that Saul of Tarsus died with Christ.

Paul the beloved was raised with Christ.

God the Father has no memory of Saul of Tarsus.

He only remembers the man who said, "Follow me, as I follow Christ."

There was a fragrance in the life of that man Paul that did not belong to the earth.

No chemist could create an odor like that; it came fresh from the Gardens of Heaven.

It was the fragrance of Love!

I wish you would definitely understand this, that you died with Christ.

The old self, the old man, died with Christ.

A New man, a New self is Re-created; a self Born of the Heart of the Father.

This New self arose with Christ. The Father has no memory of your old self.

You have no old self to subdue and fight against.

He put that old self away.

He gave you a New self.

How the Adversary, who lurks behind our senses, loves to impersonate that old self of ours.

He makes many believers think that the old self is still there and that they must keep struggling against it, until the Death Angel separates them from this world.

That is not true.

That is Sense Knowledge psychology.

The Word is true.

It declares that our old self was crucified with Christ, and that we have a New self, who was raised together with Him.

"Wherefore if any man is in Christ there is a new creation (a new self, a new species of man)."

The thing that was prophesied in Ez. 36:26 where God states that He will take from them the stony heart of selfishness, and give us a new heart of love, and put a new Spirit within us, has come to pass.

There is a new self born of Love!

That is the reason for the New Commandment for the New Covenant people, that we love one another, even as Christ loved us.

This New love man rules the Senses.

He gains the ascendancy over them.

This New man is a branch of the Vine.

He was not adopted into it.

He was born into it.

That is the reason he has no past.

There is a past that man accredited to him, but it is a God forgotten past.

It is an unknown past to the Father.

He has made mistakes since he became a New Creation, and they have been forgiven, and forgotten.

There is no record of them in Heaven.

Love keeps no record of the mistakes of His love children.

Man remembers.

How unwise it is for a parent to remind a child of some past disobedience.

Or of husbands and wives ever to remember a thing forgiven.

Did you know that wrapped up in the word forgiveness, is forgetfulness?

The thing that is forgiven has stopped being, absolutely annihilated.

Satan may have a photograph of it, and no doubt he will come at times and hold that picture before your mind.

Don't you pay any attention to it.

You tell him that the Father has no memory of it.

You must forgive yourself.

Never grieve over your past blunders.

If He has forgiven you, you must forgive yourself.

If He has forgotten, you too must forget.

You see, you do not honor the Father in the Substitutionary work of Christ if you continually re-

NEWS FROM BROTHER ETRATA

Dear Sister Kenyon:

Greetings in the sweet precious Name of Jesus.

I am happy to inform you that our work is not going down or becoming cool, but going wider and hotter seemingly. I am carrying the burden for a real spiritual revival for those several outstations. Some new converts are desiring to be immersed in the river. Several of them have followed the Lord in water baptism. We opened a new station three weeks ago and the first Sunday afternoon one was healed from a sickness he had had for three years. God is working in that place. The second Sunday afternoon many of them accepted the Lord Jesus Christ as their Saviour. An evil spirit was rebuked and is praising God. The third Sunday our attendance was over one hundred. It was a wonderful blessing when many of them raised their hands and accepted the Lord Jesus Christ as their personal Saviour. Glory to God!

Last Thursday night there were two women who were 80 years old who were saved. The other Sunday I baptised two women in the river who were about to deliver their babies. In a week they had their babies. Is not that wonderful? The Lord is blessing and the children are increasing in number. I distributed more clothing and how they like to come and they invite their friends to attend the Sunday School. They are very interested in receiving gifts especially the picture lesson cards. There are many babies here waiting for dedication.

I am sorry to say that we have no church yet in my former place, and it is impossible for them to go to the other place to dedicate their babies. Our church is under reconstruction. Please pray for our church for we need some more material.

I received the packages you sent me and have distributed to those who need. Please pray that God will increase our support for we have been suffering due to the high cost of food. I know you are making sacrifices as you "hold forth the word of Life."

Please pray also for clothes for us as we cross the river and walk in muddy places. We need boots every Sunday afternoon.

May His richest blessing abide upon you and your ministry for Him.

M. A. Etrata,
Philippine Islands

Daily Communion With Christ

John Alexander Dowie

Approach, my soul, with reverent love,

Gather the manna from above,
Rained daily down for thee:
Eternal Food, so freely given,
Gives sweetest antepast of Heaven,
Wherever thou mayest be.

Dost thou the weary desert tread,
Thirsty, with scorching sun o'er head?

Behold Him at the well!
Art tempest tossed on wintry sea?
Still'd are its waves—O mystery!
He doeth all things well.

Dear Savior, cast out all my fear,
Be Thou my only comfort here—
My Anchor, firm and sure!
Daily renew my strength in Thine,
Let all Thy will be wholly mine,
Thus shall I be secure.

(Taken from "Leaves of Healing")

member your faults and sins, that He has forgiven.

You are nullifying the Word when you remember the past.

You are questioning the integrity of the Word, and that means that you are denying that the Father makes good what He inspired Paul to write in that great Revelation of the Substitutionary Sacrifice of Christ; and of the Son's present Ministry at the Right Hand of the Father.

"God so loved."

You honor that love by forgetting what Love has forgotten.

Attention Prayer Warriors!

WHERE TWO SHALL AGREE . . .

Ruth A. Kenyon

"If two of you shall agree on earth as touching anything that they shall ask, it shall be done for them of my Father who is in heaven." Matt. 18:19.

"And this is the boldness which we have toward him, that if we ask anything according to His will, he heareth us: and if we know that he heareth us whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions which we have asked of him." I John 5:14, 15.

This past month our hearts have been gladdened and encouraged by the many testimonies we have received of answered prayer. People in all parts of the world have been healed and blessed and brought to a saving knowledge of Jesus Christ.

We wish to thank the faithful ones who meet with us at the Throne each morning at 8 a. m.

PRAYER NEEDS

- Remember the missionaries in occupied China, as they labor under difficulties we cannot imagine nor comprehend. Remember the missionaries in all parts of the world. Hold them before the Throne in definite prayer.
- Brother Etrata in the Philippines writes that his church was badly damaged by storms and must be rebuilt.
- Lutheran Mission and Children's Home in Cordova, Alaska, is in need of finances to furnish and remodel a building which has been given them to enlarge their work.
- Continue to remember the work here in prayer. The financial need is very great.
- Remember our foreign work . . . that we may be enabled to send more free literature overseas. Pray for needed finances for this.
- Remember the shut-ins. Remember those in hospitals and sanatoriums. Pray much for those who are lonely and discouraged and sick.
- Remember the leaders of our country. That the Father will guide and lead them.
- Remember the pastors and evangelists that are giving forth this message.
- Pray for open doors for two Christian laymen who feel the call to go forth to teach this message.

ONLY ONE

Emily Ashley

Only one soul was saved?
My, but the blessing was small.
Men came hundreds of miles
To sound forth the Gospel's call.

Dollars and dollars were spent
That sinners might know the way,
But only one soul found Jesus
Was it worth while? you say.

I was the one lost sinner
Who received the Son that night,
I was the one, who, blind,
By Grace was given my sight.

Was it worth while, you ask,
To reach just one lost soul.
Yes! Again and again I'll say,
For I was the one made whole.

YOU NEVER CAN TELL

You never can tell when you send a word
Like an arrow shot from a bow
By an archer blind, be it cruel or kind,
Just where it may chance to go.

You never can tell what your thoughts will do
In bringing you hate or love,
For thoughts are things, and their airy wings
Are swifter than carrier dove:

They follow the law of the universe—
Each thing must create its kind,
And they speed o'er the track to bring you back
Whatever went out from your mind.

Our Students Say--

E. B. B., Philippine Islands

I praise the Father for the time I have spent with you in studying your course. Since I started this course and read some of the books I have changed in the way I pray. Before I was ruled by the Senses, but now I know how to stand on the Word of God.

I. B. B., Richton, Miss.

I liked the course very much and would like to take the next one. It opens up an understanding of the Bible better than any other study I have ever made. I have been made well several times by faith and prayer. I hope to continue and get more understanding and do whatever I can for the Lord. I love you all.

Rev. D. M., Rathbun, Iowa

I would like to add my testimony concerning this course. It has been an inspiration to my soul and drawn me deeper into God's love. I have enjoyed studying the Word through this course and would recommend it as containing the true Word of God. I have learned things which the natural man could never learn.

G. H., Indianapolis, Ind.

It is a great privilege and joy to fellowship with you through the Word. It has helped to make my year of rest the happiest year of my life. My faith has been increased through the lessons and I have a desire to impart to others the wonderful things you have been imparting to me through God's Word. I have learned the difference between the worship of God through the senses and through Revelation Knowledge.

W. H. D., Australia

Many thanks to you and your staff for the spiritual help that I have received from studying your Bible course. These courses have been to me a Blessing from Heaven. They were as though they came from the Father God through His Son, Jesus Christ. When you are studying such studies as these, your soul receives the fatness of the Word. Your mind is also renewed and you begin to grow as you see and acknowledge your privileges which our Lord has given unto us. You also become a personal worker and know how to approach people and have a flow of language which causes your hearers to take notice. The mind develops and brings out the Christ life in your life and you become a spiritual blessing so people will say that you have been with Jesus.

P. H., Belgium

There are no words in English to express my feelings for your wonderful course. It was full of surprises for me and now I may start my Bible reading with a new Light and with a new and more concrete understanding. I will explain the whole course to my wife who is unable to read English and I will share my joy and my blessings with her.

I have now something inside of me. I have a full knowledge of what it is to lead a full Christian life, but I know too that I will feel lonesome without the wonderful teaching of Dr. Kenyon.

Mrs. E. M., Australia

The Scriptures have been made so clear to me since studying your course. My spiritual life has been wonderfully strengthened and encouraged and uplifted, and I have a holy boldness now as never before.

Mrs. C. E. S., Bellingham, Wash.

Is your course of Bible study on Redemption still available to study groups? If so, I would be so glad to have fifty copies every week. We will begin this next Thursday using the lessons I received several years ago. I think they are wonderful and still feel the blessing of God every time I read any portion of them. I covet this same blessing for this group in our church.

Mrs. W. A. F., Bruce Mines, Ont.
Your lessons are certainly helpful. I have learned so much from this study and my desire is to complete these courses.

A. C., Philippine Islands

I have just finished answering my last lesson on the Bible course, "The Bible in the Light of our Redemption". I have been rather slow in my studies because of so many interruptions, but our Heavenly Father gave me victory over them and I was able to push through. I am thanking Him for the knowledge He has given me through these lessons. Surely our Redemption is complete because of our Identification with Christ. I have learned to trust Him in every need. Ever since I have known Him as my Healer my family has no more need for doctors or medicines. Some friends call me fanatic, but I do not mind them because I know that even my Lord Jesus was despised.

I. F., Pacific Grove, Calif.

What a blessing Dr. Kenyon's lessons have been wherever I have taught them. What a joy it is to see babes in Christ grow in the grace and knowledge of their Lord and Saviour as they study His precious Word. It is so clearly set forth in these lessons. We've also seen souls saved through the teaching. The Lord bless you as you labor for Him.

B. E. B., Davenport, Wash.

I have deeply appreciated taking this course from you. I enjoyed every lesson and think they are very profitable. I have been greatly benefitted from studying this course. May God bless you and the sacrifice you are making for His cause.

J. K. A., Gold Coast

I cannot put into words what this course which covers my Redemption in Christ has meant to me during the past seven months. The Word of God has been given faith in its fullness. This course has taught me my privileges and responsibilities as a child of God, and above all to rejoice in the Lord. There were times when I did not feel like rejoicing, but as the Word continued to sink into my heart, I couldn't help but rejoice. Really Christ means everything to me. I know that I was not happy until that great day when the Lord came into my heart with His Salvation.

J. K. M., Nigeria

I am glad to write to inform you of the blessings I have obtained having gone through your first five lessons. They have enlightened me on the Word of God. They are so simple and instructive. As a preacher of the Gospel I do not exaggerate when I say that now I read my Bible with ease and understanding. I preach with ease and power and my congregation listens to me with wonder.

S. K. O., Nigeria

I greatly thank God our Heavenly Father for answering your prayer concerning financial matters. Praise Him! Yes, our Father is a gracious Father, the Master of management. Glory to Him! I am heartily and greatly thanking you for your great help to me in my Christian life.

Answers to Prayer

Mrs. S. B., Liberal, Kans.

You may remember I requested you to stand with me in prayer for the deliverance of my painful feet. The Lord delivered and I can now wear my shoes with perfect ease. Thank you for praying for me.

GOD BROUGHT HER BACK

N. G. C., Newport, Ore.

What a wonderful time to be living right now, when we are seeing a fulfillment of these wonderful promises of God. Over in the Netherlands Indies our friends wrote me of a woman who had died. Our friends told the Malay people that Jesus would hear their prayers when they called upon Him, and He would do anything for them they needed. This group, without the help of our friends their missionaries, gathered around this woman's bed, and for two hours besought God to bring their mother from the dead. God heard and brought her back.

M. M., Chicago, Ill.

I want to thank you for your prayers in my behalf last Spring. The trouble is all cleared up.

Mrs. E. E., Bellingham, Wash.

I would like your Prayer Group to pray for my son. You prayed for his heart trouble and he has not had a bad spell since.

ANSWERED PRAYER

Mrs. D. M., Newmarket, Ont.

I wish to thank you for answered prayer. Two years ago, I wrote you to pray for a back condition I have had for years. I have not had a bad attack since I wrote to you.

NOTHING WRONG NOW

Mrs. C. E. B., Petersburg, N. Y.

Sometime ago I asked you to pray for a little girl who was slowly dying with a kidney ailment. Today I heard that doctors can find nothing wrong with her.

R. C., India

You will be delighted to know of the wonderful way your Father's writings are being used in this land, particularly "Jesus the Healer". Recently I witnessed the following: (1) Healing of Partial Paralysis of the spine and mastoid, (2) Healing of Appendicitis, (3) Healing of T. B. of stomach, and (4) Partial healing of T. B. of the spine.

Mrs. D. D., Zion, Ill.

I am sending you a birth announcement. I am happy to say God heard our prayers. I asked you to pray for my niece about six or seven months ago. She lost twin boys last year and wanted a baby so badly. So this year when her mother wrote to me and told me, she had to lay in bed most of the time and the doctor said she could never carry any more babies through the time, I thought it was time we asked the Great Physician for help. We did, and the result is a beautiful baby girl, her heart's desire.

JESUS WON

Mrs. T. H. L., Detroit, Mich.

My husband was suddenly stricken with a Kidney ailment and had four doctors, a specialist and X-rays, and suffered agony for about nine days. Then he told the devil to leave him because his body was the Temple of the Holy Spirit and so they had it out. Jesus won and he was healed. Inside of fifteen minutes the pain and soreness were gone. Praise the Lord! He has gone back to work today.

Notes of Praise

Mrs. E. K., Vancouver, B. C.

Thank you so much for remembering me in your prayers. I am glad to tell you that my dear Heavenly Father heard and answered and I am so happy in the Lord."

DIPHTHERIA AVERTED

Mrs. K. G., Hudson, Mass.

Thank you for your part in praying for my daughter. God undertook marvelously in her behalf. She is now up and doing part of her work. Diphtheria was averted and none of the seven children were sick. I believe God, our Father, answers prayer.

O. E. O., Vernon, B. C.

I am sending you my testimony of Divine healing. I was healed of dilation of the heart. I also had low blood pressure and poor circulation, chronic bronchitis and catarrh of throat and head. I was instantly healed through the prayers of Wm. Branham here in Vernon, B. C. Praise the Lord!

Mrs. S., Waco, Texas

I trust God for my body and never need a doctor or hospital. I have not taken a dose of medicine or even consulted a doctor for twenty-six years.

Mrs. R. M., Wrightsville, Ga.

A while back my husband wrote to your Father for prayer. He got better and then when he was down with stomach trouble the Lord healed him again.

W. L. H., Pomona, Calif.

I am up here in the mountains with a man who had asthma very bad. One day it seemed that he was at the end of his endurance. I said, "Let us trust God." So I went in secret prayer while he rested. I came back to the tent and sat down and opened the Word to him. I said to him, "God says, 'by his stripes we are healed,' what do you say?" Then he said, "Then I am healed," and he was. I went to the store and when I came back he was a different looking man. I asked, "How are you?" and he said, "I am healed." We praised the Father together.

BRINGING HER OUT VICTORIOUSLY

M. G. B. H., Lakeland, Fla.

I acted on the Word for my healing and God graciously met me and for about a week I made great gain physically. Then suddenly such an attack, which must have been from Satan. I was doubled with excruciating pain, as if by appendicitis, but I have never had this. For about three weeks I was "doubled" in agony and could not lie down. But praise the Lord, I could detect no sign of wavering faith in my God, and now I am grateful to tell you He is bringing me out victoriously. Again, I say, Praise His Holy Name!

J. S., Clarkston, Wash.

Thank you for the letter you sent my friend. I have not seen him, but a friend came past my home and told me he is a great deal better and doesn't talk about dying so much.

Mrs. E. D. W., Jacksonville, Fla.

I was looking over some old papers and came across this article, "Is Healing For Me?" I have been very ill but thank our dear Saviour I am better now, and reading those precious words of your Dad makes me strong.

Mrs. Z. E. R., Vernon, B. C.

I thank you for praying for me and for my son and daughter. The Lord answered your prayer and I thank the Lord and praise Him for it.

Mrs. G. S., Englewood, Colo.

Just a few lines to thank you for sending the "Herald of Life." Do keep it coming. Each time the paper comes there seems to be an answer in it to some problem or to something I do not understand. It has made clear so many passages of the Bible to me.

Mrs. J. M., Long Beach, Calif.

I received your paper "Herald of Life" two weeks ago while lying in bed with a bad heart. I was discouraged and cried most of the time, but I read that paper until it was almost worn out. This morning I received another one and want to thank you for sending them. I have been reading how we may be strong and I feel better already.

A. D., Denver, Colo.

I have been reading in your dear Father's book, "The Wonderful Name of Jesus," and as always, I marvel at his wonderful understanding of the Word of God. How clear and real he makes the precious Scriptures. How much he helped people by showing how to believe and how to pray. I prize highly all of his books that I own.

Mrs. B. A., Washington, D. C.

Thank you so much for mailing the copy of "The Wonderful Name of Jesus" to me. When I want to make a gift of great spiritual blessing I know of no better selection.

Mrs. N. P., Beloit, Wis.

Will you send me $2.00 worth of your little book, "The Blood Covenant." It is absolutely the best I have ever read and every one I have given one to has been blessed. I want to give out more of them. Surely it contains the message for our day.

C. M., Tenafly, N. J.

Thank you for the book, "The Blood Covenant." I enjoyed it. It certainly opens one's eyes to the real truth.

Mrs. W. S. P., Mabton, Wash.

I have received the book, "The Blood Covenant." We like all of Dr. Kenyon's books but this one is the best book that has ever been written on that subject. He being dead yet speaketh. We praise God for these wonderful truths.

R. L. S., Anderson, Ind.

I have read and studied several books written by your Father, a man of God, and am convinced that through them God has revealed numerous things which have increased the joy and the knowledge of a life dedicated to God. The truths revealed through them have been a great factor in establishing my feet in the paths of righteousness. How I have thanked God for this light, only He knows.

I have been a Christian but less than a year and have been slow to accept what I heard, but always open for the truths of God. It had troubled me when I heard professors talk about Christ and His Power and yet they lacked that power themselves. I believe if I had known it was "not I, but Christ who liveth in me," I would have believed and accepted it years ago. For months I have just endured until God's Word was revealed to me through your Father's writings. Then my life became one of joy and gladness! How I wish that everyone might see what they are in Christ.

Mrs. S. J., Ryley, Alta.

I thank God that He is becoming so much more real and precious to us through the Bible truths presented in your books. This is just what our churches need today, to take God at His Word.

FAITH IN MY FAITH

E. W. Kenyon

So many people have faith in other people's faith, but they seem to have none in their own.

The Father has no favorites. Every child of God has the same legal rights. It is not a problem of faith to use the Name of Jesus. It is a problem of using your privileges, taking your rights.

I thought for a long time that it was a problem of faith. Finally I discovered that Jesus was talking to His own Covenant people when He was commanding them to believe in Him.

Everyone of those marvelous statements in the three gospels where He is challenging faith in Himself, I now understand is not a message to the church, but to the Jews.

They were an apostate people, but they were a Covenant people.

They were a faithless people. Jesus demanded that they believe in Him as their Messiah.

Their healing depended upon their faith in Him. When we turn to Paul's Revelation, we find no such demands.

The demand is that the man outside of Christ must believe that God raised Jesus from the dead, that He actually died according to scripture, and that He was raised again for his justification, if he wants to come into the family.

After one has come into the family, everything in the family belongs to him.

You can find no place in Paul's Epistles where he is urging us to have faith.

Why? Because all things are ours. We need exercise no special faith in a check at a bank where we have a deposit.

We need not exercise special faith for money that is in our pocketbook.

Everything Christ did is yours. All you have to do is draw a check on it.

Everything Christ is at the right hand of the Father, He is for you.

1 Pet. 2:24 Peter tells us: "Who his own self bare our sins in his body upon the tree, that we, having died unto sins, might live unto righteousness; by whose stripes ye were healed."

If you were healed by His stripes, then healing belongs to you as much as the house, that you have a warranty deed for, belongs to you.

You may not have taken advantage of your warranty deed and lived in your home. You may not have understood that it was yours.

You may not have understood that your healing belongs to you; but it is yours.

It requires no special faith on your part. Your part is thanking the Father for it, and healing is yours.

Phil. 4:19 "And my God shall supply every need of yours according to His riches in glory in Christ Jesus."

That requires no special faith. You call the Father's attention to your needs and thank Him for meeting your needs.

For many years I have exercised my rights in the family and He has met my needs from day to day.

When He invites you to come boldly to the throne of Grace, that is an invitation for you to come and make your requests known; tell Him what is necessary. Sit there for a while and fellowship and love Him.

Everyone of you who read this article have the same rights in prayer that John and Peter had.

You have the same invitation to come boldly to "the throne of grace." You have the same invitation to walk in fellowship with Him.

There is no distinction made. God is rich unto all who take His Son as their Savior.

Take what belongs to you and know that "No Word from God is void of power or ability to make good."

HE BEING DEAD YET SPEAKETH

Mrs. A. A. Gnaniah, India.

We often hear people making this remark just after the death of their loved ones, making reference to some of the wonderful things spoken or wrought by them. Yet, how many being dead yet speak today? "Jesus said, he that believeth in me though he were dead yet shall he live." John 11:25.

In the list of heroes of faith in Hebrews, the eleventh chapter, the name of Abel leads the rest and "he being dead yet speaketh." Why? Because Abel by faith not only offered a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, but by faith he points to the great atoning sacrifice of Jesus Christ our Saviour.

Now I am reading Kenyon's "Herald of Life" month after month and also his books and tracts. I cannot but make an expression that comes to my mind over and over again, "He being dead, yet speaketh." I believe all the great works of Dr. Kenyon are a sweet smelling sacrifice to God. It is especially true because all his writings exalt and magnify our God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, pointing to the one great atoning sacrifice He made for every one of us and for the whole world.

But is there not a possibility of Dr. Kenyon being forgotten or becoming silent? This would happen if this literature were not printed and circulated. Here God looks upon the sacrifice made by Dr. Kenyon's successors for the printing and reprinting and circulation of these life giving words. We must realize it is a great sacrifice on the part of those responsible, especially the beloved daughter of Dr. Kenyon, to print and publish the "Herald of Life" and the other books of her Father, and send them abroad to the ends of the earth for people who cannot hear God speaking directly, to hear through Dr. Kenyon who "being dead yet speaketh."

Only a few weeks ago I wrote to Miss Kenyon suggesting to her to write a biography or life story of her venerable Father, but as I kept on reading the "Herald of Life" and also the books written by Dr. Kenyon, I was convinced that he was speaking through his literature. So the need for continuing to publish the paper and his books is more important than writing a new book on the life of Dr. Kenyon.

In conclusion my gratitude is due to Miss Ruth Kenyon who has been sending me packets of the "Herald of Life" every month since the first of the year and also books written by her Father which are most enlightening and thought provoking. I offer my thanks also to all friends and well wishers who have been cooperating with Miss Kenyon by their prayers, love offerings and other forms of sacrifice to make this work a success. Above all let us offer our praises and thanksgivings to our Heavenly Father "For of Him and through Him and to Him are all things, to whom be glory for ever. Amen." (Rom. 11:36).

GOD WILL PLAN

Mary Rodobaugh

When all seems dark and confusing,
And you would troubled be:
Just look up and wait on God,
He will silently plan for thee.

Are you at wit's end corner,
And not one step do you see?
"Stand still and see His salvation",
He will silently plan for thee.

Do not try to understand it,
But rest and joyful be:
"It is the Lord"—He knows it all,
He will silently plan for thee.

Be still, for God is working,
He now does set you free;
Be patient, and endure it all,
He will silently plan for thee.

God does not need to explain,
For all things His eye doth see;
Believe His Word and obey Him,
He is training you for eternity.

IN WHOM WE HAVE OUR REDEMPTION

E. W. Kenyon

When Jesus conquered death, hell and the grave, He conquered because He had dealt with the sin problem as our representative.

He had conquered everything that stood between us and relationship and fellowship with the Father.

Whatever Jesus conquered for us is conquered.

We do not need to conquer it. We do not need to think of it.

If we have accepted Jesus Christ as our Saviour, then it is conquered.

It is conquered for us. We do not need to worry about it.

Every sin, every worry, every weakness, was conquered in Christ, and Faith makes us look at Jesus and see in Him the completeness, the fulness, of our Redemption.

If a pain comes in the arm, we simply remember that Jesus has redeemed us from that pain, and a pain cannot be.

If any organ of the body fails to function, we simply remember that that organ was redeemed by Christ, and it must obey the command of Christ.

Hell's forces have been defeated. We do not need to defeat them. We are absolutely independent of circumstances.

The New Birth has translated us out of the dominion of weakness and failure into the position of sons and daughters of God, in the very Family of God, in the Realm of God.

We are now, seated in Jesus Christ, in the Heavens.

We are more than Conquerors through Him who loved us.

We are delivered from sin and doubt, failure and diseases.

We stand complete in Him.

"Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?" I Cor. 3:16.
