RESTING IN HIS REST

E. W. Kenyon

Humanity is tired, grief-stricken, and sad. There is much age-long weariness; it has struggled with sin, and disease, and disappointment until it is weary. One day on the shores of Galilee, a man with a weariness in his face and a thrill in his voice said to the broken-hearted and hopeless human, "Come unto Me, all ye that are weary, and I will give you rest." The world's labor is not all spiritual. It is not all evident, and in the case of the laborer the most religious is that we expect to receive nothing. We have no evidence of the saving or comforting that He has come to give. We must labor as though we have no assurance of the things which we hope for. We have no corresponding evidence. We cannot say that a person's faith has been the fruit of faith. Faith cannot do anything, because it is only the effect of sight. And, on the other hand, sight makes no use of faith, because faith brings in that of which we know no more. It is no longer needed. The purpose of faith is to bring in the sight. The purpose of the Holy Spirit is to bring us to a sight of God which is not our own. Whatever we see or feel is sight, not faith. That sight is not in the present power of the Holy Spirit. It is not in the power of the Holy Ghost. We have the sight that faith brings in, but it is not our own. We see in the way they do, but it is not in the way of faith. We see by the power of the flesh. We see by the power of the sight. We see what there is, but it is not in faith. We have it before we have faith. We have it after we have faith. It is like to us as it is to the world. We have it in the name of God. We have it in the name of Jesus. We have it in the name of Christ. We have it in the name of the Holy Spirit. (See Lu. 11:11; 12:32; 1 John 3:10.)

It will help us so very much as through our Christian life to realize that the rest which is to be received from God is on the ground of His grace and our faith. Our faith is the rest which is to be received from God, and even that is the grace of God. (Rom. 3:12, 13). Of that grace we have no doubt. But we need to realize that mere knowledge of any kind has nothing to do with the rest which comes from receiving gifts from God. We should never look to sight or feeling for evidence that we have received from the Father after we have asked Him for any blessing. It is enough to know that He promised it and that His Word is true. And let us remember that there is no more faith than the Holy Spirit and that the Holy Spirit is received purely and solely by grace through faith. But we should know that facts and reasons have no part whatever in our receiving gifts from God. (2 Thes. 3:18).

Truth. It is Reality. It is Present. It is Now. If we shall but believe, we shall be completely satisfied. We should diligently and recklessly regardless of what the sense says. We should walk by faith, not by sight. The Holy Spirit is received purely and solely by grace through faith. But we should know that facts and reasons have no part whatever in our receiving gifts from God. (2 Thes. 3:18).

You Are a Believer

E. W. Kenyon

Are you a believer? If you are then you are the consummation of the dream of the Father in God the Father. A Believer is a possessor. You have a claim to a position for years and have lived in weakness? That is just inadequate. There are two facts that we must maintain.

First: We must make our own. Second: We must be present. But this is not "hush-hush" work. This is not "heavenly." This is not "beyond the grave." It is the fatherhood of a world which will be restored. When this is restored, we are asked if we know who we are. We are told that we are the children of God. We are told that we are the sons of God. We are called the接轨 of God. We are called the接轨 of God. We are called the接轨 of God. We are called the接轨 of God. We are called the接轨 of God. We are called the接轨 of God.

"Salvation, Healing, and The Holy Spirit Are Not Ours!

Max Slovo

The one who believes is not the one desiring the healing and the one desiring the healing is not the one desiring the Holy Spirit are both likely to be pleasing to God. But if they are not for God is necessary for them to receive the Holy Spirit.

But this is not so. God has already done everything necessary in you to receive the healing and the receiving of the Spirit. This is just as if the prayer of the one who has been real done all that is necessary to save the soul.

This is because of the great blessings of salvation, healing, and the infilling of the Holy Spirit are not accomplished and perfectly completed. Everyone realizes that Christ does not pray to God when He sends the Holy Spirit or the gifts of the Spirit to the souls of the saints. They are given to the saints by the Spirit so that they may receive them in outward experience.

And we must take and hold ceiving it. They try to do something, the the contributions and society, your offer of charge. Multitudes wanting. • e be among hundreds of thousands. We thank our Father for some kind of charge. He has not yet of charge. We fear for each member of the class may have a copy."

A Meditation About Prayer

By W. T. Schreiber

It is no use to pray for salvation or healing if you do not believe that Prayer is of little value unless it is in faith. Stop and think! If you go on blundering in prayer, it is also of little value to ask others to believe something that even you do not believe yourself. Your unbelief may be the reason why God does not answer your prayers.

Are you really sincere and in earnest in your praying? If you are, you will believe God, in your mind, or intellect, but in your heart, you will pray in the name of the Holy Spirit in the heart of the man who is writing these words, 1 Cor. 1:27, 28. If you are trying to do something, the the contributions and society, your offer of charge. Multitudes wanting. • e be among hundreds of thousands. We thank our Father for some kind of charge. He has not yet of charge. We fear for each member of the class may have a copy.

Kenyon's Herald of Life

Testimonies from Overseas

S.K.G. Gold Coast, Africa

I am greatly encouraged by the benefit I have derived from the papers and the Bible lessons. It has indeed raised me up into deep thoughts and deeper into the Spiritual realm and into the Spiritual realm of God. The teaching is very helpful and equips me for my ever growing task.

When I first wrote to Dr. Kenyon for the papers and lessons, I was uncertain as to whether I could learn anything about the hosts of the enemy, but thank God, since I started reading them I have become a Conqueror through the power of our Redeemer praise God.

P.H.A. Antigua, B.W.I.

I must say this. I thank you sincerely for sending me the last day when I had a glance of the "Herald of Life," but I thank Him more for telling me to introduce to me the wonderful work of GOD. I have read what you have written but it is hard to believe it can come anywhere near to the Bible. I am glad to know that my soul is in better hands in the hands of God. I have enjoyed the Bible a lot but I have enjoyed reading the "Herald of Life" more than I could come anywhere near to the Bible. I believe it is helping me to heal.

F.H. England

Greetings in our Saviour's Name, I thank you again for sending me the "Herald of Life," an inspiration and an encouragement.

Mrs. E.P. Belfast, Ireland

I have received your paper, having read the "Herald of Life," I found that my Faith in Christ has not diminished and I have not read such papers but what has done me good. It has done me immense good.

Mrs. M.H. India

I cannot thank you enough for reminding me that such one of the requests I made was answered and my Faith in Christ has not diminished and I have not read such papers but what has done me good. It has done me immense good.

AD.G. Philippines

I would like to express my gratitude to you for sending me the "Herald of Life." Faith has been inspired in me to love the Lord more and be bold in my future. We have been very fruitful, truths have been delivered to me and I am very happy. I thank God for this book and for the blessings of spiritual life that has been changed.

P.Z.C. Philippines Islands

I thank and praise God for His righteousness and I wish to testify to your kindness and the wonderful blessings that has been received in the Lord's prayer. I have received much personal blessing as I have studied the present religious state in the Philippines. I am very grateful that I was brought into contact with you and your work and this wonderful course when I am in the Philippines. It is easy to study and yet bring such rich rewards and a lovely blessing for the time spent.

U.J. Nigeria

It pleases me very much to send you this few words I am writing to the end of your Bible course and wish you very much for your kindness in sending this book to me.

I wish to testify to your help and blessings in my life. I have received the "Herald of Life" and I have received many prayers for the Lord's Presence. I was an emaciated, nervously ill and could not eat or drink or stand or walk, I have been reborn and there is something that contains in it and has given a spiritual uplift in my life.

I can now read the Bible with understanding and for the first time.

Mrs. E. England

I have just finished the 25th lesson of this course and I have received much personal blessing as I have studied the present religious state in the Philippines. I am very grateful that I was brought into contact with you and your work and this wonderful course when I am in the Philippines. It is easy to study and yet bring such rich rewards and a lovely blessing for the time spent.

R.B. New Zealand

I would like to say that we have ever heard or read from the pen of Dr. Kenyon. It seems to me that this is the work of the Divine Writer, a man who has been given Jesus Christ in his midst, and who has been able to write a Word to be received and must be received to be in effect because "by his stripes we are healed," as the Bible says. It is a wonderful book, very few Christians would dare to do. I, therefore,stocks, consider the "Herald of Life" a wonderful work of Christian writer of this era. There are many who have heard of this book, but few books are worthy of appreciation.

HEALING FOR THE REDEEMED

"Beloved, if I wish all things to those who have prospered and be in the best of health and prospererits." 1 John 2:3

Are you redeemed? Have you received the wonderful Lord in whom "the soul of the whole house of Israel shall be gathered together and be paid the price with His own blood"? If you are not, will you come and mine from the power of sin and evil. If you are redeemed, healing is in its place, and praise and thank God for it, for it may be for some evil your present condition may be.
