"Our Father Who Art In Heaven..."

Ruth A. Kenyon

"Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father," Eph. 1:2. With a prayer and a two-word, "Our Father," Can you imagine, beloved, what it means, can you comprehend the love that constrained Him to send His Son, Christ Jesus, to die on the cruel cross, to suffer there for us, and to pay the price for us, that we might become the sons and daughters of God?

Kennon's Herald of Life

Vol. XX
528 WEST AMERIGE AVE., FULLERTON, CALIF., JANUARY-FEBRUARY, 1955

ACKNOWLEDGING HIM

Ernest F. Dupuy

E. W. Kenyon

The text of Proverbs 3:6 begins with the following words: "In all thy ways acknowledge Him, and He will make thy paths straight.

He, quickly, my mind flew from text to text, finding that with the Lord's words He had not fitted into a practical and usable way all the ways wherein we can and should acknowledge Him.

He, quickly, my mind flew from text to text, finding that with the Lord's words He had not fitted into a practical and usable way all the ways wherein we can and should acknowledge Him.

First, Ps. 19:14, "Let the words of my mouth and the meditations of my heart, be acceptable in Thy sight, O Lord." How may my words be acceptable unto Him? The answer is found in 2:1-6, "Do all things without murmuring and disputing: That ye may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world, holding forth the word of life." (That is, speaking the Word of God.)

And how shall the meditations of our heart be well pleasing to Him? Phil. 4:8, "Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report, if there be any virtue, if there be any praise, think on these things.

The redemptive work of Christ brings man's weakness in with all its strength and sin and makes the human failure a Divine success.

Paul, in such a wonderful paradoxe of his, "When I am weak then am I strong," summed up the effect of the finished work of Christ as nowhere else in all his writings.

What more could he say, in such a wonderful paradoxe of his, "When I am weak then am I strong," summed up the effect of the finished work of Christ as nowhere else in all his writings.

What more could he say, in such a wonderful paradoxe of his, "When I am weak then am I strong," summed up the effect of the finished work of Christ as nowhere else in all his writings.

What more could he say, in such a wonderful paradoxe of his, "When I am weak then am I strong," summed up the effect of the finished work of Christ as nowhere else in all his writings.

What more could he say, in such a wonderful paradoxe of his, "When I am weak then am I strong," summed up the effect of the finished work of Christ as nowhere else in all his writings.

What more could he say, in such a wonderful paradoxe of his, "When I am weak then am I strong," summed up the effect of the finished work of Christ as nowhere else in all his writings.

What more could he say, in such a wonderful paradoxe of his, "When I am weak then am I strong," summed up the effect of the finished work of Christ as nowhere else in all his writings.

What more could he say, in such a wonderful paradoxe of his, "When I am weak then am I strong," summed up the effect of the finished work of Christ as nowhere else in all his writings.

What more could he say, in such a wonderful paradoxe of his, "When I am weak then am I strong," summed up the effect of the finished work of Christ as nowhere else in all his writings.

What more could he say, in such a wonderful paradoxe of his, "When I am weak then am I strong," summed up the effect of the finished work of Christ as nowhere else in all his writings.

What more could he say, in such a wonderful paradoxe of his, "When I am weak then am I strong," summed up the effect of the finished work of Christ as nowhere else in all his writings.

What more could he say, in such a wonderful paradoxe of his, "When I am weak then am I strong," summed up the effect of the finished work of Christ as nowhere else in all his writings.

What more could he say, in such a wonderful paradoxe of his, "When I am weak then am I strong," summed up the effect of the finished work of Christ as nowhere else in all his writings.

What more could he say, in such a wonderful paradoxe of his, "When I am weak then am I strong," summed up the effect of the finished work of Christ as nowhere else in all his writings.

What more could he say, in such a wonderful paradoxe of his, "When I am weak then am I strong," summed up the effect of the finished work of Christ as nowhere else in all his writings.

What more could he say, in such a wonderful paradoxe of his, "When I am weak then am I strong," summed up the effect of the finished work of Christ as nowhere else in all his writings.

What more could he say, in such a wonderful paradoxe of his, "When I am weak then am I strong," summed up the effect of the finished work of Christ as nowhere else in all his writings.

What more could he say, in such a wonderful paradoxe of his, "When I am weak then am I strong," summed up the effect of the finished work of Christ as nowhere else in all his writings.

What more could he say, in such a wonderful paradoxe of his, "When I am weak then am I strong," summed up the effect of the finished work of Christ as nowhere else in all his writings.

What more could he say, in such a wonderful paradoxe of his, "When I am weak then am I strong," summed up the effect of the finished work of Christ as nowhere else in all his writings.

What more could he say, in such a wonderful paradoxe of his, "When I am weak then am I strong," summed up the effect of the finished work of Christ as nowhere else in all his writings.

What more could he say, in such a wonderful paradoxe of his, "When I am weak then am I strong," summed up the effect of the finished work of Christ as nowhere else in all his writings.

What more could he say, in such a wonderful paradoxe of his, "When I am weak then am I strong," summed up the effect of the finished work of Christ as nowhere else in all his writings.

What more could he say, in such a wonderful paradoxe of his, "When I am weak then am I strong," summed up the effect of the finished work of Christ as nowhere else in all his writings.

What more could he say, in such a wonderful paradoxe of his, "When I am weak then am I strong," summed up the effect of the finished work of Christ as nowhere else in all his writings.

What more could he say, in such a wonderful paradoxe of his, "When I am weak then am I strong," summed up the effect of the finished work of Christ as nowhere else in all his writings.

What more could he say, in such a wonderful paradoxe of his, "When I am weak then am I strong," summed up the effect of the finished work of Christ as nowhere else in all his writings.

What more could he say, in such a wonderful paradoxe of his, "When I am weak then am I strong," summed up the effect of the finished work of Christ as nowhere else in all his writings.

What more could he say, in such a wonderful paradoxe of his, "When I am weak then am I strong," summed up the effect of the finished work of Christ as nowhere else in all his writings.

What more could he say, in such a wonderful paradoxe of his, "When I am weak then am I strong," summed up the effect of the finished work of Christ as nowhere else in all his writings.

What more could he say, in such a wonderful paradoxe of his, "When I am weak then am I strong," summed up the effect of the finished work of Christ as nowhere else in all his writings.

What more could he say, in such a wonderful paradoxe of his, "When I am weak then am I strong," summed up the effect of the finished work of Christ as nowhere else in all his writings.

What more could he say, in such a wonderful paradoxe of his, "When I am weak then am I strong," summed up the effect of the finished work of Christ as nowhere else in all his writings.

What more could he say, in such a wonderful paradoxe of his, "When I am weak then am I strong," summed up the effect of the finished work of Christ as nowhere else in all his writings.

What more could he say, in such a wonderful paradoxe of his, "When I am weak then am I strong," summed up the effect of the finished work of Christ as nowhere else in all his writings.

What more could he say, in such a wonderful paradoxe of his, "When I am weak then am I strong," summed up the effect of the finished work of Christ as nowhere else in all his writings.

What more could he say, in such a wonderful paradoxe of his, "When I am weak then am I strong," summed up the effect of the finished work of Christ as nowhere else in all his writings.

What more could he say, in such a wonderful paradoxe of his, "When I am weak then am I strong," summed up the effect of the finished work of Christ as nowhere else in all his writings.

What more could he say, in such a wonderful paradoxe of his, "When I am weak then am I strong," summed up the effect of the finished work of Christ as nowhere else in all his writings.

What more could he say, in such a wonderful paradoxe of his, "When I am weak then am I strong," summed up the effect of the finished work of Christ as nowhere else in all his writings.

What more could he say, in such a wonderful paradoxe of his, "When I am weak then am I strong," summed up the effect of the finished work of Christ as nowhere else in all his writings.

What more could he say, in such a wonderful paradoxe of his, "When I am weak then am I strong," summed up the effect of the finished work of Christ as nowhere else in all his writings.

What more could he say, in such a wonderful paradoxe of his, "When I am weak then am I strong," summed up the effect of the finished work of Christ as nowhere else in all his writings.

What more could he say, in such a wonderful paradoxe of his, "When I am weak then am I strong," summed up the effect of the finished work of Christ as nowhere else in all his writings.

What more could he say, in such a wonderful paradoxe of his, "When I am weak then am I strong," summed up the effect of the finished work of Christ as nowhere else in all his writings.

What more could he say, in such a wonderful paradoxe of his, "When I am weak then am I strong," summed up the effect of the finished work of Christ as nowhere else in all his writings.

What more could he say, in such a wonderful paradoxe of his, "When I am weak then am I strong," summed up the effect of the finished work of Christ as nowhere else in all his writings.

What more could he say, in such a wonderful paradoxe of his, "When I am weak then am I strong," summed up the effect of the finished work of Christ as nowhere else in all his writings.

What more could he say, in such a wonderful paradoxe of his, "When I am weak then am I strong," summed up the effect of the finished work of Christ as nowhere else in all his writings.

What more could he say, in such a wonderful paradoxe of his, "When I am weak then am I strong," summed up the effect of the finished work of Christ as nowhere else in all his writings.

What more could he say, in such a wonderful paradoxe of his, "When I am weak then am I strong," summed up the effect of the finished work of Christ as nowhere else in all his writings.

What more could he say, in such a wonderful paradoxe of his, "When I am weak then am I strong," summed up the effect of the finished work of Christ as nowhere else in all his writings.

What more could he say, in such a wonderful paradoxe of his, "When I am weak then am I strong," summed up the effect of the finished work of Christ as nowhere else in all his writings.
Absorption in Jesus Heals

Rev. Max Stowe

If Jesus were here now in the flesh before us how simple it would be! We would forget all about means to be healed, and we would lose our trouble and struggle and simple it would become! Healing would just become, - JESUS! (Mark 16:18). This is just what healing is. If we try to make it more complex, we complicate our being healed and thereby prevent it.

The best secret of all in the healing of a soul is this: "Our healing is to be so taken up with the person of Jesus that we forget all about means to be healed." We believe that Jesus Christ is our Life. The law could not do, and the Spirit of God that is in the person of Jesus is the one who will do. All we have to do is to believe and His Spirit will work in our hearts until we confess that He has become our all in all.

We believe that Jesus Christ is not "far beyond the range of possibilities for us," as they say in the world. He has already made provision for our healing, and He becomes our "all in all." (Col. 2:6, 7). We believe we are actually healed as He becomes our very life. "Christ, who is our life," Col. 3:4. "Christ has become superfluous." (Phil. 1:21). "It is no longer I that live, but Christ liveth in me." (Gal. 2:20). He becomes our physical life and heals and keeps us well.

This is not the language of a theoretical argument. It is the language of a practical experience. "Christ, who is our life," Col. 3:3. There is no more faith needed in Christ, no more work, no more waiting, no more "looking unto Jesus." As we "look unto Jesus," we enter into larger measure, and His very life casts out sickness and weakness. Anything else can do it. Don't believe the devil. (John 6:63). The only thing needed is to "look unto Jesus" and to "look unto JESUS." As we "look unto Jesus," we enter into larger measure, and His very life casts out sickness and weakness.

We believe that "Look unto Jesus" heals. As we "Look unto Jesus," we enter into larger measure, and His very life casts out sickness and weakness.
GOD ANSWERS PRAYER

REBUKD SATAN

May I tell you what a wonderful thing Jesus did for me? Last week we were visiting my family. It was a rainy day, and rain-ful I could hardly walk. Then, to make matters worse, Satan tried to make matters worst. I had been healed of Liver trouble by laying on an attack on me. That really put me off my feet. But I rebuked Satan and to my joy the next morning, not only was my stomach as light as ever, but my legs were completely healed. I had no more pain and I am praising God for this.

HEALED OF T.B.

I.R.M., India

You will rejoice with me when I tell you that a woman whom I met in my mission work who attended one of my meetings and was healed out of her chest, then the Lord has delivered us. The prayer of faith is true, for He is able to answer prayer. He still answers prayer. There would be less sickness in the world today if your Father’s “In His Presence,” were read and believed more widely.

PRAYER ANSWERED

Mrs. L.G., Brooklyn, N. Y.

Thank you so much for your kindness in praying for me and your prayers have brought healing to me. Kindly keep on praying for me.

GETTING ALONG FINE

M.K., Madison, Ill.

I sent for your book while on my knees. The arrival of your Herald of Life never fails to bring me joy. I am very grateful to you for this and I am getting along fine and has been attending the meetings here and elsewhere.

WELL FROM THAT HOUR

Mrs. A.H., Deluth, Minn.

I am thankful for the Father’s healing power that healed me from T.B. God really loves me and each one of His Children. Praise His Holy Name. I am thankful to you and to all who prayed for me because it is through your prayers that I was healed. Kindly keep on praying for me.

GOT BETTER AT ONCE

T.H.W., Augusta, Ga.

I thank you for the marvelous healing prayers for me and mine. God has wonderfully answered. The last time I had a stomach ailment, I could not prevent it from suffering: The day I called you, he came to my house in search of prayer and I asked you for prayer. I did, and you prayed for him on the telephone. The pain got better at once and much better now that he can eat anything without pain.

GOD IS HEALING HER

Mrs. J.E.V., Sparrwells Point, Md.

I have a great deal of pain in my feet, which I know God is healing her. I thank you for your prayers.

GOD DID HEAL

Mrs. F.K.S., Stanford, Ill.

Your healing book was put into my hands by a friend. I am sure God saw that I got it, I have read through a radical Cancer operation and the “getting well” process is slow and painful. My son has always been strong but I needed this “God says so, Jesus says so, the Bible says so, thank Him.” I’ve read and re-read the book while on my knees. The pain came out of my feet and disappeared. By the next day, my back pains disappeared, I never knew I was sick but I had been healed. I like to do this and it will be.

EYE WAS HEALED

Mrs. B.S., Garfield, Ark.

In October I wrote asking for prayer for a baby’s eye which was running badly. I am seeing through a radical operation and the eye was healed in about ten days. In August I also wrote asking for prayer for my Father-in-law about which I was very worried, but God surely straightened the way; and the matter was all taken care of with that. In Spring I also wrote asking prayer for my husband who had an operation for an infection in his hip which was broken and his left eye was hurt. By the time I wrote to him and although the sight hasn’t returned, he is well otherwise God surely blessed him.

M.B., Ontario, Canada

The arrival of your “Herald of Life” never fails to bring me renewed hope, faith and inspiration. May I say thank you for sending it to me.

Testimonies from Overseas

D.A., South India

I am very glad to inform you that the Bible I have received has answered your prayers on my behalf. I wrote to you that I was so ill. I was losing weight and wanted to get right with God and was praying for His help. You encouraged me to pray and in about two months, I started reading all your papers and began to pray for myself. Every time I seemed on the brink of Salvation Satan would whisper, “You can not obtain Salvation. You have not sufficient faith.” One day I read your two tracts, and after reading them I was enabled by our loving Savior’s Grace to accept Him as my Lord and Saviour. I understand the full significance of Romans 10:9-10. How wonderful it is to have the Lord Jesus as our Lord. Now I know I have Eternal Life. I am now used to make me try to trust my feelings instead of the unfailing Word of God. How wise he is. Read Ps. 12:6 and knew why God’s word is the lamp that guides me. I have been trusting and leaning on the wisdom of man and it proved to be the wisdom of Satan.

Rev. M.A.E., Nigeria

I am very grateful to you for the most marvellous book “Prayer and Family,” which you sent me. I cannot tell you what great blessings it has brought to our family. I have learned many things that did not know before. The Bible is now a daily necessity in our home and I have become a better preacher and pastor from reading your book. Praise God!

Evang. P.M., South Africa

Greetings in that all embraces. It is the most wonderful book that I have ever received in my life. The blessing I have received while studying from your book, “The Father and His Family,” which you sent me. I am very grateful to you for the wonderful knowledge. How wonderful the word you, please send me.

I have just finished my 37th lesson in your first course. I am deeply grateful to you for them. I have been looking for the Bible for a long time before I found it in a Correspondence Course. I have always known that the Bible is the Word of God and now I am better equipped to study God’s Word and would rather do that than anything else in the world. I could never repay the good they have done for me. May God bless you in your prayer.

E.S., Nigeria

I am very grateful to send this little note to you. Your letters have helped me a lot. I am now a new person. My life is changed and I am happy as a king. Praise be the Name of the Lord!

Evang. S.M., Trinidad, B. W. I.

God bless you one million fold for these nice books you sent. These are some of the greatest books I have ever received in my Christian life. They have showed me my position with God and the way to increase my faith. I am deeply grateful to you. I wish to see the sick healed in my meetings and all the signs following it. I was greatly encouraged and they were healed. Among them. Some of them have promised to write my letters to you. All join in wishing you God’s richest and best blesses. May I express my thanks for the good work, I Cor. 1:58.

WHAT THEY SAY

Rev. H.M.S., Spokane, Wash.

I have just completed the Advanced Bible Correspondence Course. I am now with great joy I send them to you for correction. Please be assured that all the help you have given me in accomplishing this accomplishment and prayer that God will give me the happiness of putting into practice the truths of God’s Word and books received in these powerful lessons.

I have given many of your papers out and hope to hear from some of them. We are greatly interested in the work you are doing. I am praying that you will pray for us. I am trying to put into practice the things we are learning through your books and courses. God bless you, and may we together occupy till He comes.

S.N.I., Nigeria

I cannot express in words all the blessings I have received in your Correspondence Course. It has made me know how I have been redeemed and become a child of God. Since I received the past, the Bible has been a dead letter to me, and you opened my eyes to my Redemption in Christ.

V.M., E. Poosia, Ill.

The blessings I am receiving from your Courses are surely great. Many of your lessons will be led to study this course for it has helped me in so many ways. It has brought me great happiness to have learned your course of God’s love for His Children. I would like others to have this wonderful knowledge. How wonderful the word you, please send me.

I have just finished your 37th lesson in your first course. I am deeply grateful to you for them. I have been looking for the Bible for a long time before I found it in a Correspondence Course. I have always known that the Bible is the Word of God and now I am better equipped to study God’s Word and would rather do that than anything else in the world. I could never repay the good they have done for me. May God bless you in your prayer.

E.S., Nigeria

I am very grateful to send this little note to you. Your letters have helped me a lot. I am now a new person. My life is changed and I am happy as a king. Praise be the Name of the Lord!

P.J.B., Reading, Pa.

Having just finished my last lesson of your Course, “The Bible, the Revelation,” I want to thank you and all who are making these studies possible, for you have given me a great interest in God’s Word. These studies have made me notice the Word of God in a new way and there is love in my heart that my soul sings with joy. My understanding has been greatly increased and the Lord has enabled me. I am very grateful to you for this. God’s Word will never suffice to tell how real God’s love has been made to me through these lessons. May God bless you, and I pray that you will continue with these lessons.

If I, who am in prison, can find peace in the Lord, then, dear brothers and sisters, you who are not in prison, how much more, but truly I know that God shall have victory here for His people and hearers, and why do not you? Praise be to God. Please write to us for prayer.

Rev. J.E.F., Corpus Christi, Tex.

It is needless to try to tell you how much I have received from your books and how your ministry for 20 years, and had been given to me. I am filled with the truth of what I am in Christ until I read your book, “In His Name.” I have seen the things in your book which I have believed for many, but I know without doubt just where I stand with God. Words will never suffice to tell how real God’s love has been made to me through these lessons. May God bless you, and I pray that you will continue with these lessons.

Overseas, Overseas

Dear Mr. Lambert,

I write to you that I was sent from my eyes so that now I can truthfully say that I love the Bible, and have been inspired through many dangers and we are grateful to God for protection and to you for your prayers.

I was very glad to receive your book, “The Blood Covenant.” I believe this to be the greatest little book on the subject. It cleared up some very outstanding difficulties that I have never before been able to understand. Some of these were pertaining to the Communion Table.

A.B., Timber Lake, S. Dak.

Sometime ago I asked you to join me in praying for the safe return of my son that was stationed in Korea. In a most marvelous way those prayers were answered and he returned to us Nov. 4th as a Civilian. He has been blessed through many dangers and we are grateful to God for protection and to you for your prayers.

F.B., Walls Walla, Wash.

Words cannot express the blessings I have received while studying this Course. I started the first lesson in search of knowledge and for a new creation, and finished the last one as though I was leaving a fatherland. The sending of God’s Plan for mankind than I ever expected to find in any book. I can truthfully say that I love every word and page of the lessons, and I do not think I will ever leave them all in my locker for future use.

A year ago my mind and soul were unsatisfied, but as I studied my faith grew and I learned to trust in the promises of God that were so well explained. Today, I am at peace with God for He has given me rest in the things of life that rest in my heart and His light will guide me on down the highway of life to the end.

The Lord has delivered us in everything.

March 1955
Books by E. W. Kenyon

“What Happened”
Frances E. Phalen
Believing is simplified when we know that it means to Act upon the Word. Many questions and problems will go when we know that we can Act upon the Word, and just act upon what God has told us in His Word.

His Word is a Revelation of what has already been prepared for us, and now we are ready to receive and act upon it, it becomes a reality in our lives.

There is an example of this in the life of Abraham.

God had promised that he would make of him a great nation at a time when it was a physical impossibility from the standpoint of human reason. Abraham believed God so firmly that when He commanded him to sacrifice his only son, he obeyed. He couldn’t understand it, but he knew that God couldn’t lie and was fully persuaded that what He had promised He was able to perform.

Abraham believed in his heart and acted accordingly. God did the rest.

“You see that faith co-operated with his good works and his good deeds was faith made complete.” James 2:22. (William’s Trans.)

We have a picture here of Abraham’s acting on the Word. He co-operated with God in his good deeds. In other words, he showed his faith in God by his actions. He believed that God could ask him to slay his son and still keep his promise of obedience and saw him keep His Word.

This action upon the Word is necessary because it is this action, or perfects, or completes, our faith. It brings into completeness or maturity so God is able to honor it. He has already provided a Redemption. Now we do our part by accepting it and acting upon it.

“Just as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without good deeds is dead.” (William’s Trans.)

What are these good deeds? They are our entire life, all that we do, act or think, done in thought, word and deed. Our whole lives must be in agreement with God in this thing that He has set us free to do.

He has provided a Redemption that meets every need of every one of us. We must be co-operating with God and acting upon Him.

Our Confession must always agree with the Word, for we rise or fall to the level of what we believe. God is working through His Word, and when we confess it, we are co-operating with Him and increasing His power in our lives.

Satan works through our thoughts, the senses and our human reason, and when we talk of our sickness and troubles, we are giving Satan a place and increasing his hold over us.

Sin has been put away; Satan has been conquered, and as New Creations we are to reckon ourselves as dead to sin and alive unto God in Christ Jesus. Rom. 6:11.

Make your Confession. Act upon it and God will make it a reality to you.

Psalm 37:4 "Delight yourself in Jehovah and he will give the desires of your heart.”

January - February, 1955

Our Need of the Miraculous
E. W. Kenyon

Why is it that the unbeliever is so fearsome of the Supernatural? The whole history of the Chosen People and of the Church has made up a series of supernatural manifestations of Divine Power.

The Church is founded on a Miracle, its Founder was a Miracle, its Ministry was a Miracle, His tragi death was a Miracle, and His Resurrection was the Miracle of the Ages.

The Birth of the Church was a Miracle, the ministry of the apostles the attending phenomena of Pentecost was a staggering Miracle that upset Judaism. The history of the first generation was a证实ation to the Jewish nation and transformed the Roman Empire.

Every New Birth is a Miracle, every reception of the Holy Spirit is a Miracle, every victory over the Devil and the multiple answers to prayer is a Miracle.

So you see, every Miracle is a Miracle performer, and is a living Miracle in its operations. It is the spontaneous power of God that is the substance of the faith of the Church. Now, why is it that the unbeliever is so fearsome of the Supernatural, why does he want to have his own religion, which is his only son, he obeyed. This is co-operating with God in His Word, and when we confess it, we are co-operating with Him.

There is one thing that belongs to you. God wants you to have it, and He will give it to you if you agree with Him and thank Him for it.

It is a thing that He loves to give us. He desires that we should be happy in our faith and enjoy in the assurance that God will give us all things pertaining to our good.

There is one thing that belongs to you. God wants you to have it, and He will give it to you if you agree with Him and thank Him for it.

It is a thing that He loves to give us. He desires that we should be happy in our faith and enjoy in the assurance that God will give us all things pertaining to our good.