ENTRING HIS PRESENCE

E. W. Kenyon

"We know that believers everywhere are unsuèved back into the fold. Many, even, are praying in a spirit of fear and worry instead of belief. Perhaps because the salvation of some looked to us to be an impossibility. The first Scripture that was given us was Mark 10:27, "With God all things are possible." The next Scripture had occupied our attention sometime before. For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strongholds, casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ." 2 Cor. 10:4, 5. This shows the power of prayer in both spiritual and temporal matters. And we must pray that all this be accomplished. We must pray for the people of God, and we pray that, is that the works of the Lord go on and on. Finally we were given the solid basis for our prayers—the Word of God. We must and we can have confidence to enter into the closest fellowship with God and the Father that the interest in our Bible Correspondence Courses continues to be strong. We must keep up with the demand, especially from the foreign countries. People are coming to be identified with the present of God, as His child. We have the indwelling Presence of God in us. The One in you is God. You have the Father with you, fellowship with Him, His presence is always there. We only dared say it, We have a throne room in our heart where we can meet Him at any time. You have the Father’s words in the Pauline Revelation. Jesus had the Father’s Word in His Incarnation. You can repeat the Father’s words and you will be repeated them in earth walk. It is being in Him. "I am the vine and ye are the branches." This means that we are a part of Him, He is a part of us. There is a spiritual union that Sense Knowledge is unable to describe. It is true that we enjoy a fellowship with Him that is indescribable. This union grows as we live and walk with Him. "And in thy hand is power and might, so that none is able to withstand thee." 2 Chron. 20:5.

"Verily I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven, and whatsoever ye shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven." Math. 18:18.

"There is therefore now no condemnation to them that are in Christ Jesus." Rom. 8:1.

"Cast not away therefore your boldness, which hath great recompence of reward." Heb. 10:35.

NOTES TO THE WORK

Ruth A. Kenyon

We thank you for the generous way you receive this paper, that the "Two Kinds of Knowledge" and "The Word That I" are both translated from the printer. We want to thank all who have waited so long for the "Two Kinds of Knowledge", and we will fill your orders just as soon as the books arrive.

"The Wonderful Name" and "Jesus the Healer" are very low, and will soon be gone. Pray much that the books will come in soon.

The financial burden has been very heavy these past months; the printing bill is very large, and we have not times we might not have discouraged. If the past two months, as we have been going through a time of financial testing. We cover your earliest prayers!

Now the interest in the Father that the interest in our Bible Correspondence Courses continues to be strong. We must keep up with the demand, especially from the foreign countries. People are coming to be identified with the present of God, as His child. We have the indwelling Presence of God in us. The One in you is God. How I Learned to Pray for the Lost

We know that believers everywhere are burdened for unsaved backsliding ones. Many, even, are praying in a spirit of fear and worry instead of belief. Perhaps because the salvation of some looked to us to be an impossibility. The first Scripture that was given us was Mark 10:27, "With God all things are possible." The Authority of His Word

"And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and dwelt among us. " Matt. 24:34 Jesus and earth shall pass away, but my Word shall not pass away. The Word is more enduring than the earth, more enduring than the heavenly bodies. I wonder how the Devil has succeeded in getting us to "try to have faith" in that everlasting Word.

Heb. 11:3 "By faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the Word of God, so that what is seen hath not been made, out of things which appear.

It is a perfect, independent, original creation, and all by the Word of God.

All He did was to say, "Let there be light." And the sun, moon and stars came into being, just by the power of the Word of God.

That is the Word that I am praying to. That is the Word of God. We can ask you to be upon, the creative Word of God.

Heb. 12:3 "Whom He hath hallowed. The angels are present through whom also He made the worlds; who being the brightness of God's glory, and the express image of his substance, and upholding all things by the Word of his power."

It was the Word that brought the worlds into being. It is the Word that brings it from its sleep now. And that is the Word that He is offering to you to lay hold of, to receive and to use.

Psalm 107:20 "He sendseth his Word, and healeth them." The next Scripture--the one that you are conscious of being upon--is Psalm 48:20, where the "Two Kinds of Knowledge" are very low, we have not the time we might not have discouraged. It is the present of God; the present of God in us. The One in you is God. You have the Father with you, fellowship with Him, His presence is always there. We only dared say it, We have a throne room in our heart where we can meet Him at any time. You have the Father’s words in the Pauline Revelation. Jesus had the Father’s Word in His Incarnation. "Cast not away therefore your boldness, which hath great recompence of reward." Heb. 10:35.
PRAYER AND THE WORD

Frances E. Phalen

Prayer and the Word must go together. The Word of God is a foundation on which there will be no answer. Prayer, too, is essential for guidance and direction. Prayer is the key to the fulfillment of that need, but not of their faith in the Word to meet the need.

“Prayer is the expression of our need and of our assurance that the need will be met. It is the confession of the integrity of God’s Word and our faith in Him as a God who cannot lie. It is the assurance, though we would spend more time in the Word and not so much time in prayer, to minimize the need and importance of prayer, but to show how the Word is our life.” Luke 21:19.

“Avoid prayer that does not exist.” Luke 11:28

“All things whatsoever ye pray and ask for, believe that ye receive, and ye shall receive.” Mark 11:24.

“Now, our prayer becomes one of praise, trusting in God, instead of continued asking and perhaps begging, it is continued waiting when the disciples asked Jesus what He was going to do in the evening meetings. They were waiting when the disciples asked Jesus what He was going to do. HEALED INSTANTLY

Z. M., Fort Dodge, Iowa

I am glad to tell you that the competence of this book was reading your paper that I acted and He healed my diabetes, a very severe case of sugar diabetes plus a broken ankle.

I had to use insulin and was on a strict diet. My leg was also in a very heavy cast over my ankle bones and it wouldn't be removed for another month. As I read the last paragraphs, my heart seemed to leap within me and I placed the hands on the cast over my ankle bones and did not pray, but commanded my ankle to be made whole from that moment. Then, I also commanded my pancreas to function immediately. The waves of glory enveloped my entire being and I was healed.

I haven't used a drop of insulin since and I eat whatever I choose. I have been able to run and also hunted up tools I could use and my ankle is determined that God must have all the glory, not the doctors. I am able to do anything I can before that day. All glory to our wonderful Jesus!

HEART ATTACK

Mrs. E. B., Detroit, Mich.

I want to tell you that I asked for prayers some time ago for a lump on my arm, and, praise the Lord, it is now gone. The skin was stretched very big over it, but it is shrinking back to normal. It almost gave up, but when my faith was almost gone, it began to go away.

SISTER RAISED UP

D. S., England

I wrote to you some 18 months ago asking for prayers for my sister who was dangerous ill. We have been praying, and, praise the Lord, was raised up for His Glory!

ANSWERED PRAYER

P. S. E., Nigeria

I am glad to tell you that the Lord has answered your prayer. By the grace of God I have recovered from all the injuries and am now able to work for His Holy Service.

D.A., India

I wish to express my very sincere thanks for the privilege of studying your book "The Bible in the Light of our Redemption". It has been a blessing to me from the very first lesson as I learned of the infinite love of God toward man. I am very grateful for the harvest of the lessons. Truths and inspiration that has come to me from these books has been of great help. I wish every preacher in the state had one of these books. We all need the truths of these books, and it has truly helped me today and I am already uplifted.

A.V.R., England

I wish to thank you for your course of 37 lessons, for through them I have been able to know the depths of my heart and gain a realization of how much I need it. Praise the Lord, I am able to continue with some of your other studies, which I know will be just as enlightening as this one.

Mrs. B. F. H., Ford, Kans.

I took your Course on Redemption several years ago and learned a lot from the lessons. I have been interested in the Christian for nearly 50 years and have attended Church and Sunday School regularly, have also taught the Adult Bible Class for years, but have seen the Revelation of it that made me realize what the riches of my inheritance are. I am able to continue with some of your other studies, which I know must be just as enlightening as this one.

Mrs. W. L., Waller, Tex.

I bought one of your Father's books and words cannot express the blessing I have received from it. As you will see by my order, I am trying to get the message out to others by loaning, selling and giving away the books, when I have had time and haven't the money. I don't think there has ever been a more precious book published in this country. Of course, that doesn't include the Bible, for it is the Book which I carry with me. These books are just a little of the Bread of Life for me. May I have a dozen copies of "In His Presence" for me. For some years I have received the precious books you have sent me. I have appreciated and enjoyed the revelation of it that made me realize what the riches of my inheritance are. I am interested in the Revelation of it that made me realize what the riches of my inheritance are. I am looking forward to the next lesson.

P. F. R., Chicago, III.

Will you please keep sending the precious book of mine that I sent you? I am fulely when I try to express my appreciation for folks like you that labor to send the message of Hope, Truth and the saving grace of our Lord that ever came into the world.

LIVING TESTIMONIES

A Word From Our Students

N. L. F., Moulton, Iowa

Until I took your Bible Course, I never realized how much I had been in my understanding of the Bible. I have received a true understanding of His Way to live a holy life. For 38 years I have been a Christian, but never only half understanding it. May God bless and supply your every need.

C. D., Hampton, Virginia

Enclosed is the last lesson of the Personal Evangelism Course which I completed this Sunday afternoon. I have been slow but so wonderfully sure. The Holy Spirit has surely blessed these lessons and has imparted a burden for those who know not our Saviour-God.

F. S., Gold Coast, Africa

Words fail me to state the benefits I have received from your books. As you will see by my order, I am unable to take any food, but as I am able to read, your Course, through the lessons with the use of your Father's books to me. It is wonderful to me. For some years I have received the precious books you have sent me. I have appreciated and enjoyed the revelation of it that made me realize what the riches of my inheritance are. I am interested in the Revelation of it that made me realize what the riches of my inheritance are. I am looking forward to the next lesson.
The Samaritan Woman
Sarah Lamb

Oh, the wonder and beauty of Jesus!

The hall has never been told Of His tenderness, love and compassion

As He called the lost sheep to the fold.

We read He was tired and weary one day,

Yet a journey He surely must make.

There was a Samaritan woman in sin,

To the well He must go for her sake.

The woman had lived in sin so deep That alone to the well she came, But Jesus knew she was one of the sheep, He had come to the earth to reclaim.

He spoke to her in words true and plain,

As He told her all she had done. But He also spoke of the path she could gain By believing in God's only Son.

His love and compassion amazed her so That she turned in surprise and said, "I am a Samaritan and thou art a Jew, And the one to the other is dead.”

He talked of the living water of Salvation.

How He came to bring Eternal Life To the sinners of every nation.

Oh, the joy that precious soul found!

As she learned to know the Life

She ran and told lost souls around, And at once became a soul winner. She told of the Man who knew all she did, And He knows all you ever did, too.

But you do as the Samaritan woman did, And what He had said for He will do for you.

He will take your sins and cast them away, To remember them against thee no more. And then with the children of God you can say, I have bought and redeemed for ever more.

He took time to talk with His disciples, point out object lessons on the sides of the roads they travelled. Though there was so much to be done. He took time to explain and instruct and teach. He took time to be considerate. His actions were always calm and unhurried. And then He took time for these quiet periods when He went apart from the busy world.

And be not conformed to this world but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.” Romans 12:2.

Therefore let us learn of Him. Let not we be in too much of a hurry. But let us take time to, "Come ye yourselves apart into a desert place, and feed a while.”

Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and He shall exalt you.” Ps. 10:11.
