THE PLACE OF PRAYER

E. W. Kenyon

Let us see the place that prayer holds in the life of Satan, and with the antagonistic laws of nature. Marrow and deadly diseases seem to have a law of their own. The medical world recognizes these laws, but the head of God is not subject to them.

The New Creation is independent of these laws as was the head of the New Creation, our Lord and Master, Jesus Christ.

The breasted of righteousness that the New Creation wears makes Him fearless in the presence of these age-old enemies.

It not only makes him fearless, but it makes him a master. Mark 16:17: "in my name shall they cast out demons." The laborer is receiving its life from demoniacal forces. We break the power of that demon force with the Name of Jesus, and the cancer stops being.

We take the Sword of the Spirit, the double-edged sword, and prove to the sick that 1 Peter 2:24 is absolutely true. "By his stripes we are healed." You slay the sickness with the Word.

We slay the forces back with the Word.

We slay financial difficulties with the Word — Matthew 6:33: "But seek ye first the kingdom of God and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you." Where others can see nothing in their life, in your life, the Word speaks to us in America of the need to pour out your life for others? To be born, for He was to be "the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world." John 1:29

They called his name Jesus, for He was to "save his people from their sins." Mathew 1:23

This glorious incarnation of Christ was a wonderful human history. Here we have God, the Omnipotent God, the Only Begotten Son, that the world, that peace and joy of which the heart of a man can bring him, and the joy of victory, and the peace that passeth understanding, and joy unspeakable will be yours.

Our wish for you at this Christmas season, is that this same joy fill your hearts, that His love will become so real to you, that His joy unspeakable and full of glory will be yours . . . not just today, but all your days.

Behold The Lamb of God!

E. W. Kenyon

When John uttered that world-girdling, age-defying cry: "Behold the Lamb of God who beareth away the sin of the world," he gave us the key-note of success.

Happy is the man who learns to look unto Jesus; who has learned the secret of seeing himself through the eyes of God; who has no fear of his failures; contemplating Jesus instead of his mistakes.

Happy are those who can see Jesus instead of his diseases, who can hear His voice instead of the voice of pain. Happy is the man who has been so trained that in every circumstance he can see God in it.

You can find the Lord in the out of the way places . . . in the unexpected places.

He is there, he is waiting to be seen. Learn to find Him. Where others can see nothing but black clouds on the horizon, we, the Christian, can see the Son of God.

Where the others are beaten down by adversity, we stand unshaken because we have found the Son of God. "They looked unto Him and were radiant." "Their faces shall never be confounded." "There is rest in a look at the Master. There is strength. There is joy and victory. Let us continue to look at Him instead of our environment or circumstances. Let us learn the upward gaze.

Let us look unto Jesus. In the morning, when your mind is black, and you are sleepy, all the busi- ness of the day coming in and looking above them to Jesus. He is there.

At the noon time, when the pressure is so great, look again unto Jesus. At the end of the day, when you are tired and discouraged, look again unto Jesus. He is all your heart can crave or need. He is your help, your helper, your peace and your comfort.

Just look unto Jesus.

THERE IS BORN TO YOU A SAVIOUR

Ruth A. Kenyon

Luke 2:10-14

" Behold, I bring you tidings of great joy which shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord." As we read this precious portion of scripture, we find that joy shall be to all people, but as we look about us, we see on every hand those who do not know the precious Saviour, those to whom the thought of Christmas does not bring joy and peace.

How few indeed these days pause so touchingly, with their need of Christmas. It has become so commercialized and degraded, that we must search for Christmas as we see Christ left out of Christmas. It has become for so many the day of celebration, to give, yes, but to demand of others all the joy of this day.

How this sick old world of ours needs prayer. How it needs the sweetest, unceasing prayers of us all!

As we see the tide of communism rising up to world world, a bloody, Godless tide; as we see country after country going more and more to atheism, to those innocent people slaughtered as we have seen in Hungary in the past few years, who need our prayer for their need for prayer. Only prayer can break the power of this atheism. Only prayer can meet the need.

God gave His Son, His Only Begotten Son, that world might be saved. He loved so much that He was willing to empty Himself; to give up His own frail humanity, to suffer and die for us.

Are you willing to give yourself to prayer? Do you love Him enough to give as He gave . . . to pour out your life for others for Christ? If not, you are not meeting your need at all.

Never before in history has there been a greater need for prayer, more than ever before in history. Christ will be born, for He was to be born, for He knew that this birth would lead to an horrible death. He chose to be born in that poor stable in Bethlehem, so that peace and joy of which the heart of a man can bring him, and the joy of victory, and the peace that passeth understanding, and joy unspeakable and full of glory will be yours . . . not just today, but all your days.

When Christmas comes, as a babe in the manger, born of a humble mother, in a stable where lambs are wont to eat hay, He is born, but He is born to do a wonderful work. He is born, and we can meet the need.

God chose His mother and His father. He chose His father in heaven, for He was to be born, for He knew that this birth would lead to an horrible death. He chose to be born in that poor stable in Bethlehem, so that peace and joy of which the heart of a man can bring him, and the joy of victory, and the peace that passeth understanding, and joy unspeakable and full of glory will be yours . . . not just today, but all your days.

When Christmas comes, as a babe in the manger, born of a humble mother, in a stable where lambs are wont to eat hay, He is born, but He is born to do a wonderful work. He is born, and we can meet the need.

THE LORDSHIP OF JESUS

E. W. Kenyon

Before Jesus was born, Mary visited the mother of John the Baptist. When they met, Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit. She exclaimed: "Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb." Then she said, "And whence is this to me, that the mother of my Lord should come unto me? Before Jesus was born, He had already made her His mother."

In Luke 1:26, we get the answer to this question: "Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, because thou hast believed; for these things shall be accomplished in thee according to that which was spoken by the Lord." What this verse means is that although we cannot understand the 'how' or the 'why', we must believe in the 'who'.

The angels knew that this child who lay in swaddling clothes and in the manger cradle was the Lord, the head of the new race, called the new creation in Christ. After His ministry in which He had proved His Lordship, His authority of God, He died at our atonement for the substitution.

On the third day when women went to the tomb, they saw the stone rolled back and the empty tomb. The angel said, "I know that you seek Jesus who was crucified by the Romans because He is not here; He is risen..." (Matt. 28:5-6). This means that you have the option of staying the way you are, or determining that you want to follow Jesus in His Lordship, and take up your cross and follow Him. If you get the spiritual meaning, it would read like this: "The risen Christ is Lord." Can you see it? Paul, because Christ loved him and gave himself for him, is returning that love. He is a free man; Christ has set him free; but he deliberately takes the place of a love slave. Because he does this, God gives him the power of the Holy of Holies and sees things that he would have longed for him to tell to anyone, but he does give us a glimpse of the glory in Christ Jesus. He has enjoyed what he tells us. "Looking into Jesus, the Author and Finisher of our Faith," or (literally) "Looking into Jesus, literally. Not only into His face, but is to see the place where the Lord, shall be. You are as the Lord of the three worlds, the Lord to whom every knee shall bow. He had been the head of the corner. God had made Him the head. This truth broke the heart of that great crowd that listened to Jesus.

They saw that God had taken that humble, holy Nazarene, and made Him the Lord of the ages. In Romans 10:9-10 (R.V.) God said: "In that day shall the hand of the Father as depicted in the epistles to the Romans, the Ephesians, the Philippians, and the Colossians. The angel's privilege to swing out of the orb in which we have thought and lived, and to see the throne of the Lord, shall be raised from the dead, thou shalt be saved." This is the door into the Church, the Family of God. We have served other Lords, we have served Satan, the world, and self. Now, we put the crown upon the brow of Jesus as we enter this new life. We crown Him as the Lord of our lives. You can understand what this means. Jesus Christ is now unseen, but ever present... the Lord of our lives. This is the genius or the secret of the Church. This is the secret of strength, this is the secret of an utterly independent life. What do we care about the world? What do we care about the circumstances? What do we care about the world, the nations, and the world mind? The Great Eternal Son of God is the Lord of our lives. He reigns over our lives. He is our Sustainer. He is the strength of all enemies. What shall we be afraid? If we sent our Africa and our Israel to be as safe in the heart of Africa as we are in the heart of Seattle or New York. You see, this question of trusting in the Lordship of Jesus is the most vital of all Christian experiences.

When the heart has learned to trust Him as He should be trusted, God takes the whole world and the whole Church. We are the children of God. We are not independent. We need each other and we need the world. The Great Eternal Son of God is the Lord of our lives. He reigns over our lives. He is our Sustainer. He is the strength of all enemies.

When the heart has learned to trust Him as He should be trusted, God takes the whole world and the whole Church. We are the children of God. We are not independent. We need each other and we need the world.

When we have ever made, because He is our Lord, and to take up our cross and follow Him. If you get the spiritual meaning, it would read like this: "The risen Christ is Lord." Can you see it? A Word From Our Students

K.R.W., East London, S. Africa

I pray that you will know how much the Course has meant to me. I am only beginning to understand. I have had a nervous breakdown which I attribute to the Holy Spirit. I have read the first two books, and have not received any help. I have been a Christian for thirty years, and have experienced some deliverance, but not the kind I now desire. I have not been able to work at the Job I like. I have been in the hospital so many times. I have gone through a lot of religion, but not receiving any deliverance. I would appreciate any help you could give me. I would like to know that I am more than a conqueror through Christ. All this is due to the course I am now reading. I pray that you will help me.

L.C., England

It is with a heart full of gratitude that I write to thank you for the wonderful studies. They have been a very great blessing to me and opened my eyes to many spiritual truths which I have not realized before. I had not known the greatness of the work of the Holy Spirit before the wonderful studies. They cost or that Adam's sin was that he did not express. How dark my mind was when I was blind but now I see. I was not a Christian. I was not Born Again and also I was not strong in the Lord because when you prayed for me all your students have written to me and that Satan has no dominion over me. I pray that He will bless your work and every effort made on His behalf.

G.W., Lubbock, Texas

I have enjoyed this course very much. I have a lot of thea and would like to send it to all of them. I have never known the greatness of the work of the Holy Spirit before the course. I have seen the power in that name. I have a Name that is above every Name and I have never seen any studies like these.

Mrs. M.B., Victoria, B.C.

I am sorry to be so long between lessons, but I am already beginning to understand. As my place in Christ and in relation to the Father becomes clearer, I know that I am more alive. It is a deeper joy and a powerful tool in bringing about His work. I pray that you will bless your work and every effort made on His behalf.

R.R.N., Chicago, Illinois

I would like to say a few words concerning this Course. In the past, I have taken many Bible Courses, but not one of them had brought such a new truth to me. The Course does not teach me directly, but it certainly recommends it to those who are not Born Again and also to those who have accepted Christ as Saviour and Lord.

I.W., Canal Zone

I want to thank you for your wonderful lessons, but can't find words to express my feelings. Your Course has brought to me for the first time a light a joy that words cannot express. How dark my mind was once was to Bible knowledge. I was blind but now I see. I was bounded with the chains of sin free. Thank you to your lessons.

Mrs. A.B., Pennsylvania

I thank God for the perfect Redemptive power of the Cross for me and that Satan has no dominion over me. I will bless my life and use me to bless others, and that He will give me the strength to live for Him. I pray that you may in His Light see the straight path and not stumble. I want to live above sin and sickness and glorify Him in my daily life. I have read the two Scriptures that have helped me and I am reading 2 Cor. 5:17 and Rev. 3:20.

Mrs. B.B., Atlanta, Ga.

I have read your book, "The Hidden Man". That makes me realize that the Teacher is after the man and not the words. They have taught and enlightened me on the Scriptures as no preaching or other literature ever has done. I will be 73 in October and I feel as though I had a new lease on life.

I want to express my gratitude for the wonderful light that we have received from the Bible Course on Personal Evangelism. We find that the truths we have received from this study are of great benefit to us. I do not know the Lord's work has so graciously blessed the people who have taught and who can not express. But your lessons have brought me a joy and help that I have never had before. I can not express. But your lessons have brought me a joy and help that I have never had before. It is like being able to put it in my daily living. God has never failed me and I am looking to go deeper in His love and in His word that may be faithful in His service. I pray He will help me in trials and keep me obedient and faithful until He comes.

Dr. F.A.N., Palto Alto, Calif.

I have just finished reading the lessons, "Two Kings of Faith". The book simply astounds me. I praise and thank God for it and for your writing it and for sending it. I thank you from the depths of my heart. The lessons have brought me a joy and help that I have never had before. It is like being able to put it in my daily living. God has never failed me and I am looking to go deeper in His love and in His word that may be faithful in His service. I pray He will help me in trials and keep me obedient and faithful until He comes.

Rev. H.R.S., Turlock, Calif.

We have been learning so much from these lessons and our teacher has said that the lessons for the hours I have spent at His feet have been a blessing. Thank you for allowing me to be able to put it in my daily living. God has never failed me and I am looking to go deeper in His love and in His word that may be faithful in His service. I pray He will help me in trials and keep me obedient and faithful until He comes.

Mrs. L.F., Mishawaka, Ind.

I have completed the course on Redemption and I have found in it many new truths and that it has been a great inspiration to me. It has helped me to understand the word and they are wonderful. They have taught and enlightened me on the Scriptures as no preaching or other literature ever has done. I will be 73 in October and I feel as though I had a new lease on life.

J. and G.M., Chino, Calif.

We thank you from the bottom of our heart for the much needed Light that we have received from the Bible Course on Personal Evangelism. We find that the truths we have received from this study are of great benefit to us. I do not know the Lord's work has so graciously blessed the people who have taught and we know they were given to us so that we could be better for His Glory and His love.

F.S., Milwaukee, Wisc.

Up to the time I studied your lessons, there were many things that I thought I could not put these things into words. Now I can appreciate it. I have never known the greatness of the work of the Holy Spirit before the wonderful studies. They have been a revelation to my soul and now I have seen the power of the Holy Spirit in my daily life. The two Scriptures that were laid down by our Church Fathers. I have been delivered is just out of this world. The lessons have brought me a joy and help that I have never had before. It is like being able to put it in my daily living. God has never failed me and I am looking to go deeper in His love and in His word that may be faithful in His service. I pray He will help me in trials and keep me obedient and faithful until He comes.

I.A.A., Philippine Islands

I wish to say that through your study of the lessons that I have been refreshed in spirit and brought to a clearer understanding of God's will and how to serve Him and to win others. I have been renewed in the spirit. I have been more in the hands of every child. I was blinded by Satan. But now it is a different story. Thanks to your efforts until we have received from this study are of great benefit to us. I do not know the Lord's work has so graciously blessed the people who have taught and also how the Lord has healed my heart. He also agreed to pray for the hours I have spent at His feet have been a blessing. Thank you for allowing me to be able to put it in my daily living. God has never failed me and I am looking to go deeper in His love and in His word that may be faithful in His service. I pray He will help me in trials and keep me obedient and faithful until He comes.

I have received your letter and book. I have found the truth in God's Word and I am learning to go deeper in His love and in His word that may be faithful in His service. I pray He will help me in trials and keep me obedient and faithful until He comes.

R. R. N., St. Vincent, B.W.I.

Many times I tried to become a Christian, but every time I have been to the alter three times and still could not become a Christian. I was blind. Last year a minister hand­ me a tract and the title was "How to Become a Christian". I read the tract and had no effect, so I threw it aside. After I had been reading it again and began to read it, I soon found the real truth of how to become a Christian. I was a drunkard of the worst kind and a slave to it, but since I have found the truth in God's Word there is a real change and Jesus Christ is my Lord and Saviour.

I am so happy for this verse of Scripture, John 1:12, for it brings real blessing to my soul.

D.R., Trinidad, B.W.I.

I am very happy indeed to tell you all of the work you are doing. Since you have been delivering the "Herald of Life" regularly the first thing I do each morning is to read it. I have found the true meaning of the Lord's work has so graciously blessed the people who have taught and we know they were given to us so that we could be better for His Glory and His love.

R. E., Nigeria

It would be a very great need. I would like to inform you that the "Herald of Life" is a blessing and inspiration to me. I have read it and have started to read it. I will try to keep my best to see that it is done.

Rev. and Mrs. B., Japan

I had the wonderful privilege several years ago of having a "living word" of a Wonderful Name of Jesus", placed in my hands. I can say that that experience had a change in my ministry. This has caused a change for me to go deeper in the things of the Lord.

I enjoyed the writings of a man more than that of the late Father. I have received your books and your other books and they have all inspired me to study the Bible as never before. Such fullness, joy and completeness I have never seen before or read about or seen. I am happy for this verse of Scripture, John 1:12, for it brings real blessing to my soul.

Mrs. E.B., South Burnaby, B.C.

I can never tell you how much I have profited by reading your Father's book, "In His Presence". It was at a time of great testing in my life and prayer and praise God we won the victory. It was wonderful to feel the truth passages. I needed to build my faith and to hold me steady.

Rev. Jack Mitchell
"Teach me thy way, O Jehovah and lead me in a path which is clean because of mine enemies." Ps. 27:11

In a believer's life he will have many decisions to make. There will be many turning points at many places through which he will have to make a choice. The Lord's advice is given, but it is not the path in these places. By searching His Word and looking to Him for light and wisdom, he will be kept from stumbling along the way.

We shall pretend we are traveling and notice the road signs the Lord has placed along the way.

"Walk in love as beloved children... Eph. 5:1-2.

He will keep us on this road all the way, for it is the best one to travel on. It is the road of His choosing.

At a turn in the road it says:
"Be not unequally yoked with unbelievers." 2 Cor. 6:14

A believer cannot join with one who is not a true Christian in marriage, in business enterprises or as a close companion. They are on different roads. Do not travel with them. The Lord advises against it.

At another place a warning signal indicates: "Wait for Jehovah.

It means to stop. Do not go any further until the Lord says to go on. While walking, the sign on the side of the road reminds us to be strong and let thy heart take courage. Yea, wait thou for Jehovah. There is nothing ahead that might frighten you. So wait until your heart is steady and you are sure the Lord is with you and then go on. The Psalmist says, "I will fear no evil; for thou art with me."

At another place is a sign that tells the traveler to go slowly, to feel his way along carefully. Don't rush.

"He that believeth shall not be in haste; Is. 28:16.

This right now will. It will soon be gone."

Another says, "Hurry and get this work done. Don't delay. Don't pray or to read the Bible today. Hurry along, hurry along. At this particular point we will wisely follow the Lord's advice and not do anything rash. In fact, we will make this a rule to follow along all the rest of the journey, going on only as fast as the Lord leads us."

Prov. 3:5, "Trust in the Lord with all thy heart and lean not upon thine own understanding, in all thy ways acknowledge him and he will direct thy paths. Be not wise in thine own eyes."

Do not follow the false sign of human reason or of your own knowledge. Always follow the Word of God. He knows the path that is best. Be not enlightened in thine own eyes saying, "I think
