What the Resurrection Means to Us Today

Frances E. Phalen

The Resurrection of Jesus Christ is one of the most authenticated facts of history.

The Early Church never questioned this miracle for as many as 500 saw Him after His Resurrection and Ascension.

When Peter preached his great sermon on the Day of Pentecost, 3000 souls were saved as he told them about it.

The church was persecuted because it believed and preached that Christ had arisen on the third day.

The whole Jewish nation knew for a certainty that He had arisen for the great stir in the city of Jerusalem and the results of Peter's preaching proved it.

They accepted, without a doubt, that the One Who had been taken and slain because He had declared Himself to be the Son of God had now arisen and ascended to His Father.

The Resurrection was a fact.

Now, what does it mean to us today?

It means that in our daily lives we are masters in every situation.

It means that we have been taken from slavery to freedom.

It means that we enjoy victory in place of defeat, strength in place of weakness, health in place of sickness, plenty in place of want and that in all things "we are more than conquerors."

What actually took place when Christ arose from the dead to make this possible?

Satan had been conquered.

"Since then the children are sharers in flesh and blood, he also himself in like manner partook of the same; that through death he might bring to nought him that had the authority of death, that is, the devil." Heb. 2:14.

Satan's dominion over the human race had been broken.

All human suffering is the result of Satan's lordship. Every need whether mental, spiritual, material or physical centers in the lordship of Satan.

Christ came to destroy the works of the devil. "To this end was the Son of God manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil." 1 John 3:8.

His work was substitutionary; it was for us.

Satan's lordship and dominion are broken; he has no legal right to hold any child of God in bondage. "For sin shall not have lordship over you..." Rom. 6:14. Rotherham's Translation.

Just as the Early Church knew that Christ had arisen from the dead, so we know why He arose.

"Who delivered us out of the authority of darkness, and translated us into the kingdom of the Son of his love; in whom we have our redemption, the remission of our trespasses." Col. 1:13.

We are delivered from the authority of darkness.

We have been translated into the Kingdom of the Son of his love where we walk by faith in the Word and enjoy our rights and privileges as a New Creation.

Satan's death-dealing power has been paralyzed and we refuse to accept any of his evil work.

Satan is defeated.

Redemption is a fact.

We know this and take the deliverance and freedom that rightfully belongs to us.

"For freedom did Christ set us free: stand fast therefore, and be not entangled again in a yoke of bondage." Gal. 5:1.

He arose because we had been declared righteous.

"Who was delivered up on account of our offenses, And was raised on account of the declaring us righteous." Rom. 4:25. Rotherham's Translation.

Jesus was delivered up because He was bearing our spiritual death, and He was raised because He had paid the penalty for our sin and we had been declared righteous.

The moment we accept Christ as Saviour, He becomes our righteousness.

"Him who knew no sin he made to be sin on our behalf; that we might become the righteousness of God in Him." 2 Cor. 5:21.

We stand in God's presence as though we had never sinned.

If our fellowship is broken through sin, we simply act upon 1 John 1:9 and the Father forgives us as we confess it to Him.

God can be "faithful and righteous" in doing this for the penalty for our sin has been paid. "And if any man sin, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous: and he is the propitiation for our sins; and not for ours only, but also for the whole world." 1 Jn. 2:1-2.

Satan can lay no charge against us for God has justified us.

"Who shall lay anything to the charge of God's elect? It is God that justifieth; who is he that condemneth? It is Christ Jesus that died, yea rather, that was raised from the dead..." Rom. 8:33, 34.

Righteousness gives us the ability to come into the Father's presence with no sense of sin, guilt or inferiority.

We may enter at any time to make our requests known, and His Ear is ever open to the cries of His children.

It is this knowledge of our righteousness that makes us masters in every situation.

"And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free." John 8:32.

We know that Satan is conquered.

We know that we are the righteousness of God in Christ.

And so we have no fear as we boldly take our place and exercise our rights as New Creations.

"Let us therefore draw near with boldness unto the throne of grace, that we may receive

A New Translation

We are very proud to announce that the "Amplified New Testament" will soon be ready for distribution.

This is a new and unbiased work entirely free of denominational prejudice.

For many years The Lockman Foundation has seen the deep need of the church for a complete translation of the New Testament... one which compares and incorporates the best of the existing translations, and one which is true in every respect to the original Greek.

After five years of exhaustive study and research by dedicated scholars, this volume is at last ready. It is being printed by Zondervan's Publishing House and will soon be ready. It will sell for $3.95 a copy, plus 10c postage.

The Lockman Foundation, which has done all our printing for the past six years, has extended us the privilege of being one of the first to introduce this wonderful new translation.

We know that every pastor and Bible student will want to make this valuable book a part of his library.

For a sample of this outstanding work, The Lockman Foundation will send you a free copy of their little Amplified Gospel of John (taken from the new translation). This Gospel sells for 25c, but they will send you a copy free if you will send them the enclosed card. This offer is for a limited time only to introduce you to this Christ-honoring work. Write today.

mercy, and may find grace to help us in time of need." Heb. 4:16.

He arose as the Head of a New Creation, a new race of people over whom Satan would have no power or authority.

"Wherefore, if any man is in Christ, he is a new creature; the old things are passed away; behold, they are become new." 2 Cor. 5:17.

"And he is the head of the body, the church: who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead..." Col. 1:18.

The power that is at work in us today is according to the power that was at work in Christ when He was raised from the dead.

"Far above all rule, and authority, and power and dominion, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come: and he put all things in subjection under his feet, and gave him to be head over all things to the church, which is his body, the fullness of him that filleth all in all." Eph. 1:21-23.

The Resurrection means the end of defeat and failure in our daily lives.

We take our place as New Creations and the righteousness of Christ with every enemy beneath our feet.

"Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be strong." 1 Cor. 16:13.

"CROSS" RELIGION

E. W. Kenyon

I heard a missionary from South America say that he wanted to buy a little gold cross, and he hunted through all the jewelry shops of a South American city, and couldn't find one without a dead Christ hanging on it. That dead Christ on the cross is a symbol of a religion born of spiritually dead men.

The sinner does not find Christ at the cross, but he finds Christ seated at the right hand of the Father. On the cross he was not a Saviour, He was a substitute. He was made sin on the cross.

When He cried, "It is finished," He meant that He had finished the work He came to do under the First Covenant. He had fulfilled the Abrahamic Covenant. He had fulfilled the blood of atonement that had been sprinkled upon the altars for 1,500 years. The work was finished.

That First Covenant died with Him on the cross. The Israelitish Nation died with Him on the cross. They didn't know it, but they nailed themselves to the cross with Christ. The Covenant, the Priesthood, and the Nation died with Christ.

We were identified with Him on the cross, but there is no salvation in death. "Him who knew no sin, God made to become sin" on that cross.

Did you ever think of the two unanswered prayers in the New Testament; the one in the garden, where He said, "If it be possible, take this cup from Me;" and the other on the cross, "My God, My God, why hast Thou forsaken me?"

Read the 22nd Psalm carefully to see how utterly Jesus was forsaken by the Father on the cross when He was made sin.

There is no salvation in the cross. The salvation is in the seated Christ and the empty tomb.

There are many Christians who will think I have robbed them of their salvation when I tell them of the truth about the cross.

The Catholic Church has no seated Christ, no Saviour at God's right hand. They have simply a dead Christ on the cross. And, the people who tell you today that they are living the cross life, and that they are clinging to the cross, and trusting in the cross, have no resurrected Christ.

I wonder if you know that it is as bad to sing a lie as to preach it? Think of it: "Jesus, keep me near the cross. There's a precious fountain." He carried His blood into the Holy of Holies and procured for us an eternal Redemption. I don't want to be kept near the cross. Why? Why, we are in Christ. We have the life and the nature of the Father in us.

"I am the vine, and ye are the branches." The Vine isn't on the cross. The Vine is in Heaven. For, it is Christ in you, the hope of glory.

Do you know why they preach the cross and talk about the cross? Because they live in the sense realm. The cross is something they can see and feel. They can take hold of the little gold cross that is hanging on a chain at their necks, or is pinned on the lapel of their coats, and they feel very near something. But Christ is not on that gold cross. Christ is seated at the right hand of the Father. He has put sin away. He has conquered Satan. He has risen from the dead. And, during the forty days He went and preached to the souls in Paradise that had been covered by the blood of bulls and goats. He carried them the message of Eternal Life. He emptied Paradise and took them all to Heaven. They are there now.

When He carried His blood into Heaven and the Supreme Court of the Universe accepted it, it was poured out on the Mercy Seat in the presence of the Father, and He sat down. He is there today. His work is finished.

His work began on the cross, but it ended on the throne in the heavenlies.

We have never realized that the cross was the badge of Satan's victory.

I can't understand why Christians make more of the cross than they do of the seated Christ and of their being seated together with Him.

The cross is where my Lord once hung. It is where God put our iniquity on Him, where God made Him to be sin for us, where God forsook Him, where God turned Him over to Satan, where sin triumphed and God ignored His prayer. No angels ministered to Him there. Darkness cast a veil over it. The cross is where Love went the limit. He left His body hanging on the cross. He went to the place where we should have gone, and suffered in our stead until every claim was met. Then He was justified in spirit, made alive in spirit, conquered Satan in Spirit as our substitute. Then He entered into His own body, filled with Immortality, and He arose from the dead.

PRAYER HELPERS

I like to feel that though on earth
We never meet,
Yet we may hold heart-fellowship
At God's dear feet.

I like to feel in all the work
Thou hast to do,
That I, by lifting hands of prayer,
May help Thee, too.

I like to think that in the path
His Love prepares,
Thy steps may sometimes stronger prove
Through secret prayers.

I like to think that when on high
Results we see,
Perchance thou wilt rejoice that I
Thus prayed for thee!

MAN'S CRY FOR REALITY

E. W. Kenyon

Of all the millions of voices that are crying their needs to the great heart of the Father God, not one of them goes unheeded.

For every tongue that cries there is an ear to hear, for every voice that lisps a need, there is a chord to respond.

There is no waste in the realm of nature.

If there is music, there are listening ears. If there is a cry of pain, there is somewhere a balm.

If the lower orders of nature find their needs supplied, every mouth filled and every longing met, I cannot conceive that man, who was God's crown of creation should have yearnings, aspirations, and cries that should go unheeded.

I cannot believe that a single yearning of our inner natures, though too sensitive to be translated into words, will go ignored.

No, the great heart of our infinite Father wants to manifest Himself unto us; He wants to meet the yearnings of our inner lives.

Our souls cry out for reality. The soul is religious by nature. It is trustful. It is unsatisfied with temporal things.

It shows that somewhere, sometime, it was fitted, it was made for another realm than this, that it is but a tenant in this earthly tabernacle, seeking, struggling, moaning to be unclothed from this and to be clothed upon with something different.

What a desire we have to annihilate space, to quench time, to stay the sun, to break our limitations and to leap out of confinement into a liberty that we can feel, but cannot express.

All this indicates that somewhere in the very beginning of things we were created for something higher and better, and vaster than mortals have yet experienced.

We were made to be God's companions as well as man's.

"Oh that we only knew, could understand, could feel, could touch, could apprehend things spiritual," is the cry in millions of souls.

We eat and are satisfied; we love and are satisfied; we touch and are satisfied. Why cannot our souls be satisfied?

Why cannot these vague yearning of the inner man be met?

Why cannot the human soul, that realizes its bondage to sin, know that sin has been put away . . . that it is free, no longer under the tyranny of fear . . . no longer haunted by the dread specter of wasted years, of awful mistakes, of moments of weakness when we have erred grievously?

Is there no remission, no putting away of these even from our memories? Is there no chance for us to have the sense of purity again?

A young man in one of the prisons of New York State, as he sat on the cot in his cell, cried, "Oh, to be pure again, I wish I were clean!"

How the Spirit, locked in the cell of conscious guilt, cries again and again, "I wish I were clean."

Its jailer laughs at its tears, mocks at its sad cries. As a bird that has been captured from the fields beats its wings against its prison bars until it falls helpless to the bottom of the cage, so souls today are being broken and shattered and bruised in the narrow confines of the prison of ignorance of the great heart of love and the purpose of the infinite God.

There IS a reality. There IS a putting away of sins. There IS a purity, transcending the purity of the natural heart.

The souls that have been redeemed by the blood of Jesus of Nazareth have a sense of purity that natural man never dreamed of.

The reason that man seeks religion is because his soul seeks reality, and if religion does not give reality, the soul continues its searching.

We are sick of theories and subtle sophistries that do not satisfy.

The soul does not crave mysticism, it craves reality.

The adversary of our souls has always clothed Christianity and the deeper experiences with a subtle garment of unreality, a vague and meaningless jumble of terms and by-plays upon words, until the heart that would be fed and satisfied turns away, faint, sick and unsatisfied.

But, know this, there is reality in Christianity in spite of modern laxity, greed, worldliness, and self-aggrandizement.

Down beneath it all there is throbbing the heart of the Infinite Father God, there is throbbing the heart of the Man of Galilee.

Back of it there is the spirit of reality, of truth; He whom the Father promised to send to the disciples.

Were I to give you the key to the New Testament teachings in a single sentence, it would be this: God making Himself real to the consciences and spirits of men and women.

"And we will come unto him and will make our abode with him."

"We will manifest Ourselves unto him as we cannot unto the world."

"I will not leave you comfortless . . . I will come unto you."

"But if the spirit of Him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwelleth in you, He that raised up Jesus from the dead shall give life also to your mortal bodies (or your inner life) through His Spirit that dwelleth in you."

God hears the cry of the human soul after reality, so He comes out of the thick darkness of the Old Testament seclusion and manifests Himself in the person of Jesus of Nazareth as the very God-Man.

He was incarnated in the flesh. Jesus assumed the liabilities of the human race; He paid the hideous debt of sin; He suffered in our stead. He was slain, stricken, smitten of God and afflicted.

He arose again from the dead; He satisfied the great demands of the laws of nature and of infinite holiness, in regard to sin, and then sat down in triumph to rest through the ages and contemplate His own finished work.

Friend, My Father God can be as real to you as He was to Jesus.

He can be real to you in your inner life where no human relationship can touch, and no human heart or mind can feel, sympathize or understand.

He can be real to you as a Father . . . real to you in every phase of your life.

We know that it is true.

There is scarcely a human being that has not felt the unfaithfulness of loved ones, but there is One who has never proved unfaithful yet.

The Father can be real to us in the hard places.

In the Name of His Son, He hears His children's prayers . . . whether it be a mother that is pleading for her child's life, a husband pleading for his wife, or the poor man asking for bread or for money for his family.

He is a real Father.

I know this to be a fact. For years I have depended utterly upon Him and He has never failed me.

The Father never allows His children to come to absolute want, but always has a means whereby His own can be fed, sheltered and cared for.

Jesus of Nazareth is real. He is not a spirit, He is a man.

His heart is just as tender as it was when He stood by the side of the tomb where His friend Lazarus lay.

Tears fill those lovely eyes today as they filled them then.

That heart that swelled until it almost leaped from the bosom, feels for us today.

He is the "Same, yesterday, today, and forever."

He is seated at the right hand of the Father to make intercession for the believer. It is His business. He has nothing else to do but to take care of all those who put their trust in Him.

Oh, how secure is that life that rests upon Him.

How quiet the soul that has cut loose from all other helps which are failures, and rests now alone upon the help that cometh from infinite love, strength, and wisdom.

The Holy Spirit is real. Jesus called Him the Spirit of Reality, or the Spirit of Truth.

He comes into the believer's life to make real in him the heart of the Father, and the power and the intercession of the Son.

He comes into the believer's life to abide as the reality from heaven.

When the believer has learned the secret of resting his all upon this indwelling companion, this spirit of reality, how strong and sweet does this life become.

The Holy Spirit can be real to you. He can make the Father real. He can make His promises more sure, more stable and steadfast to you than all the promises that men ever made.

He can make the love of Christ more real to you than the love of any man who ever lived.

He can make the faithfulness of God to stand out and tower above you until the unfaithfulness of men shall no longer fill your heart with pain.

The great mighty Father becomes real.

The Bible becomes the real voice of God to your soul. It speaks to you with no uncertainty. Its promises are yea and amen.

Prayer becomes as real and simple as the conversation of a husband and wife living in perfect harmony.

The Name of Jesus becomes the real power of your life, and in the energy of the Holy Spirit you go to the great Father-God in this Name, whether it be for the healing of a loved one, for the money for the rent or to pay a bill, for special guidance, for the salvation of a loved one, for His blessing on a missionary in a dangerous field, or for the pro-

NEWS FROM RHODESIA

Dear Ruth:

Forgive me for not acknowledging your books. It is most kind indeed of you to send them and scores of people are receiving untold blessing and enlarged vision through studying them.

During our three weeks in Umtali many came to the Lord and the Believers found new life and faith as they saw the power of the resurrected Christ in healing the sick and oppressed. The wife of the Salvation Army Captain was healed of Asthma, and he told me that in the short time we were there he received more from God than during all the years of the past. Many of the flock were healed of longstanding illnesses and afflictions. Hundreds came from every denomination. It was wonderful to see Africans from so many different churches worshipping Christ together simply because they saw His love and power manifested.

I think you will be happy to know that David has been preaching and praying for the sick children in our afternoon meetings. He is now 8. Hundreds of children came to the meetings and we had to do something for them. It would touch you to see David praying about his message and for the children, sometimes weeping as he prayed. He always told me if he had faith in his heart he would pray for the sick, and if he did not have faith, he would not pray.

One day when he was preaching on Job, he said, "Job thought that God put all those things on him, but it was the devil, and the Lord proved it by giving him back everything he had lost and healing him. Many people think that everything happens to them and every sickness comes because God is punishing them, but Jesus did not come to condemn the world. He did not come to kill and make sick. He came to save and heal us."

Many mothers testified that their children were healed in answer to David's prayer. And it was sweet to see the little ones testifying over the mike to their healings.

It has been extremely hot for months now and the children and myself have not been out of this climate for three years now, so we are planning, God willing, to spend a couple of weeks by the sea near Durban, Natal.

Joy is happily settled in Bible School and wrote that no one recognized her! Believe with us that God will manifest Himself to her in a new way while she is there.

God bless you all for your love and gifts and prayers.

NOTES OF PRAISE

CONDITION IS IMPROVED I.C.V., Eureka, California

I wish to report that my little Grandson's condition is much improved. A cold gave him a slight set-back but he has picked up again. He has responded to treatment and we expect he will soon be leaving the hospital and going home to stay.

MANY HEALED

J.A.R., Meadow Lake, Sask.

Greetings in the Lord. You folks have done me so many favors that I hardly remember what the last one was. There are some Indians that have sent in for prayer-cloths and some have been healed. Here is a girl that sent for a prayer-cloth a couple of months ago. She had been sick for a long time and said her chest was hurting her. She said she thought it was T.B. Well, thank God, He touched her body and now she is working for me. Many, also, have been healed since reading your books and studying the lessons.

HEARD THE PHONE RING

Rev. P.D.E.H., Thayer, Kansas

Thanks for your prayers for my complete healing. I heard the phone ring from one room to another without my Optic ear on this morning for which I thank the Holy Ghost and you.

COUGH COMPLETELY STOPPED

Mrs. E.H., Fort Dodge, Kansas

I wrote to you a few weeks back asking for prayer for a severe cold. I had a bad cough with it. Well, the cough was completely stopped within a few days. Praise the Lord!

GOD CERTAINLY ANSWERED

Mrs. P.S.D., Greenville, S. Car.

I requested prayer from you and your staff a year ago for my son. I should have written and thanked you before for God certainly answered.

Mrs. W.F., Vancouver, B. C.

Many a time we have thanked our Heavenly Father for bringing a Kenyon book our way. The "Wonderful Name" especially has been food for our souls and we read it together just before retiring at night, and have done so for several years now. We want to get some of these books out as the Lord opens the way. We feel they will bring many a believer into a new place in Christ and into a place where they will realize their Inheritance in Him and claim it for their daily walk.

M.B., San Diego, California

I have suddenly found a great deal of wisdom in your books which are changing my entire ministry. It is a frightful thing to have only head knowledge which goes no further. For the past seven years, I feel that I have failed my Saviour as a bearer of "Good News." Despondent, guilty and depressed, I resigned from the ministry and have enrolled in San Diego State to get my secondary teacher's credentials. Now, thanks to you as an instrument, I have suddenly realized a joy I never had. I am now confident of the Holy Spirit's leading. God bless you.

Mrs. W.M., Pasco, Washington

You would be delighted at the response I am seeing as I am giving out the books which I am ordering from you. They are, indeed, being used to open blind eyes.

I am going to meet with a group of women, and some husbands, who are finding the Way opening before them, all active church members, yet in different denominations. I will use the books in this group although many of them are already reading them. There is a like group in Walla Walla, all denominations, who meet once a week for prayer and reading of the Word. They, too, are started in these books.

This is given to encourage you. Our Lord is moving mightily and soon there will be a group schooled and trained for that end-time work. I see it so very plain. It is more in evidence each day I walk with Him. I thought this would encourage you.

Mrs. G.E., Mason City, Iowa

I received the "Herald of Life" and surely enjoyed every article. How Brother Kenyon's messages thrill my soul. Truly, he was God's true servant and these wonderful truths are sent from God to bless the world. We have received more from your father's books and sermons than from anything else we have ever studied. I have always been preached condemnation until I felt like a sinner all the time. I only wish our pastor would preach positive sermons like your father taught us. I loved the article on prayer.

Mrs. R.P., Alcoa, Tenn.

I want to thank you for the "Herald of Life." It means much to me. I read them over and over again and receive a blessing each time. God only knows what your paper and books have meant to me. They have meant the difference between a life of victory and a life of defeat. I have learned so much from them and thank the Father for victory through His Name.

Mrs. M. M., Los Angeles, Calif.

I must tell you how much good the reading of the book, "Jesus the Healer," has done for me. I had gone to first one doctor and then another and also tried, by faith, for healing by attending healing services, etc., but I did not seem to keep my healing until one day I picked up a book written by your Father and saw the reason. Thank God, for a man so wonderfully inspired. After reading this book, I knew how to get my healing and how to keep it. May God bless you in your work.

J.R.G., Neon, Kentucky

Words cannot express my appreciation for the wonderful Kenyon books. They have all been a blessing to me. "The Hidden Man" is the one that has really brought a revelation to me. I have purposed in my heart to act on the Word daily and to make a positive confession. I absolutely refuse to make a negative confession. I shall also use these books in my church so that my people may also learn their rights and privileges as a child of the Father. God bless you all.

Notes From Our Students

T. E., Wichita, Kan.

I am sending in my last lesson of the Course in Redemption and I think it has been a wonderful study. I have been greatly benefited by it. My faith has increased, and the Bible has become a new book to me. I wouldn't have missed taking it for anything, and I do thank you for making it possible. My aim is to make good use of the knowledge in teaching it to others.

E.B., Canal Zone

I give thanks to God for caring for me and also for those who have helped me to gain a better knowledge of His grace and love. I always knew that there was a God and always wanted to know about Him. This opportunity came when I began to study your Course. I have completed two of your Courses and they have taught me what the scholastic world could never teach. I know now why little children are tormented by disease and why the world is full of sickness and confusion. I recommend this Course to everyone.

G.B., Los Angeles, California

Through studying your Correspondence course and reading your books, the Holy Spirit has led us into a knowledge of our rights and privileges in Christ. We have taken our place in Him and have learned how to use the Name of Jesus to set humanity free. We have a prayer book of names and come into the presence of God daily to thank Him for their deliverance. I have really learned what it means to meet our Father God on legal grounds through His Word. It's wonderful to know our prayers have been heard and answered and to rest on His Word. I only wish I had known these things sooner. May God forever bless you.

G.R.H., Edmonton, Alta.

I appreciate these lessons and will try to finish them as soon as possible. I have studied a number of Correspondence courses which were very good, but I feel this one is a great deal deeper than the others and I want to digest it as well as possible. I find the contents of your father's books thoroughly challenging, too, for they exercise us in places where Christianity has long been slumbering.

Evang. O.M.H., Columbus, Ohio

Words are inadequate to express what this course has meant to me. The Light I have received has been wonderful. Just a short time ago, God filled me with the Holy Spirit and gave me a positive testimony along these lines, but I have never been able to put my convictions into Words. These lessons have made these revelations real to me and I am able to confess what I am in Christ now. Oh, the joy of knowing that we are His righteousness. I do thank you for the sweet fellowship you have shown to me and that it was possible for me to take these lessons. May God richly bless you.

Testimonies From Across The Sea

T.O., England

It is with great pleasure that I have just finished the study of Redemption. I am 74 years of age and have been in church life for 52 years, but by this study I have learned much I never knew. It was a blessing to learn of our legal rights in Christ, our privileges in Him, how to rightly use His Name, our identification with Him and the difference between Sense Knowledge and Revelation Knowledge. I am a new man in spirit, soul and body now and would urge everyone to study this course.

J.A.H., Sierra Leone, W. Africa

It is with my deepest joy and appreciation that I extend my sincere thanks for the knowledge imparted to me through your courses. Words cannot express my heartfelt gratitude for the books, also. A light has been thrown on me which I can truthfully say has reflected on those about me to the extent that one of the churches has asked me to preach and has made me an Agent of the church. Since I started as an Agent, I have won three converts. This is what they say, "I am going to hear the Word of God from our Brother Haffner." Thanks be to God. Had it not been for you I would not have achieved such success.

P.J.W., West Australia

Once more I write with a note of thanksgiving for all I have learned from your Correspondence course. The Holy Spirit continues to guide me into all truth as I study the Word and realize further what God has done for me. I do thank you for your cooperation and I am praying that God will continue to bless and prosper your work for Him.

E.N.O., Nigeria

I have just completed your Bible course and words cannot adequately tell how much it has meant to me. I had been searching for a Bible study for quite a while and the Lord was faithful in leading me to yours. I have read the Bible for years but yet I was ignorant of much that I should have known. I thank you dear Saints for making this possible.

S.U.J.K., South Africa

Please, allow me to thank you once more for your lessons. I went through them all, or rather they went through me, and I was a changed man. The Word became a reality to me and I really thank God for them.

May God bless you and the work you are doing for Him. Always remember that you have friends here in Zululand who are praying for you. We love the Lord and we love you and the work you are doing.

J. C. T., South Africa

I want to thank you first of all for sending me this faith building paper called "Herald of Life." My, it is grand. I give them to my congregation and they are snapped up. I have read most of your books and I have found them to be revolutionary. They have changed my entire ministry, and I feel there is more dynamo in my ministry than ever before. They are inspired of God for our days of doubt and wavering faith. I feel that Bro. Kenyon has been raised up for our day, that he has given to the Church a new revelation and light on old truths.

D. E., Nigeria

My heart is filled with joy in what the Lord can do. This God is a God who does wonders. I was a drinker and fornicator of the worst type and I did everything possible to stop. But as soon as I read the Living Word in your "Herald of Life" my mind was renewed and my life changed. Praise His wonderful Name.

A. V. A., Philippine Islands

You have asked me what this Course has meant to me, but words cannot express what I want to say. They fail to express the feelings that surge through my being now that I have finished the Course. This is the Course that will revolutionize the world. Every human being should take this Course, whether a sinner or a believer. Every turn of the page from the first to the last is loaded with spiritual dynamite. The truths expounded in these lessons are unknown in the Theological seminaries, and yet it is being offered free to all. I have met many fellow ministers who have graduated from Seminaries and Bible Schools and yet were ignorant of the truths contained in the first lesson. This Course is worth more than a four-year Bible study in a Bible School. It is unexcelled and unsurpassed.

I had been a Christian many years before I took this course, but I did not know that I was the righteousness of God or possessed the wisdom of God, or of the rights and privileges that were mine as a New Creation. I have seen miraculous answers to prayer, multitudes healed who were pronounced incurable by the doctor. All this I attribute to my learning how to use my rights and privileges in Christ.

W.A.T., Nigeria

By studying your lessons, my eyes have been opened to know about the New Creation and my Redemption from the Word of God. I have also learned that there are Two Kinds of Knowledge and I strongly recommend this Course to any hungry soul who desires to know the deep things of God.

I.G.D., South Africa

I wish to thank you for your kind letter and for the Course on Redemption. Believe me when I say that God's Word has become even more precious since I first came in contact with your Society. A new vista of blessing and sweet fellowship has opened before me and I do praise my dear Lord for the resultant revelation of Himself in the Word. God bless you dear folks in increasing measure in 1958.

RECKON

J. S. Norvell

"Knowing this, that our old man was crucified with Him." Rom. 6:6. You will find in the revised version that all the Greek tenses are put in their right place, and this verse was written in the past perfect tense of the Greek. It is not that I am now crucified, but "Knowing this that our old man was crucified with Him." I am no longer a sinner, and I am no longer in bondage to it.

Rom. 6:7, "For he that hath died," not "that is dead," but "He that hath died is freed from sin."

Did you die with Christ? What power has hell over you? What power has the righteous law of God over you? None, when you step into Christ.

"For he that hath died," not "he that is dying." God wants you to believe what He says. If we died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with Him. He has brought me out of death, and I am alive in Christ forever more. My death, and my resurrection are complete in Jesus Christ. Now, I am "alive unto God in Christ Jesus" not through him. In the Greek, it is "in Him." God put me to death in Christ Jesus, and made me alive in Him. This took sick headache and rheumatism out of my body, and all the other devilish things that I had been carrying around for years as a professed child of God. God did all this because He loved us. Because that is His nature. The whole thing is of grace. God put you to death in Christ. God put Christ to death and made Him sin, and made the iniquity of us all to meet in Him. That put every man in Christ.

You were in Adam and in Adam all died. He was the first Adam. Now God put all men in Christ and put Him on the Cross, and let Him go down to Hell to conquer it, and when He was there I was there with Him. He took my sins with Him, but when He came up, He brought me up with Him out of death.

Jesus tasted death for every man. He went out into the nethermost regions for a lost soul. God wants you to believe what He says. To reckon. That is, believe.

Rom. 5:8-11. "But God commendeth His love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Much more then, being now justified by His blood, we shall be saved from wrath in Him." You have no salvation except in Christ. For if when we were enemies we were reconciled to God by the death of His Son, much more being reconciled, we shall be saved by His life." God said that, didn't

He? You believe it? That is reckoning it.

Rom. 8:12-14. "So then, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh..." I don't owe a thing to the flesh. I don't have to look after it. I don't have to obey it. If I eat something that the old laws of the world would say would hurt me, I just say, "This is your body, Lord, look after it." He has to look after me and my body. Commit it to Him and reckon it so. I have found out that what God says is so.

The devil will say to you, I will put rheumatism and cancer upon you and you cannot help yourself." But when I have lost my body (If Christ be in you the body is dead) I just say to him, "You cannot put disease upon me, or a carbuncle on a dead body." I am dead. You can cure rheumatism in five minutes. You tell the devil that this body is dead, and you have no life but Christ. The devil will go, he cannot stay where Christ is.

Rom. 8:13, "For if ye live after the flesh ye shall die, but if ye through the spirit do mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live."

What is alive is the spirit, the New Creation. If by the spirit, the New Creation, ye put to death the deeds of the body, ye shall live. When I saw this truth, I snapped it up. God wants you to take your place of authority, for He has given you dominion over all the earth, and your body is part of the earth.

We enter into our inheritance by believing. Just come to Him boldly and say, "My Father, I want that." He did all this for us in Christ.

Faith is always in the unseen. "Faith is the substance of things hoped for." The substance of a thing is the thing itself.

I am glad that Jesus Christ has wrought this marvellous work of salvation and redemption, and we can just count it so. That is all I have to do.

Now that I am in Christ and the body is dead because of sin, I can just say to the body, "Just hurt if you want to, for you can't hurt me, for I am in Christ Jesus." Friends, if you will just count it dead, it is dead.

The Printed Page Is a Missionary

The gospel in print is a "missionary." It never flinches nor shows cowardice. It is never tempted to compromise. It never tires, never grows discouraged.

It travels cheaply and requires no hired hall. It works while others sleep. It never loses its temper. It continues to minister long after the present generation has passed on.

The gospel in print is effective. It gains entrance to both the lowly hut and the lofty palace.

It speaks to a man at the right time, only when he is reading it. It sticks to what it says and never answers back.

It reaches those who might otherwise never be reached. It carries the only authoritative answers. It points the way to eternal life through Jesus Christ.

The gospel in print is far-reaching. Through reading a tract, Russell H. Conwell was led to Christ.

A pamphlet written by Martin Luther fell into the hands of John Bunyan, and by this means he was converted. "Pilgrim's

News From The Philippines

Dear Sister Ruth:

"In my name shall they rejoice all the day; and in thy righteousness shall they be exalted." Ps. 89:16.

Jan. 11, we began our miracle revival campaign at the plaza of Ordanita town. Thousands of people attended. They brought the sick people and we had a wonderful service. Many people raised their hands for salvation. After the service we prayed for the sick. Boys, girls and young men and old men and women lined up for prayer. Many were healed instantly and some gradually. They glorified God as they confessed their sins.

Jan. 12, we had increased numbers and prayed for the sick again. I commanded the evil spirits to leave and they would leave and the people recover just as Jesus had done. "In my name shall ye cast out demons." Hundreds of people were healed through the prayer of faith.

Jan. 13, This was the last of our services in the plaza. Thousands attended and many were healed. When the Philippines hear of miracles, they want to be healed, but without salvation, but God wants every one to be saved and then healed.

Jan. 15, I was permitted to preach the Gospel on the street corner near the plaza. We had a wonderful service. There were hundreds of people of all ages. They accepted Christ as their personal Saviour. Praise God! This was the first time that the town of Ordanita had had a revival since I came from the States. I thank God because He is still using me in His vineyard.

Jan. 16, I began to go house to house to visit the new converts. I was requested to pray for a lady who had been a paralytic for a year. Her parents were not in the house. They were out planting tobacco. So we prayed in Jesus' Name and she stood up and walked. Glory to God! They brought the deaf and after I prayed they could hear the tic tic of my watch. Glory to God! What a wonderful miracle.

Our Gen. Supt. tried to stop us from praying for the sick, but I can't stop this gift from God. We can stop the rivers from flowing but we cannot stop the power of the Holy Spirit.

Please pray for us that God will continue to bless my work. Also pray for our new church building that will be built on the 25th of March of this year. Continue to pray for our street meetings that God will save many souls for His kingdom.

May God bless you all for the work you are doing for His glory.

Progress" came from his pen, and through that excellent work thousands were saved.

This "missionary" . . . the gospel in print . . . should have the prayerful support of every Christian. Those who make it possible become Missionaries of the Printed Page.
