true, these are trying days. It is always so in the presence of our Lord’s will power, which is not always seen in the dark. Each day brings new trials. The storms of life, full of fear, the news broadcasts are full of riots, uprisings, and conflict on every front.

On this troubled sea of life, how blessed it is to know that the Everlasting Arms are underfoot. How blessed it is to rest in the consciousness that He is protecting you, and that the very strength of our lives!

The waves may toss, but our sail shall always rest on the security of His love and care.

Satan may buffet us on every side, but he cannot break us, for greater is He that is in us than that which is in the world!” Praise Him Holy Name.

The past months have been very trying financially, but we have been able to carry on. We covet your earnest prayers, knowing that your financial support is a part of the giving of the Father & His Family. There is no need to post a financial report, but there are several other books that will soon be gone.

The Lord has promised us that the lessons continue to increase. It is only as you fellowship with us through the pages that we present to you that we are able to carry on this and all the other phases of our ministry. The calls from overseas for literature continue to increase.

Then you will know, you, I have no backer, this is just a work that we can carry on from our home. The Father has graciously provided the means and time. We know that this is the time of testing and we are very thankful to claim this for the Father to give us faith in Him.

The disciples say to Jesus, “If you’re the Son of God, then show us His power.” But after the day of Pentecost, when they had been born again of the Father, they were able to carry on this and all the other phases of our ministry. The calls from overseas for literature continue to increase.

MAN, A THREEFOLD BEING

E. W. Kenyon

Man is an eternal being made in the image and likeness of God. Man is a spirit. God is a spirit. This is the reason that God can exist without a body.

God does not reveal Himself through our reasoning faculties, but by direct intuition in the heart. If man were not a spirit, he could not become a partaker of God's nature and become God's child. He is a spirit, and in the same clew of truth and love as God, it is possible that man can become a partaker of the divine nature. Man's spirit is eternal.

When Jesus was born, He had a body like the first Adam; death had no dominion over it because He was immortal. In John 10:18 He says, "No one taketh it away from me, but I lay it down, I have power to take it again." No one could take away His life. He alone could lay it down, and authority to take it up.

Adam's body was a purely human body, Eternally powerful in relation to the soul, and so it never became aged, decrepit, or diseased. Jesus had the same kind of body, because He was conceived according to the natural laws of generation.

Joseph was the earthly father. Had Joseph been Jesus' father, He would have been mortal as we are, and subject to Satan. You see, His father "mortal" really means subject to Satan and subject to death and disease. When Jesus went on the cross, God made Him to become sin for us, that His body became mortal and subject to death. Up to that time, no one could kill Him. He died, and when He arose again, His body became immortal.

Jesus passed through three stages: Adam passed through two. When Jesus comes back, Adam will be resurrected, then His body will also receive immortality. Our passage through death will be far different.

-- "THE POWER OF WORDS" E. W. Kenyon

Few of us have ever realized the power of the spoken word. The words you speak or do say, filled with enduring life so that from generation to generation it will be a living message.

The Bible is a sample of that living message.

But the spoken word can be filled with power that will sway a nation, drive it to war or peace. The power of words is tremendous. Everyone should appreciate the tremendous power of the spoken word.

Words filled with love are remembered with thrill of joy.

Words filled with hatred burn like a bonfire. Bitter, biting words have a sting and a poison that lasts for hours, sometimes years.

The salesman who knows how to fill his words with persuasion, honesty and power is the salesman who wins.

The preacher who knows how to fill his words with power with love, with hope, with faith, wins.

Dead words in the pulpit never get across no man's land, that is the gap between the pulpit and the pew. It is living words that travel..." "I Can Do It!"

Words are the greatest asset a man has. They are the tools you use to make your place in the world with words. You can destroy yourself with words.

You are wanted or unwanted according to your words. If your words are deceitful and dishonest, they will destroy you.

If you fill them with love, they will come back as gentle tender things.

Learn to use your words. Make words give you salary and dividends and a life of real adventure. "I Can Do It!"

God has given driving power to every human being to accomplish things worth while in life.

The man who never feels that there is one that can be overwhelming and that could be a victory.

Never talk failure. Never talk about your enemies. Talk about your friends. Never be negative. Always be positive. Negative lives are failures before they start. The positive ones win.

You can be a part of your education, as a means for defense for the next battle.

Never think constructively and talk constructively.

Learn to say, "I can do it. You can do it. You are the victor."

The conquering spirit is the spirit that is a winner.

You speak of that man who is trying and you know that no one has a strong will. He simply will not admit that he can be whipped.

Don't allow your ears to hear your lips talk failure.

Your ears accustomed to hearing words, conquer words.

"Forever, O Jehovah, Thy seat is settled in heaven." Ps. 119:9.

MY JESUS

Mildred Newman

"His life is now my life..." "His peace is mine too..." "His love is mine too..." And will always be mine through..." His body it is Holy. So mine is Holy too. His faithfulness is very precious for my life. He washed anew. His tree is now my tree. For I am a branch that hath been grafted in. Now his growth will be my growth. For then am I now joined. His strength is now my strength, for a branch depends on the tree. Now my heart is rejoicing, for the New Life He gave to me..."

"My soul waits in silence for God, only from him cometh my salvation." Ps. 62:1.

"Trust in Him at all times, ye people, Pour out your heart before him." Ps. 62:8.

I am very happy to tell you that my leg is much better. I can now walk longer distances. I have been out in the car with my daughter and have been in stores a number of times. I know it is better because of your faithful prayers for me. When I wrote the last letter I just reached you when the trouble was gone. Hallelujah!

GOD UNDOCKED
M. F., Tacoma, Wash.
Thank you for praying for my daughter in the hospital and it is completely healed.

I FEEL FINE
Mrs. J. G., Athens, Tenn.
I should have written you before this to thank you for your prayers. After I wrote you last summer you were very much in my mind concerning my rheumatism and gall bladder pain. I have taken your medicine and I feel fine. I certainly am grateful to you and do praise the Lord for His love and goodness to me.

SO MUCH BETTER
Mrs. L. D., St. Petersburg, Florida
I believe God is answering prayer for my body. I know He has healed my heart. I have been very patient and very nervous but, praise God, I am so much better and will be able to go out and lead many to our dear Lord.

J. & G. M., Chino, California
Do you remember Mr. S. C. in this letter? He was another to whom I first sent some Kenyon books and tracts. He loaned the books to others and soon there were others who were writing asking for books and literature also. Finally they formed a group and started preaching in different churches in the area. I feel for them because they have a wonderful pastor who is helping them. They have a wonderful church and I pray God will bless them.

NOTES FROM OUR STUDENTS
Mrs. J. A. R., Walla Walla, Wash.
I thank you so much for the first lesson of the correspondence course. I was much clearer understanding of the Bible teaching. I love the Holy Living Word. I feel much inspired and I am a blessing to hungry hearts.

Mrs. H. C. K., Gig Harbor, Wash.
Thanks for sending me the "Herald of Life." I have had such a cold with infection in my right ear. Last Sunday, when I was reading in the paper, I read this on the first page by Ruth Kenyon, "I am what He says I am." And with a song in my heart and in my mind about victory, I said, "I now claim it in Jesus' Name." I am getting better every day. All praise to the Father.

Mrs. W. G., Saskatoon, Sask.
I'm so thankful to God for His great mercies and answered prayers. I know that He never fails, I want you to know that God did answer your prayers. He helped you and I thank Him for it. I don't know what I'd do without Him to lean on. We are now living in a house He gave us in answer to prayer. Now I'm thanking Him for every step in this house, for it, and also finished it. Thank you and may God continue to bless you and your work.

E. B., Portland, Me.
Again and again I thank God for your interest and prayers and for taking part in these publications and literature. I shall continue to pray for Lord took him. Let us just share with you of the great blessing which my neighbor received to day after the mailman delivered the "Herald of Life." She was so despondent and sick. I encouraged her to have religious friends who had been saved. She became interested in hearing the Word and she has now joined the church. She has received a Bible and the Holy Spirit gave me His official approval on them.

G. M., Lake Charles, La.
Words cannot express the great blessing which I received from these Bible courses. I am not able to reward you with anything; I should have much greater rewards waiting for you and your workers in the world to come.

J. B., St. Louis, Mo.
As I send in the last lesson to this course, and thinking of how it was when I first began, I am thankful that I could never finish a lesson. It took me some time to get started. Now, I am sorry that it is over, for through this study I have found Jesus sweeter than ever before and I have been able to break habits which before I could not break. I praise Him for it. I am keeping the lesson sheets so that when my boys are old enough though they may study them, too.

L. P., Cadillac, Michigan
This Bible course was a God-send to me. I was saved two years ago in a revival here in Cadillac. Since then I have bought one of your books into every home. For a while, I liked it even more than the Bible. I decided to get other books and trunks and how the Word and my hand and I always refer others to your literature.

B. B. B., Fairbanks, Calif.
People are taking kindly to the Kenyon books. There is much to be desired in human life that they supply, and they are having a wide circulation.

I put on phosphorous the whole family was doing well." The "Shield of faith" and told the enemy "by His stripes I am healed and the whole family is healed." The "Shield of faith" and told the enemy "by His stripes I am healed and the whole family is healed." I am what He says I am and I claim I am a winner. Enclosed you will find the answers to my lessons. They are different and more alive than the "cassette" type of religious study. They get somewhere in the heart and stay around. I thank you for them.

B. K., Okaloa, Hawaii
I find these lessons a real blessing. My understanding of the Old Testament types and shadows of our Redemption through Christ is much enlightened through these studies. I feel that I am getting a much better understanding of the Word of God and am so glad that these studies are available. For many years, I have longed to attend a Bible School in the main line of the Bible and through these lessons I have been able to study the plans and purposes of God through study in His Word, but for years I have been hindered as a result of many circumstances. But since starting these lessons I feel that God has answered the desire of my heart and made this dream come true.

THEY HAVE BEEN BLESSED
Mrs. G. R., Kamloops, B. C.
I sincerely mean what I say when I say that words fail to express the precious help I have received from the Lord as I have entered into the truth as set forth in your Father's books. The "Hidden Man of Faith" and the Bible of the Lord have been of the greatest inspiration and help to me. I have been thoroughly blessed. I want my Bible and the Lord's help been of the greatest help to me. I want my Bible and the Lord's help.

Mrs. K. C., Lathbridge, Alba.
I am reading the book, "In His Presence," and I can truthfully say that I have been blessed. I have the book of words (outside of the Bible) that I have found the books and literature which have brought out truth and knowledge to me that I never dreamed possible.

Rev. N. G. C., Newport, Oregon
My, how this glorious message which God gave to your father has brought forth a new order of things in the religious world. Many have been inspired and called out to fuller ministry for the Lord, knowing that God has another work for them and that He will do that which He saith in His Word. Your father always wanted to live to see the day when his lessons would be put into practice. He knew they were a blessing and if they had been done better. I wonder if He doesn't know about it. We know He is still with us, won't He?

H. K. M., Greensville, S. C.
Let me take this opportunity of expressing my appreciation for the book that I received in the late Dr. Kenyon which have thrilled my soul over and over again. As a minister, I believe that every Christian who desires to go deeper in God should read these books.

FAYRIS E. PHALEN
The most important phase of the Christian’s life is the Renewing of the Mind. It enables him to enjoy his privileges as a child of God and to live pleasingly to the Father. It is the Kingdom of Christ. “Have this mind in you which was also in Christ Jesus” — Phil. 2:5.

The Apostle Paul mentions this great truth in Rom. 12, and he states, “Be not conformed to this world, but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is the good and acceptable and perfect will of God.”

We shall develop this subject by using these four aspects.

Be Not Fashioned According to This World

The world-system is evil because it is the development of Satan to destroy the knowledge and worship of God and His Will in the life of man. It is founded on love of darkness and should have no fascination for the Christian who seeks to know and enjoy the will of God in his life.

Be Ye Transformed

The Christian is made daily growth in Grace. “But grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ” — 2 Pet. 3:18. The one who has just entered God’s Family is a babe in Christ. Day by day he grows and matures, “unto a full-grown man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ.” Eph. 4:13. When he says, or does, what is unseemly, it is not because he has not been Born Again, but because he is still in the baptismal state. He hasn’t grown and developed; he hasn’t been transformed. Many Christians make rapid progress in their spiritual lives, while others grow very slowly. Read 1 Cor. 3:1-3.

One is Born Again by accepting Christ as Saviour and confessing Him as Lord of his life. He is made a New Creation in Christ Jesus, (2 Cor. 5:17) and receives the nature and Life of God in his spirit. 2 Pet. 1:4. The old nature, the Child, is not strewed and a new nature, the New Man, takes its place. This transpires the moment he places his faith in Christ and is all the work of God. “For by grace are ye saved through faith and that not of yourselves, it is the gift of God.” Eph. 2:8-9.

He has a Legal standing with God now as a New Creation, but it is necessary that this fact be made Vital in his daily experience before the world.

“That ye put away, as concerning your former manner of life, the old man, that waxes corrupt after the lusts of deceit; and put on the new man, that after God hath been created in righteousness and holiness of truth.” Eph. 4:22 and 24.

In these verses, he is told to “put away the old man” and “put on the new man.”

In his daily life, the old man is a gradual putting away of the old nature of human weakness and defeat and the putting on of the new nature of the ability and wisdom of God. There is a gradual transformation of the likeness and image of Christ.

But we all, with unveiled face beholding as in a mirror, the glory of the Lord, are transformed into the same image to glory, even as from the Lord the spirit.” 2 Cor. 3:18.

Paul has reference to this in Gal. 2:29, “I have been crucified with Christ; and it is no longer I that live, but Christ liveth in me: and that life which I now live in the flesh I live by faith, the faith which is in the son of God, who loved me, and gave himself up for me.”

His life of dependence upon human reason and ability becomes one of dependence upon God and His ability and he enjoys what is rightfully his as a New Creation. Christ he walks by faith, and not by sight.

We go on to the third point to see how this transformation takes place.

By the Renewing of your Mind

Man was created in the image of God. This means he was created with a spiritual being. This was necessary in order that he might partake of His nature and enjoy fellowship with Him, for all fellowship is through the spirit. The spirit knows spiritual truths and realities apart from the process of reason. When God deals with man He deals with the spirit. The spirit gives man God-consciousness.

Man has a soul. The soul includes the mind, the will, the desires and the emotions. The spirit cannot contact what is material. Neither can the body, alone, intelligently contact the physical world. But the mind, through the evidence brought to it through the physical senses, can form an accurate picture of the material universe. The soul gives man self-consciousness whereby he is able to know the physical and material.

Man lives in a physical body. The soul and the body fit him to dwell in a physical world. They are his contact with it. The body is the home of the spirit. It is merely an "earthen vessel" which will disintegrate at death when the real man, the spirit leaves. The body gives man world-consciousness.

When we are Born Again, the spirit is recreated and receives the life and nature of God. The mind and the body are unchangetable. At least, there is permanent change in them. The body is to be presented to God "a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God." Rom. 12:1. The soul is to be renewed after the image of Christ. "And have put on the new man, that being reformed unto knowledge after the image of him that created him." Col. 3:10.

It is God’s plan that the spirit govern the entire man. This would mean the power and ability of God operating in man and through man for this power and ability of God are deposited in the recreated spirit. "For of his fulness we all received, and grace upon grace.” John 1:16.

The renewal of the mind is the process through which the mind which, in turn, operates through the body. However, the renewal of the mind, or the renewed mind, or the mind that is in harmony with it. In turn, the renewed mind must be adjusted to the spirit. If not, the renewed mind, which has power of God, is imprisoned in an unchaste function.

The renewal is why God’s ability is hidden in the individual. Our minds are not in harmony with God and are not a recreated spirit, or with the Word.

As our minds are brought into agreement with the Word, there will be a natural harmony and victory into our lives for we will then be the working of God’s power and all things will rest to the soul, healing to the body and the revealing of every temporal need.

The renewed mind is the mind that lives by the Word. The evidence of the renewal of the mind is plainly visible above the evidence of the senses. The natural condition of man is the attitude of the Word. He sees himself as God sees him, as "more than a conqueror," as "abundantly over-sufficing in blessing in Christ," as "delivered out of the power of darkness," and as a "New Creation in Christ." He refuses to accept the interpretation by the senses of sickness and defeat. He boldly confesses what he is in Christ and the confession is the confidence in his everyday life.

That Ye May Prove the things that are good

The word "prove" here means "to know by experience." The Scriptures clearly teach that we may not only know God’s Will for our lives but that we may also enjoy it.

"For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God afore prepared that we should walk in them." Eph. 2:10.

The renewed mind is certain to know God’s Will for it is an indication that he has been able to reveal Himself and His purpose to the one who is in obedience to Him and His Word.

THE PLACE

Adelaid A. Pollard

There is a place where thou canst say, “Ariel.”

There is a place where thou canst say, “Artful.”

There is a place where thou canst say, “Aristocrat.”

There is a place where thou canst say, “Adventurer.”

There is a place where thou canst say, “Ah, me!”

There is a place where thou canst say, “Ah!”

There is a place of hoarded gold and free it for the Lord’s service.

There is a place — upon some distant shore — where thou canst wash the worker or the Word.

There is a place where Heaven itself will depend.

There is a place where all the responsive moves to things spiritual.

There is a place, a silent, trusting hour — where God can have the descendents and fights for thee.

Where is that blessed place — where the one who can be made O, Soul, it is the secret place of prayer.
