IS YOUR NAME WRITTEN THERE?

Is your name written down in the Book of Life? This is a matter that is more important than any other question you will ever face. It is vital to your eternal welfare. The world has its Blue Book, its exclusive circles, but they will perish. But God has a book, that you should be sure of your name being inscribed therein.

This book has a name and is called the "Lamb's Book of Life" (Rev. 21:27), and it contains a record of the names of the ones washed in the Blood of the Lamb (Rev. 13:8).

It is a record of names kept by God Himself (Ex 32:32). Sometimes folks profess religion and don't have it and deceive their fellow man, but God keeps this record so you had better make sure and pray thru until God reveals His acceptance unto you. Be sure of your eternal welfare, for only in this life "passed from death unto life" (St. John 5:24), and your name written in heaven (Luke 10:20), in the Book of Life (Philippians 4:3).

Then avoid sin as you would a rattlesnake for SIN will cause your name to be blotted out. "And the Lord said *Whosoever hath sinned against me, him will I blot out of my book"—Ex. 32:33.

Faithfulness to God will keep your name there "He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment: and I will not blot out his name out of the Book of Life, but I will confess his name before my Father, and before His angels"—Rev. 3:5.

It will be opened at the White Throne Judgement (Rev. 20:12).

And at that time thy people shall be delivered, every one that shall be found written in the book.—Dan. 12:1.

Your name in the Book of Life will keep you out of hell (Rev. 20:15).

And will give you an entrance into the New Jerusalem. "And there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie; but they which are written in the Lamb's Book of Life"—Rev. 21:27.

You cannot afford to trifle away your opportunities of seeking God. Today is the day of salvation. Now is the accepted time. Seek the Lord while He may be found, call upon while He is near. Whosoever may come now. You can have your name in the Book of Life. There is power in the Blood of Jesus to wash away your sins. If you neglect it will cost you your soul, for in that day "whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire.

Evangelist Emma Taylor held a very successful revival at Tampa, Florida. Several Catholics prayed through to the full experience. Sister Taylor is at present in Oklahoma City and open for calls.

Rev. J M Taylor was stricken down with disease June 15. For days we hardly knew whether he would recover, but at this writing he is improving, thank the Lord.

Texas Conference Camp Meeting

The Texas Conference Camp Meeting is to be held at the Fair Grounds, Gainesville, Texas, July 23 to Aug. 3rd. Rev. J H King will be principal speaker.

ARKANSAS CONFERENCE

The Arkansas Conference Camp Meeting is to be held at Silver Springs, Ark. July 25 to Aug. 3.

The Edmond church enjoyed a good meeting under the preaching of Sister Davenport.

Oklahoma City First Church Sunday School received District Banner No. 1, at the rally at the Second Church June 22. The average attendance was 214.

Pleasant Valley received the District Banner at the Sunday School rally held at Enid June 22.

Rev. T J Collier has been in an evangelistic campaign at Tipton. The meeting has been going on seven weeks.

Supt. J P Pinkston and Wife, of the Tri-State Conference, began a revival meeting at Hug- gins, Mo., Monday night, June 9. Large crowds and good interest the first night.

Tom’s Creek, Va., June 18— I am in a revival meeting here, began Sunday night, June 15. Good interest. Several in the altar for last two nights. I don’t know how we will take care of the people if the crowds keep increasing. More than could get in the house last night. Pray for the success of the meeting and that I will be healed of a severe cold. I want to be humble and in God’s will.

K R Jones

Shawnee, Okla., June 21—Dear Bro. Muse and Faith family. I am glad to report victory in my soul. Sister Clara Wilson and I have been conducting a two weeks revival for the Pentecostal Church of God. There were two saved, and one sanctified. Pray for our success in His service.

Clara Hill
Reports from the Field

Rev. Dean and Lillie Smith held a meeting at Calvin.

Rev. L G Chilcoat has been in a revival meeting at Wewoka.

The Pampa church was blessed with a revival during the month of June. Rev. N T Morgan conducted the first part of the meeting, and when duty called him elsewhere, Rev. Laura Stratton continued the meeting. Several were saved and sanctified.

Okemah, Okla., June 12—Dear Bro. Muse and Faith family—I still have victory. Have seen several souls pray through. We are now in the midst of a revival at Okemah. God is blessing in an old-time manner. We have our tent up and crowds are increasing. The saints here have the victory. The devil is hindering all he can, but God is moving, so pray earnestly for us.

NEW CHURCH ORGANIZED

A new Pentecostal Holiness Church has been organized at Butler, Okla., with 13 charter members. The church was organized May 18, by Rev. E. D. Thompson.

MAKING PROGRESS

Muskogee, Okla., June 16—Enclosed renewal for Faith paper. I am always glad to receive the paper. We have purchased a nice church here in Muskogee. I am very thankful for it. We closed meeting June 1, with Bro. Maffey doing the preaching. The church was strengthened along Pentecostal lines. We have some real soldiers for the Lord here. Bro. Muse, I am expecting great things from God in our new locality. I am so happy to think I am a soldier of the Cross of Calvary. I do like to exalt the Name high which is able to save men and women from sin. May God bless you in getting out the Faith.

John L. Stewart

Daniel Thomas Byus

A letter from Darjeeling, India, announces the birth of Daniel Thomas Byus, a 9 lb. boy, to Rev. and Mrs. Geo. A. Byus, on May 13, 1930. Bro. Byus writes "We are so happy. God has honored us with a big fine boy. Mrs. Byus is fine, and we all are well. I am feeling better than I have felt for months. God is our healer. Praise His name."

We indeed appreciate this bright young missionary, and may he ever be a soul winner for Jesus.

We feel especially honored in that this boy is named for the Editor and Bro. T T Lindsey.

Dear Faith family.—I am glad to sound a note of praise to the Lord for His mercy. And thanks to the dear saints who so earnestly held me up to God in prayer during my illness. Your prayers meant much in such a time. I am slowly improving. Please keep praying that God will give me strength for the work that lays before us. May God bless all who prayed and those who wrote me and helped us in other ways. Praise God for His keeping me saved, sanctified and filled with His Spirit. Mrs. J P Pinkston

Silver Springs, Ark., June 21—We have just closed a revival at Frisco Springs, Ark., and Pleasant Ridge, Ark. The Lord surely is blessing. Bro. Winfred Rife, Sister Annabel Campbell, Rosie and myself have been doing the preaching. My oldest daughter helped us in this work. We are open for calls for meetings. Any one desiring us for a meeting please write us at Rogers, Ark., Route 3, Box 21. I want to praise the Lord for victory in my soul.

Texas Conference Camp Meeting

The Sixth Annual session of the Texas Conference and Camp Meeting will convene at Gainesville, Texas, July 23 to Aug. 3rd. We have selected Fair Grounds for our location, and will have a large building to accommodate all those who desire to attend.

Rev. J H King, our Gen. Supt. will be the principal speaker, and will preside over the Conference session Aug. 1-2. Our preachers voted to pay $10.00 each in order to give free meals at the cook shack. Most of them have been rather slow to respond. We would like to urge you to act immediately on this, so the Board will know what to depend upon. Send all remittances to Rev. Elmer Jackson, Woodville, Okla. We are praying that God will give us the best camp meeting we have ever had. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

Ralph Robinson, Conf. Supt.

A Mighty Revival Needed

Oklahoma's greatest need today is not oil wells, or commercialism. What Oklahoma needs today is a mighty revival of good old-fashioned Holiness religion.

Statistics reveal facts. And statistics reveal the startling information that out of every 100 people in Oklahoma, only 24 are church members and 76 make no profession at all. O Lord, send us a revival.

And we are aware of the fact that a large percentage of the members of the churches have never truly been born again. The large per cent a mere handshake affair. It is a conservative estimate to place one-half of those being church members, as having never had "born again" experiences. And then subtract the backslidden in heart, and you will find about ten out of every 100 are Christians and 90 unsaved. Think of it.

We need a revival of religion. Not a mass movement of handshaking affair, nor a "repeat after me" prayer, but a mighty wave of heart rending Holy Ghost conviction that will bring men and women to their knees with hot tears of repentance, until they pray through and touch heaven with their plea for mercy, and God pours the glory in their soul, and their faces shine as they shout the victory for a real, genuine rock bottom, sky-blue know-so salvation. We need a real heaven-born revival to envelop the whole state.

Pray for revival! A real state wide Holy Ghost revival. Pray, pray, pray. The revival we need cannot come through machinery, it must come through prayer.

THE OKLAHOMA CITY REVIVAL

The meeting held by Evangelist Willa J Short came to a close Sunday night, June 29. The meeting began June 1st. The meeting was held under her large Gospel tent, however one week of the meeting was held in the church. Sister Short did some good preaching, and quite a number prayed through on different lines. I think around 44 were saved and reclaimed, about seven sanctified and five received the Baptism of the Holy Ghost. May God bless her as she goes to her next campaign at Dallas.

The Okmulgee church have been in the midst of an evangelistic campaign, Rev. T A Melton, of North Carolina, being the evangelist.

QUARTERLY CONFERENCES

The Oklahoma City District will meet with the Union Grove Church Friday, July 4 at 2 p.m., for Bible study. The subject is the Second Coming of Jesus.

Business session Saturday at 9:30 a.m. Send written reports to me Box 762, Oklahoma City. Union Grove is 17 1/2 miles southeast of City. Go east on old So. 23rd St. road 11 miles, south five miles, west one-half mile.

Enid District will meet with the Pleasant Valley church July 17 at 8 p.m. Friday morning at 9, subject General rules of Christian Conduct. Business session Saturday morning at 9:30.

Send all reports to me at Drummond, Okla. There will be devotional services at each place Friday night, Saturday night, Sunday morning and night. Let every pastor see that a delegate is elected from their church, and let all Pastors, Evangelists and Mission Workers be present. The Quarterly Conference have been the best they have ever been and those that attended were wonderfully blessed and refreshed.

WEDDINGS

Rev. Elmer Jackson, pastor of the Woodville church, and Miss Clytee Powers, of Garfield, New Mexico, were happily united in the bonds of matrimony, by Rev. C E Neukirchner, June 15, 1930, in the presence of a large crowd at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E E Sutton, Woodville, Okla.

Mr. Rex Smith and Miss Oma Turney were united in marriage May 11, 1930, at Sulphur, Okla., by Rev. C E Neukirchner.

I am glad to report victory in my soul. Pray for my daughter in the hospital, also for the many lost dear ones. The Lord is real to me. Any one wanting me for a revival write me at 1302 E Villas, Guthrie, Okla. I covet your prayers.

Let's send the whole Gospel to the whole world.

We are glad indeed to announce to our readers that arrangements have been made whereby we can give them the benefit of a bargain price on the Pentecostal Holiness Advocate in connection with the Faith. We are enabled to offer both the Pentecostal Holiness Advocate and the Pentecostal Holiness Faith for one year for $1.50, the regular price of the Advocate. This is an exceptional offer, when you can get both papers for the price of one. We are very anxious to secure a larger circulation for the Advocate in the west. It is the official organ of the entire church, and is well worth the subscription price alone. Rev. G. F. Taylor is the editor. To those who have not been subscribers to the Advocate and wish to try it for six months, we will give you both papers for the six months for 75 cents. Both papers, one year for $1.50, or both papers on trial for six months for 75 cents. Be sure to send all orders to Dan T. Muse, Box 762, Oklahoma City, Okla.

IN MEMORY

"And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, 'Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth; yea, saith the Spirit that they may rest from their labors, and their works do follow them.'"—Rev. 14:13.

Elvin Aubry Gene Priddy was born Sept. 24, 1929, March 30, 1930, he fell in a water tank and was drowned, making his stay on earth 17 months and 26 days. He leaves to mourn his death a father and mother, a brother, Carl, a sister, Carline, and grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Priddy. 3 uncles, 2 aunts, and a host of friends. The funeral service was conducted by the writer and the body layed to rest in the Hinton cemetery. The pastor of the Pentecostal Holiness Church, Sister Wilson, and several of the saints met us at the cemetery to help share the burdens and grief of the bereaved ones, which was greatly appreciated.

Little Elvin was a sweet loving baby that was noticed of all that met with him. I can almost see his little hands as they reached out to me while I was in their home last summer. I have a hope that I will get to see his little hands reach to me to help to bear me through the portals of heaven.

Our loss is heaven's gain. God bless the father and mother, and may Jesus take the place in their grieved hearts of the deceased.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

We have a good Sunday School at Calvin. It is well attended every Sunday considering the size of our town. We have an enrollment of 100 or more and an average attendance of about 75. All of our teachers and officers are saved, sanctified and Baptized with the Holy Spirit. Our young people though few in number are moving along fine with their work. At present they feel a burden to help the School at Kingfisher, and are trying to devise some plan whereby they can send in offerings to the school. Please pray for them. We all love our pastor as we believe him to be a man filled with the Spirit of God and desiring the will of God done in everything. Pray for the work in general at Calvin.

WEDDINGS

Raymond R. Robinson and Sister Dovie Underwood were united in marriage Sunday June 8th, at the evening service at the Garfield, N.M. church. Bro. W.J. Engler brought a splendid message at that hour, after which he performed the ceremony.

Our pastor, Bro. Robinson, is loved and honored not only by the church, but by many friends whom he has made. Through his great love to God and his earnest efforts he has won his way into many hearts.

Sister Dovie was one of the first members of this church and is now the secretary. She is loved and highly respected by everyone. A purer, sweeter Christian character never lived. To know Dovie is to love her. And I think heaven must have smiled as it looked down on that beautiful scene. Every one was much impressed with the occasion. The many friends said they never witnessed a more sacred and beautiful wedding. Our prayers and best wishes are that they may have many happy days. Read Acts 11:23-24. Lida Powers

Mrs. Ethel Thiem, Mrs. Nellie Patterson, Florence Johnson and Thelma Cosper are engaged in a revival meeting at Cogar.

Rev. Lewis Sawgalsky is to be in a revival at the Enid church beginning this week.

Troy, Okla.—Send me the Faith. Think it is a fine little paper and every Christian home should have the Faith coming to their home. I want to request prayer for the healing of my body. The doctor said I had Pellagra, I am trusting God. I know He is able to heal, so pray for me, and that I might understand what He would have me to do. We are moving along very well at Troy. Need a revival but can’t get a preacher. Too many Jonahs on the job. We need more folks on fire for God and that won’t lay down on the job. Pray for us, and especially for me that God will heal me.

A Soul's Tragedy

My Spirit shall not always strive with man.—Gen. 6:3.

One night recently after service, as we walked to the rear of the Gospel tent we came to a father weeping. We sat down by his side and with tears running down his cheeks he told us the tragedy of a human soul. It was the story of his own daughter that at that moment lay a corpse. She was yet just a bit of a girl. She was a young girl of beautiful character, and had the Baptism of the Holy Ghost. But sin entered and robbed her of the sweet communion with God. She went the way of the world, and ran away and married. Disease came, vile putrefying disease a result of somebody's sin. Within hearing of a Pentecostal Holiness revival she went out into eternity to meet God.

The following is from the Moody B.I. Monthly. Richard Weaver was holding an evangelistic campaign and a young school teacher became anxious about her soul's salvation. Worker after worker dealt with her in vain, and then Mr. Weaver himself tried to lead her to Christ. Tears flowed down her cheeks and deepening anxiety seemed to settle upon her, as he pleaded, but there was no decision.

One night while sitting in his lodging a deep impression came upon Mr. Weaver that he should go at once to plead with this young woman. When he knocked at the door, her mother opened it and said, "Mr. Weaver, this is of God; I have been praying as Mary has been walking up and down the room crying with anxiety. I have been praying God to send you or some one."

Mr. Weaver went in and pleaded and prayed until early morning. At last the girl got up and said, "Now listen to me: I am determined that you will leave me alone."

Mr. Weaver said, "I opened my eyes with surprise, but she stood there as calm and unmoved as the moment before she had been deeply moved. I never stopped to say 'good-night;' just took my hat and went. I was in the presence of a soul's tragedy."

The next morning when the girl came down to breakfast there were black lines under her eyes, and the mother said, "Mary, why will you not settle it? You did not sleep any last night. I heard you tramping up and down your room."

She said, "How can a doomed soul sleep."

"Oh, Mary, there is love, there is hope as long as there is life; do not break my heart by saying that!"

She said, "Mother, I have settled my destiny. This morning, when you and Mr. Weaver were on your knees, I settled it then."

They were sitting down at breakfast, and she was taking a piece of bread to her mouth, the mother saw her tremble, and before she could get around the table to put her arms round her, she fell to the floor a lifeless corpse.

"My Spirit shall not always strive."

Arthur R. Oswald was born May 11, 1913 at Gotebo, Kiowa County, Okla. Died June 3, 1930, at his home in Apache, Okla., making his stay on earth 17 years, 3 weeks and 3 days. For two weeks he suffered from blood poison which proved fatal. On Tuesday, June 3, at about 6:15 pm he made peace with God, and at 6:30 he died a peaceful death.

Funeral service held at Apache at 12:30 June 6, preached by Bro. Melton. The body was taken to Gotebo and at 2:30 funeral service held in the Baptist church by Bro. Finkenbinder and Bro. Melton. He was laid to rest in the Gotebo cemetery on June 6, 1930.

He leaves to mourn his departure, a father, mother, four brothers and one sister and a host of relatives and friends.

There is a vacancy in our home.
That never can be filled.
As from room to room we go,
His voice is hushed and still.
We loved you, yes we loved you
But Jesus loved you more
For He has sweetly called you
To yonder shining shore.
