STEPPING FORWARD

At the Annual session of East Oklahoma Conference a fund was started to purchase a Gospel tent to be used in the poor and neglected places where we have no churches. A Home Missionary Board was elected which is to select a home missionary. There was subscribed in pledges and cash $180.00 on buying a tent. Many other saints who were not present that feel the burden for such a great work and to all who wish to have a part in this work for the Master and help build this fund send your offering as soon as possible to Rev. Arthur Smith, 1206 W. 5. Okmulgee, Ok. As soon as the amount comes in the tent will be purchased, put on the field. Join us with your prayers and means and let us rally to this work. Arthur Smith

KANSAS CAMP MEETING
Kansas Conference

The camp meeting closed Sunday night, Aug. 10. Bro. King and Bro. Dean did some good preaching, also Bro. Turner was with us and preached for us a few nights. People were present from 4 states and China.

We had a wonderful camp and there were a goodly number that prayed through on all lines, and the power fell in many of the services and the saints shouted and praised the Lord. Those not present missed a feast from the Lord. The Conference voted to have the next camp meeting in the Sun City District, date and place being left with the Official Board. Harry Hibbert

Kings College Rally

The service at Oklahoma Conference camp meeting held in behalf of Kings College was an inspiration. Rev. Thos. L Aaron led making the first speech, and was followed S E Stark and O C Wilkins, after which the writer made an appeal for funds to pay on the property indebtedness and the saints readily responded, and gave and pledged a sum total of $1760.00 to be paid in by Oct. 15. The saints are coming to recognize and appreciate the value of Kings College.

The Texas Conference raised in cash and pledges $230.00, the East Oklahoma Conf. camp about $200.00, and the Kansas camp $25.00.

This more than $3000.00 must be raised, and the Educational Board are sending ministers to the churches to raise money to put this over, Give liberally

A GOOD MEETING.

Healdton: Okla., Aug. 25—We were sent here as pastor and we found the Pentecostal tide some what low, but we started a revival under our tent, and God met with us the first service, and has been with us since. We are having the largest crowds the Healdton church has had for years. Folks have been praying through almost every night. Saturday night 5 prayed through, and last night there were about 25 in the altar, and a goodly number prayed through. There is a good spirit among the saints. Of course like all other places we have our kickers and grumblers. If we did n't have some of them it would be too easy at times. I thank God for present victory over all, and we are looking for a great time in the Lord. Pray for us. Yours for Pentecost in its fullness.

Lee F Hargis

Great Missionary Service

The last Sunday afternoon of the Oklahoma Conference camp meeting is Missionary service. It's an established custom, And God has blessed it, and we have seen some wonderful services, but the service on Sunday afternoon Aug. 31, 1930, far surpasses them all.

We had asked the Committee for this service to raise money to send the J M Turner family to India. Over $575.00 had been raised in the Central West, but over a thousand dollars more was needed. Mrs. Virden was present and spoke 15 minutes on the work in China. Then the editor followed stating the needs of sending the Turner family to India, and an appeal was made for finances, and the saints began to bring their money and checks and lay them down, amidst shouting, talking in tongues and dancing in the Spirit. It almost looked as though the saints wouldn't stop giving and the total finally reached $1024.00 cash and pledges. And this, in the face of the worst drought Oklahoma has had for years. Praise the Lord. This service will be long remembered. The Oklahoma Conference responded wonderfully. And another unusual feature was this, that in all this offering there were only 21 pennies.

Let's send the whole Gospel to the whole world.

OPENING OF KINGS COLLEGE

True to schedule the 1930-31 term of school started off Tuesday, Sept. 9, with fairly good enrollment of knowledge thirsty boys and girls. Prospects are bright for a good term of school. The splendid faculty has been augmented by the acquisition of Miss Eula Chicoat, former president of Ozark Industrial College, Monte Ne, Ark., as a teacher in Kings College this term. The splendid faculty consists of the following:

Thos. L Aaron
Clarence Williams
E A Dickinson
C A Samuell
Gracie Haddock
Eula Chicoat
Mrs. C. A Samuell
Nadine Hart

Kings College affords a wonderful opportunity to parents who want their children to acquire an education amidst holiness surroundings.

A Great Camp Meeting

The annual Oklahoma Conference camp meeting was a decided success. The attendance of the saints was good, and especially so in view of the drought that included Oklahoma in its scope. Saints were present from many sections, and such a sweet spirit of unity and fellowship that prevailed over the camp. And such giving! Such a spirit of generosity; yes, such a spirit of sacrifice, as the saints responded to Kings College, to the Missionary work, etc. They were determined to do something to put over the work of God. If you missed this camp you missed something indeed.

And the preaching! To say it was wonderful would be stating it mildly. The brethren seemed to have secured the right preachers at the right time for the right place. Rev. J H King that is so well known for his deep, soul stirring, uplifting messages that makes you to see yourself as you are and creates within you a longing to be more like the Master. And then Rev. O E Sproull, of Washington, D.C. Bro. Sproull was well received. And such preaching, he gave us so many good things. He preaches old fashioned Pentecostal Holiness straight from the shoulder without fear or favor. Seems as though he can knock the bark from all sides and split the middles and pour in the healing balm.

These camp meetings are a wonderful uplift to the saints. There were comparatively few saved at this camp, but the saints were made stronger, and drooping spirits were revived.

The camp meeting committee composed of N T Morgan, Chas. J Phipps and Henry R Samples arranged a good program of services and Kings College entertained the folks in a splendid manner.

Election of Officers

A business meeting of the camp meeting association was held Friday, Aug. 27, and short addresses made by Morgan, Beall, Muse Stark, Phipps and Samples.

The following officers were elected for the coming year: Dan T Muse, President, Chas. J Phipps, Vice-Pres., T L Aaron, Sec.-Treas.
